HIDOT SUCHOLAY

Upon high alters of their youth tall And throw their light upon the cloth of falth-That rick, embroidered cloth whose mowy sheen Reflects in full the measure of each No mcrificial urge to garner fame could kindle such a light. Or trace with coints of fire, the threads of life to form a pattern Quivering with intensity, the golden tapers flame each night, In tribute to their heart's desire to 25-27; 11: 12-15. lay the game aright. . And if it is their wish to serve by biazing trails across the sky. Then you and I must wait at home

That God may watch them with And with a Master's hand teach them Grace Elton.

Twenty Years Ago

Thursday, August 28, 1924

"Going to the Exhibition" is popular query these days. Councillor Nicol has been engaged this week in cleaning up the old cemetery and making it presentable.

At the Guelph Gladioli Show last week Messra. Mann and Gilchrist of Acton were awarded first prize for the best four varieties, Canadian introduction.

A big fire at Beardmore Tanneries occurred on Sunday when the yard, beam house buildings and much expensive machinery and stock were destroyed. Extimated loss in the Sole Leather Department is $150,000. Effective assistance was rendered Georgetown and Milton brigades.

sagaweys, a son.

LYND-At the home, Main Street, Acton, on Wednesday, August 20, 1924, William Lynd in his 83rd year. McCUTCHEON-At Hamilton aged 64 years.

Tut's Tomb Peas 3,300 Years Old Grow in Florida

They are Slightly Longer and Durker than Average Varlety and Have Walnut Finvor

ond and third generations of three uel went on to say, 'There is none of 1350 B. C. excavation sent three of these 33 century peas to his American friend, Maj. Walter G. Dyer, who in due season planted them in his garden at Portsmouth, R. Y. pen from a seed store and the result-and a half of fresh peas. seeds with him to the AAF tacticalseed centre here and the school complanted some 60 in the sand-based soil outside his office.

Planted in April Florida gardeners raised their eyeis during December and early January. However, by early July the plants were full-grown at seven feet. These green peas, which grow vine bears a white wing-like flower the devil." which is a little smaller than the average. Oddly these remarkable plants are given a wide berth by worms, green lice and beetles, which continue to chew up other vegetation only a few yards away. No explanation as yet has been discovered for this curiosity the pests fear the "King Tut" curse.

Maj. Dyer ate a part of the second crop, after boiling them in the usual right of the Lord Jesus to reign (Phil. manner. He says they were very tasty and had a distinctive walnut flavor. There is a possibility that these peas, more heat resistant and apparently more "bug resistant" than the common pea may prove the nucleus of a new southern crop.

RIGHT UP THE FRENCHMAN'S STREET

In renaming, in German, the street of Alsace, the Nazis made at least one bad blunder which recoiled on their own heads. They altered the same of the principal street of Mulhouse to "Adolf Hitler Strasse." That street was formerly well-known to everyone as the "Rue de Sauvage."

age." When the apt association delivery of a further 1,200,000 undawned on the Germans, they decid- its is expected during the next twelve to do homage to Hitler elsewhere.

The Sunday School Lesson

BUNDAY, AUGUST STUL 1944

ISRAEL'S FIRST KING Califor Text. -Honor all men. Love the brotherbood. Fear God. Honor the king. 1 Pet. 2: 17. Lesson Text.-1 Sam. 9: 15-21; 10:

Time .- 1095 B. C. Places .- Ramah

Mizpeh, Jabesh Gilead. Exposition.-I. "Behold, the Man Whom I Spoke to Thee of," 9: 15-21. The true way to choose a ruler in church or state is to let the Lord choose him (v. 17). Saul was a good prince for the period for which God chose him; when his usefulness was at an end, God chose another (1 Sam. 16: 1). The word "seer" (v. 19) means first six months of the year. The one who sees. He sees things God fact that the cash income figure for makes manifest to him in visions the first six months of 1944 is only (Num. 24: 4-16). The etymology is $6,000,000 less than the estimate for very similar to that of the modern the full year 1939 Indicates the imword clairvoyant. Many would make portance of Canada's role as a supmodern clairvoyants the legitimate plier of foodstuffs to the United Kingsuccessors of the Bible "seers" and dom "prophets." They are the successors of one class of Bible prophets, the false prophets (Jer. 14: 14) and those who had familiar spirits (1 Chron. 10: 13, 14; Isa. 8: 19, 20; Lev. 19: 31; 20: 6; Deut. 18: 10-12; 2 Ki 21: 1, 2, 6). The important reason why

Saul should not set his mind on the asses was that they were found (v. 20) but there was a deeper reason. namely "all that is desirable in Israel" was to be his, and a few asses were of little account to one who had come into a kingdom. Much less ought we who are heirs of the heavenly kingdom to set our affections on the poor possessions of earth (Col. 3: 1, 2; 2 WANN-At Guelph General Hospital, Cor. 4; 18). The humble way on Tuesday, August 26th, 1924, to which Saul received the intelligence Rev. and Mrs. S. W. Wann, of Nas- of the greatness to which he had been called (v. 21) promised well for the future, and indicated better than his magnificent physique (v. 21) his fitness for the exalted position to which God had called him. When he was Sunday, August 24, 1924, Mathias little in his own sight, God made him McCutcheon, formerly of Ospringe, head of the tribes of Israel (ch. 15. 17). But when he became puffed up with power, He rejected him (ch. 15: 23: Luke 14: 11; Hos. 13: 1). The thigh given to Saul (v. 24) was the choice piece (Ezek. 24: 4). It belong-> offering (Lev. 7: 32, 33). II. How the People Received Their King, 10: 25-27.

> ed to the priest as his portion of the

the man chosen. "See ye him whom of the University of New Brunswick. Jap was too strong and escaped before the Lord hath chosen," he cried. With She is acting head of the department help in the form of New Zealand far deeper meaning may ye point to of education and philosophy. Jesus and say, "See ye him whom ORLANDO, Florida (CP)-The sec- God hath chosen" (Ac. 2: 36). Samsmall, dry peas, nearly 3,300 years like him." It was true, but how old, are creating quite a stir in the much truer is it of Jesus, that there Florida horticultural world. The peas is none like Him (Song of Sol. 5: 10). were discovered in the tomb of King Saul assumed to himself as yet no Tutankhamen among the precious glory, he went quietly back to his works of art, jewels, and rich furn- humble home and waited for the call ishings befitting an Egyptian ruler of providence to do his duty. It soon came (ch. 11: 1-11). Not all the In 1936 an English archaeologist people were apathetic. There was a who had worked on the Tutankhamen faithful little company "a band of men whose hearts God had touched (Ezra 1: 5). It is always the band whose hearts God has touched who do the fighting and win the victories. But there was They flourished as any ordinary another sort of men in Israel, "Sons of worthlessness." Their descendants ant seeds planted the following year atill live. These men mocked. They brought a harvest of about a pound asked questions too. The sons of Belinl are always great at asking quest-The major brought some of these long, and their favorite question is "How?" So these sons of Belial asked "How shall this man save us?" mandant, Col. Harlan W. Hokler, That is just what the sons of Belial to-day are asking about Christ. They showed their contempt by bringing him no present in acknowledgement of his kingship. In the same way brows at the colonel's planting peas many to-day show their contempt for in April since the pea bearing season Christ. Saul showed his wisdom and humility and meekness by being silent under slights and mockery. How little one can discorn as yet of that proud spirit of self-assertion that is about four to six in a pod, are slight- afterward to be his ruin. He is acting ly longer, flatter and darker than like Christ now (Matt. 27: 12-14); afthe average garden variety. The pea terward we shall see him acting like

> III. Saul Made King By All People. 11: 12-15.

When Saul was first anointed King, some had despised him and had said "Shall Saul reign over us?" (ch. 10: 27). Many are saying the same thing of our divinely appointed King Jesus to-day (Luke 19: 14). But except a sergeant's theory that even all were now ready to acknowledge Saul's right to reign, and some day the whole world will acknowledge the 2: 7). In this day of Saul's triumph it was suggested that those who refused to recognize his right to reign should be put to death. Saul's greatness of character at this time comes out again. He would not consent to the death of a single person, no matter how bitterly they had opposed him. He humbly recognized that it was not he but Jehovah who had wrought deliverance for Israel (v. 13). All real victories come from God (cf. Ex. 14: 13, 30; ch. 19: 5; Ps. 44: 4-9; Prov. 21: 31, R. V.; 1 Cor. 15: 10).

CAPE TOWN (CP)—Ten million units of penicillin have arrived in After the change, the Mulhousiens South Africa from the United States would exclaim to one another: "At by airmail. The supply is for the use last, we know the name of this sav- of the Union defence forces and the

The Week at OTTAWA

BY DOUGLAS GREEN

OTTAWA (CP) - Improved crop prospects should result in the maintenance of farm income during the 1944 government, experts say. A report issued by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics noted that the 1944 estimate of $716,394,000 for cash income from the sale of farm products in the first six months of 1944 was an increase of 30 per cent, over the comparable period of 1943. The bureau sald that farmers nor mally received about 40 per cent. their annual cash income during the

Increased Farm Income

in farm income.

Net farm income in 1943 amounted the high of $1,154,000,000 reached in andonment of wartime controls. It 1942 but "substantially above" the 1940 estimate of $543,000,000.

Also of interest to Canadian farmers was the announcement by Agriculting of markets.

Dominion foods administrator. The posed the land should be taken over. board will be empowered to buy and sell farm products should prices fall below the level deemed equitable in post-war years, paying a fixed price children recently made a gallant -- alfor them, and, if necessary, disposing though unsuccessful-attempt to capof them at a loss.

FIRST FEMALE PROFESSOR

Samuel was very enthusiastic over woman to be appointed to the faculty ed to get him to the ground but the

Wartime Controls May Be Continued

War Plans for British Agriculture Begin to Take Shape rank Flaherty, just returned from London where he covered the conferrace of Commonwealth . Prime Ministers, tells here shout agricultural conditions in Britain.

BY FRANK FLAHERTY. Camadian Press Staff Writer

The wartime regimentation of British agriculture will probably continue in modified form after the war. The British farmer is considered the most severely regimented farmer in the world. He must farm the way the authorities want him to farm or give

In_return_he has been given fixed prices and assured markets for the things he was asked to produce, financial assistance in buying machinery, and fertilizer and loans for imroving his land through 'drainage

The ruling authority over each farm is the county war agricultural Between 1940 and 1942, higher pric- committee. In a preliminary postes combined with an expansion of war policy statement the National livestock production and higher grain Farmer's Union suggests the commityields to bring a remarkable increase | tees be continued after the war but made representative of the industry.

The union also says farmers are to $974,000,000 - $180,000,000 . below not disposed to call for the early abadvocates continuance of controls of imports with the machinery now functioning in the minstry of health.

Land ownership promises to beture Minister Gardiner of the up- come a political issue in the future. pointment of members of the Farm The Labor Party's policy calls for Price Board, charged with maintain- national ownership of land. The ing floor prices under farm products farmer's organization says the existto protect producers from loss in the ing landlord and tenant system has post-war period and prevent the glut- served well. The only difficulties are where land owners with tenants are A fund of $200,000,000 will be at the unable because of impoverishment disposal of the board, whose chairman or unwilling to comply with the ordis J. G. Taggart, former minister of inary rules of "good estate manageagriculture for Saskatchewan and ment." In such cases the union pro-

AUCKLAND, N. Z. (CP)-A group of seven or eight Solomon Islands ture a lone Japanese soldier survivor of the defeated occupation force. While playing on the beach the children spotted the man moving furtive-SAINT JOHN, N. B. (CP)-Dr. ly in a nearby bush. They flung Louise Thompson, Ph. D., is the first themselves on the soldier and managsoldiers could arrive.

WATERPROOFING A CHIMNEY

Rake out all the crumbled or cracked mortar from between the bricks. Brush out all loose cement. Soul the brickwork with water, then pack with a mixture of 1 part cement. part hydrated lime and 5 parts of clean, coarse building sand, adding only enough water to make a workable mixture. If the brick or mortar joints absorb water, you can get a colorless waterproof coating or cement-base paint to apply to the chim-

REMEMBER—NIGHT RATES

