A wedding of interest was solemnized Saturday, September 30th at the Mount Pleasant United Church, when Ethel Irene, daughter of Mr. Frank Pridham and the late Mr. Prichard of Fullarton Township was united in marriage to Charles David Henderson, son of Mr. John J. Henderson and the late Mrs. Henderson of Action.

With the church decorated with standards of gladioli, Rev. W. D. Goode performed the ceremony. Miss Marion Sawyer played the wedding music.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Newton Pridham, looked charming in a floor-length dress of white brocaded sheer over satin. She wore a gold jacket and matching earrings, the gift of the groom. Her finger-tip veil flowed from a head-dress of orange blossoms. She carried a white kid Bible with violet streamers knotted with sweetheart ribbons and white lacy gloves.

There were no attendants. Mrs. Raymond Morris, sister of the bride, and Mr. Joseph Henderson, brother of the groom signed the register, while quiet music was played by the organist.

After the ceremony, a reception was held in Simcock with Mrs. Pridham, the bride's mother, receiving the guests in a two place navy crew dress wearing a corsage of sweetpea roses and mosses.

The bride travelled in a grey silk dress, green tweed coat, with black
