Mr. Bristol's sermon "The Search for Life" was taken from Jno. 1-35-51. When John the Baptist saw Jesus standing by the river, he told his followers that Christ was indeed the Saviour of the world and that they should follow him. In the 38-39th verses three different incidents occurred. They were a question of invitation and a statement.

Jesus asked of his followers "What Seek Ye?" Perhaps they didn't know and yet there was the desire to Fred Anderson and Mr. J. H. Taylor. give them Everlasting Life. To-day the question "What do you expect out of life?" is asked of each one Coming near the close of the fair it gives visitors an opportunity to get a hird's eye wiew of some of the prize-winning stock as it is paraded before the grandstand Bros. and around the horse ring. This year's parade was a very impressive one and exhibitors were called out over the loud speaker system as they passed in front of the stand. The parade was led by the Lorne Scots Stewart, Mr. Kligour, Bruce Fletcher.

HAVE YOU ORDERED NEXT WINTER'S COAL YET?

Coal delivery men and trucks are scarce. Whether we like it or not, we must warn our customers that it will be absolutely impossible for us to handle an autumn rush. As much coal as possible, within the fair-distribution limits fixed by the Government, must be delivered in the next few weeks.

Do these three thing NOW, and make sure of fuel for next winter: (1) Place your entire fuel order at once. (2) Accept fuel whenever we are able to deliver it, in accordance with Government suitable fuel we may be able to supply.

(3) Permit us to deliver whatever class of
