The monthly meeting of the Campbellville Patriotic Society was held on January 17th at the home of the Misses Rita and Kathleen Hubbert and the annual report was given by the secretary.

The work of the society falls into two groups: work for the Red Cross and work for other organizations.

For the Milton Branch of the Red Cross we made 134 garments of various kinds, 13 quilts and 181 knitted articles, a total of 298. In addition to this, cash donations were made: $25 for jam and $50 for the general work of the Red Cross.

In the second group, with the co-operation of the community, we sent help to other organizations as follows:

To the Society for Russian Relief one large bale of second-hand clothing and a bale containing quilts, bed linens and towels.

To the Navy League, donations of clothing for ship-wrecked sailors and cash donations of $49.

To the Overseas Parcel League, cash donations of $48 for turtle-neck sweaters for mine sweepers.

To London, England, a bale of new and second-hand clothing for the victims of air raids.

At Easter, 15 parcels were mailed to our soldiers overseas, and at Christmas, 24 parcels; at an approximate cost of $20.

The Patriotic Society is glad to acknowledge the generous support for its work, which has always been given by the people of Campbellville district.
