Holstein And Jersey Shows Feature At Milton Fair

Ran Segsworth and Maurice C. Besty Premier Breeders and Exhibitors—150 Entries by Holstein Breeder—60 Entries of Jerseys

The Halton County Holstein and Jersey Shows conducted by the Halton Holstein Club and the Halton Jersey Cattle Club, in co-operation with the Halton Agricultural Society, were again the outstanding features of the County Fair at Milton on Sept. 30.

Thirty Halton Holstein Breeders brought a total of 150 entries out, which reflected great credit on Premier exhibitor and promoter breeder, numbered among their wins were the Senior and Grand Champion on their 3 year old head sire, Armas Sir George Chieftain Poch; first on their 3 year old dry cow, Spruceleigh Pansy; first in the Open Get of Sire Class on the Get of Glenore Hartog Mercedes, which also won for them the coveted first on the Junior Progeny of Dam's first on the Junior Progeny of Dam's Class, on the progeny of Poplar Row Chieftain Maid, which also won for them the Bank of Commerce Special. The same breeder headed the parade in the Senior Herd Class, and thereby secured the T. Eaton Company Special.

Dr. Chas. N. Blanchard of Freeman won the 2 year old Bull Class on Meadow Wood Lochivar, who was later declared Reserve Senior and Reserve Grand Champion.

The Junior Champion Bull was exhibited by J. L. Neelands & Son of Hornby, in Pioneer Lodge Koba Governor, while the winning senior bull Calf was exhibited by A. T. Woodley of Milton, in Laurio Korndyke Bag Apple, and Morley Watson & Sons of Tansley had the winning Junior Bull Calf in Victor Banantine Pabst, which was declared Reserve Junior Champion.

In the Cow Classes, E. J. Meagher of Oakville, who is making his debut in the show ring swept the boards winning the Mature Dry Cow Class on Montvic Chieftain Bumble; the Milking Cow Class on Buttermaid Lealand, who was later declared Senior and Grand Champion Female, and in the Milking 3 year Old, with an outstanding winner in Graymar Beside Pathfinder. It is interesting to learn that this heifer is now completing her two year old record, and in eleven months has produced over 20,600 lbs. of milk.

Elton McLean of Oakville was also a strong contender in the show, having the winning two year Old in Milk, Dewdrop Rauerd Sharon; the winning Senior Yearling in Sybil Dewdrop Korndyke, which was later declared Junior Champion Female; and the winning Junior Get of Sire, in a strong class which brought out ten entries, on his Get of Moorebell Dewdrop Champion. The same breeder also winning the Junior Herd.

In the two year old Dry Heifer Class, Chas. Austin of Georgetown, another new exhibitor, was first with Evergreen Hill's Jenima.

W. H. Reid & Sons, also of Georgetown, in making their debut in the show ring, had the winning Junior Yearling in Plumbrook Bonnie H., which was later declared Reserve Junior Champion.

Frank Pelletterio & Sons of Milton, had the winning Senior Heifer Calf in Ashville Piette Beauty, and Irvine Thompson of Hornby in a class of 17 Junior Heifer Calves had the winner in Woodglen Rita Supreme.

Chas. Austin and J. L. Neelands & Son had the winners in the Open Progeny of Dam Class, on the progeny of Lenox Jenima Hartog.

As usual at Milton perhaps the outstanding feature of the entire Holstein show was the exhibit staged by the Boys' and Girls' Calf Club, which this year brought out 18 entries. The winning calf was exhibited by David Pelletterio, with Irwin Thompson second; Douglas Alexander 3rd; Earl Ford 4th and John W. Pickett 5th.

In the showmanship feature of the Calf Club Show, first prize went to Ward Brownridge; David Pelletterio 2nd; Lorna Lawrence 3rd; John Stark 4th; and Douglas Alexander 5th.

In the Jersey show, eight breeders brought out 62 head, while Maurice Besty was successful in again winning the awards for premier exhibitor and premier breeder. Gerald Graham, Featherstone Bros., and Arthur Fabbury, were strong contestants throughout. Featherby had the Senior Champion and Reserve Champion on Rochdale Waltham Victor, and the winning two year old in milk, on Rochdale Alan's Alice.

Gerald Graham had the reserve Senior Male on Graham Farm Calinet Royalist, and the winning cow in milk, on Graham Farm Royalist Baby.

Maurice Besty came to the front with the winning Yearling Bull, in Brampton Basil Ward, which was later declared Junior Champion and the Grand Champion. The same breeder had the Junior Female Champion and Reserve Grand in his winning Senior Yearling Landale Dramatic Sunray Lass. Besty was again at the top in the three year olds in milk with Landale Estella Gladys, and in the Junior Calf Class, with Landale Dramatic Flash 2nd. The Robt. Simpson Special for the Champion Heifer was also won by Mr. Besty, who had both the winning Senior and winning Junior Heifer.

Featherstone Bros. of Oakville had the Reserve Junior Champion Bull, in Avonlea You'll Do King; the Senos and Grand Champion Female in Avonlea King's Lass Lass; and the Reserve Junior Champion in Avonlea King Lass Girl. They also scored in the winning top honors in the former class on their Get of Silver Spring April King, which won for them the T. Eaton Company Special, and in the Progeny Class with their Progeny of Avonlea You'll Lass, which also secured them the Grafton & Co. Special.

McClure Bros. of Georgetown, who were making their bid for top honors in this strong show, had the winning Junior Yearling Heifer, in Jester Royal Baroness.

The Boys' and Girls' Jersey and Guernsey Calf Club was also an interesting feature of this show, with Sam Harrop of Milton having the winning calf; Harold Jarvis 2nd; Clayton Dick 3rd; Tom Anderson 4th. In the Showmanship section, Beverly Ellis was at the top; Tom Anderson 2nd; Sam Harrop 3rd; and Fraser McNabb 4th. The Nelson Robinson Specials to the Club Members of the three breeds were won as follows:—Holsteins David Pelletterio, who also won the W. S. Hall Special; Jersey, Sam Harrop; Guernsey, Clayton Dick.

POCKET TROUBLE

HALIFAX (CP)—An epidemic of lost wallets has hit Halifax and citizens are blaming war-time clothing regulations. They claim that the pockets of this season's sport trousers are so shallow that the wallets slip from them easily.

CO-OPERATIVE SOUND BOARD

ST. SIMÉON LES MINES, Que. (CP)—A co-operative hydro to supervise the distribution of electric power here has been set up by 20 residents of this Beauce County village. Each person has agreed to subscribe $50 for its organization.

BRINGS HOME WEDDING GUESTS

The bride wasn't the only person to get a new ring at some of the early marriage feasts. Guests were decorated, too. In Queen Elizabeth's time "a sober philosopher did give away his gold wire rings, at the marriage of his daughter, to the value of four thousand pounds." These were remembrance rings of three strands of twisted wire, one strand for the bride, one for the bridegroom and one for the guest. At the marriage of Queen Victoria and Prince Albert, six dozen rings were given out, each engraved with a profile of the queen. To-day we get a little box of wedding cake, thankful for crumbs.

THE TWEEDIE-NELSON WEDDING SATURDAY IN GODERICH CHURCH

An interesting early autumn wedding was solemnized in St. George's Anglican Church, Goderich on Saturday afternoon when Dorothy Loraine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin G. Nelson, Ergis Ave., was united in marriage to F.O. Frederic Tweedie, R.F.P. son of Mrs. Tweedie, Barking Essex, England, and the late Mr. T. H. Tweedie. The pastor, Rev. W. H. Duabar, officiated. The bride is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Gibbons, Cameron Avenue, Acton. The altar and chancel were beautifully decorated with white baby's breath, ferns and candelas. The wedding music was played by C. P. S. Carmen, Mus. H., and during the signing of the register, Miss Eleanor Bigg, Stratford, sang "I Love Thee." Given in marriage by her father the bride looked lovely in a gown of white slipper satin fashioned with fitted bodice and sweetheart neckline, her full skirt falling into a slight train. Her floor length veil fell from a matching halo and she carried a cascade of white Starlight roses, bouvardia and larkspur. Her only ornament was a pearl necklace, the gift of the groom. The bridesmaid, Miss Eileen Robinson, Blyth, wore a princess gown of white tulle with sweetheart neckline and matching halo. Her flowers were a cascade of red roses.

The best man was F.O. Roy Tomlinson, Port Albert, and the ushers were Mr. Brent Nelson, Goderich, and Mr. Bernard Double, Stratford. After the ceremony a reception was held at the Park House where Mrs. Nelson received the guests wearing a gold wool suit and a stone marten fur with a corsage of Talisman roses. Later F.O. and Mrs. Tweedie left for Toronto and Niagara Falls, the bride travelling in a French coral basket weave wool dress with brown accessories. On their return they will reside in Goderich. Guests were present from Stratford, Kitchener, Acton and Chatham.

BURLINGTON

The Burlington Arena has been condemned and ordered closed by the Burlington Medical Officer of Health, Dr. A. H. Speers. The town council were notified of this effect in writing at their regular meeting in the council chamber on Friday evening last.

Town Assessor Romie has completed his task of assessing the town for the year 1945, Saturday being the last day for turning in the roll. The population this year shows only a small increase of 42. The total population figures are 4379, as compared with 4347 last year. The increased building during the year is reflected in the largely increased assessment. It is expected that when the final figures are announced the total increase in assessment over last year will be $100,000.

Several motorists were fined in Magistrate Langdon's Court last Friday for speeding, wrong parking and failing to come to a "dead stop" at stop streets.—Gazette.
