THE PRESENCE OF A SMILE
I've done a bit of watching, and I've done some listening too. It's been mighty interesting, and I pass this on to you: The thing that really matters, the thing that's most worth while, is to live, and keep on living in the presence of a smile.

TRIUMPHANT SERVICE
Golden Text: Ye are my friends, if ye do the things which I command you. Jno 15: 14
Lesson Text: Matt. 10: 1, 5-8, 11: 1, 25-31

Time A D 31. Flarey Capernaum and Gallilee.
Exposition 1 Jesus Commissioned the Disciples, 1, 5
Jesus made choice of these twelve men after a night spent in prayer (Luke 6: 12, 13) There was a great diversity among them in temperament, previous history and native ability. They are an impressive illustration of the different types of men Jesus can use for His work (Matthew is the only evangelist who, in his list of the apostles, records the fact that he belonged to the despised class of publicans. The other three cover up this fact: Matthew humbly records it, and, by so doing, magnifies the grace of God. In each of the lists Judas Iscariot is mentioned last, and his disgrace as "the traitor" is used in each.)

Sussex Craftsmen Build Oaken Ships

Descendants of 17th Century Shipwrights Work With Old-time Skill
LONDON (CP) The Royal Navy has her "Hearts of Oak" again. Sussex men, descendants of the shipwrights who built the famous battle frigates of the 17th century, are building them of Sussex oak and they have lost none of their old skill. The first one, a motor fishing vessel designed for service as an auxiliary in the Pacific Fleet, has already been launched.

RA.F. TAKES TOLL OF GERMANS

Terrible havoc was caused by R.A.F. rocket-firing Typhoons in attacks on German transport and armour which tried to stampede out of the Falaise Gap. For miles the countryside is strewn with the wreckage of the retreating German army. Picture shows: East of Chambois the road is completely blocked with wrecked enemy transport.

HUNTSVILLE (CP)—Endorsement of a plan for construction of 100 miles of ski trails in this district has been given by the Board of Trade. The plan is for a post-war development, but some short routes will be in use this winter.

Canada Egg Markets In Post War Europe

There were three outlets which gave promise of other countries taking considerably more Canadian eggs after the war than they did before. S. C. Barry, Associate Chief, Poultry Products Inspection and Grading Service, Dominion Department of Agriculture, told the Poultry Conference held recently at Montreal. The outlets were the British shell market, the British egg products market (for frozen eggs and dried eggs), and the Canadian home market, which was still far from saturation point when Denmark, Holland, and Ireland returned to their pre-war volume. There were still ample markets for Canadian eggs in the two great egg importing countries, Britain and Germany.

NO PROFITS, NO TAXES

Socialists have nothing but contempt mostly silent for the person who asks them "where is the money to come from?" Those who do attempt to answer that question ask another: "Where did we get the money to finance the war?" The answer to that, of course, is that we got it out of taxation and victory loans. These were secured from the profits of industries and businesses, from large and small incomes, sales taxes, etc., etc. But under the socialist state, such as proposed by the C.C.F., there are not going to be any profits or large incomes. Production is to be "for use, not profit", and everybody is to work for the good of everybody else, without mercenary or selfish motive. If there are to be no profits to tax and if, as is proposed by the C.C.F., handbook taxation on incomes below $3,000 a year are to be reduced, where is the money to come from to maintain the greatly increased "public services", social security, public health, baby bonuses, and all the other schemes proposed for the good of the commonwealth? Civil servants no matter how civil or publically minded they might be, could hardly be expected to work for nothing. The question as to where the money is to come from to govern and administer a socialist state is one that the C.C.F. should solve, and make clear to the people of Canada before it asks them to accept its elaborate program of public services. With all of the productive industries and commercial institutions run on a non-profit basis, and the big-salaried men eliminated, the only source of revenue would be the so-called "common man"—but then, his taxes are to be reduced. It may be of course, that the C.C.F. economists have some sort of "secret weapon" which they intend to spring on the "enemy" at the last moment.—Reprinted from The Tweed News.

THE JOYS OF CONSECRATED SERVICE

In v 25, we first stated one of the most important principles upon which God deals with men in the revelation of His truth. If we are to get God's infinite wisdom, we must renounce our infinite wisdom. The man who is filled with his own wisdom cannot have God's wisdom. 1 Cor. 1: 18-27. If we are to be wise with true wisdom, we must take our place as fools, at the feet of the All-wise (1 Cor. 3: 18-20). Jesus Christ rejoiced in the Spirit and thanked God that this was so (Luke 10: 21, R. V.). The twenty-seventh verse contains a tremendous statement of the authority committed to Jesus: "It is to be taken in the broadest and most absolute sense (Matt. 28: 18; Jno. 3: 35; 13: 3; 17: 2; Eph. 1: 20-23; Phil. 2: 10, 11; Heb. 2: 8-10; Ac. 10: 36). God has actually committed the whole universe, celestial as well as terrestrial, into the hands of Jesus Christ. He is, also, a wise Saviour; He thoroughly knows God. He alone does—and those to whom He wills to reveal Him. How foolish, then, are those who seek to know God by a study of philosophy, or theology, or comparative religion. Outside of the revelation Jesus Christ makes of the Father, God is, indeed, as the agnostic terms Him, "the unknowable." The words of v. 28 are among the most wonderful that fell from the lips of Him who spoke as never man spoke. What presumption, or lunacy it would have been in Jesus to have made this declaration if He were merely man. But—Jesus does give rest. Note four things in this wonderful invitation: (1) Who invites—Jesus; (2) Whom He invites—all that labor and are heavy laden; (3) To what He invites—rest; (4) That is what the human heart gives; that is what the human

Later she said "Now when the Germans are confused by the invasion we are getting at the truth." She predicted there would be evidence of an underground after the Germans have had time to organize. Before the outbreak of the war, she said, there were Germans who were opposed to Hitler, but that was changed when war came. She said: "I have maintained for years that while in occupied countries, patriotism and resistance were identical in Germany since the outbreak of the war patriotism and res-
