THIRTY-SEVEN CHARGES IN BLACK MARKET CASE

Twenty-seven western Ontario residents are facing charges of buying and selling goods from other than authorized dealers following the smashing of one of the largest black markets to come to light in Canada. The roundup of buyers in five counties followed weeks of investigation when the Unimperial Farmer and Battery Company reported the theft of 122 tons.

Order Day Clides saw, and he "buddy" when one price club was held. The one, or three, or, right away. Personal attention.

THE WALTON-BROW WEDDING AT PRINCE ALBERT

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Brown, 116 Twenty-seventh Street East, Prince Albert, was the scene of a pretty wedding Friday, January 28 when their only daughter, Gertrude, became the bride of LAC Herbert Ernest Walton, only son of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Walton of Campbellville, Ontario. Rev. R. M. Laskoff performed the ceremony in the tastefully decorated living room.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a street-length frock of old rose crepe trimmed with lace. Her accessories were black and a bouquet of pink carnations, completed her costume. The bride's only ornament was a gold locket, gift of the groom.

Miss Anne Van Ramshorst attended the bride, gown in turquoise, with black accessories. LAC P. Stalte of Toronto supported the groom.

A wedding supper was served to 35 relatives and friends, a three tier wedding cake centering the bride's table.

The bride and groom left for Campbellville, where they will visit the groom's parents. The bride travelled in a turquoise two-piece dress with matching accessories.

Mr. and Mrs. Walton will make their home in Estevan where the groom is stationed.
