ACTON WINS FROM GEORGETOWN BY SCORE OF 7 TO 1

Caskill; Robt. Reek.

On Tuesday night the Acton 'Town' team defeated the Georgetown team by a score of 7-1. Masters in the Acton net gave a good display of net minding, thus enabling the Acton boys to shower the Georgetown goalis with rubber. It was rough and tumble all the way in spite of the efforts of Referee Fyfe Somerville.

Markers for the Acton team were scored by Jack Kentner with 4 and Vic Masters with 3. Lone Georgetown tally was by Collier.

"The Hon Mr. King's Tamous stogan of "Wait and See" has been more dangerously prevalent in war than it was in peace. In 1937 Mr King told Hitler, Canadian Forces would be sent to the limit to fight at Britain's side but it was the old "Wait anda See" guide that prompted him to withhold that statement from the Canadian people until 1944

It was a "Wait and See" expediency that-held up the British Air Training scheme in Canada for two years after a refusal in 1938 by Mr. King gave the financial report of the to grant Britain's request. While the Dominion Government had full power to send any or all drafted troops over seas since 1941, it was a "Wait and See" policy that prompted the taking : of the famous plebiscite in 1942 to. remove all moral obligations to hold

In order to arrange for rebuilding of a new store on our present site, we have taken temporary quarters in the store formerly occupied by Pallant's Men's Clothing Store, and are-now located in these premises.

We moved during last week to the new stand, just two doors west, next to the Bank of Montreal, where we will render the same courteous and faithful service and trust our customers will not be unduly inconvenienced by the move necessary to erect a modern building on the old site.
