

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS

Interesting Items Concerning Other Centres and Communities in which Many of Our Readers are Interested

MILTON

The Eighth Victory Loan Campaign for Milton and District opened with a parade and special service on Sunday afternoon last.

Wounded in action in Italy on December 19th and with his left knee still in a cast Corp. Delbert Snow arrived in Toronto last Wednesday and at his home here on Friday and was greeted by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Willford Snow and brother Jim and friends.

Victory Loan Headquarters are now open in S. A. Fay's vacant store on Main Street.

Mrs. W. R. Ezzard has received word her son Pte. R. J. (Bob) Ezzard is now serving overseas Canadian Champion.

MOFFAT

We are sorry to chronicle the death of an old and esteemed citizen of our community in the person of Mr. Anthony Allison in his 89th year. He had been making his home with his niece, Mrs. Frank Hathaway, where he received every care. He was a sufferer from arthritis and his advanced age made it impossible for him to recover. He was a member of the United Church at Eden Mills.

The funeral was held on Wednesday, May 2nd. A brief private service was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hathaway and a public service in Ebenezer United Church, with the pastor, Rev. H. W. Pickersgill in charge of the service. Interment took place in Ebenezer Cemetery. Our sympathy is extended to the members of a large family connection.

Cpl. W. A. Fraser is home on a 30 day furlough from Newfoundland.

Pte. Murray Donovan reported for duty at Toronto after a well-earned furlough. He was wounded while serving in Holland.

Percy McGillivray has joined the army.

A very large crowd of friends and neighbors gathered at Nassagaweya Church last Thursday evening to witness the ordination of Mr. Charles Henderson into the Presbyterian ministry. Rev. and Mrs. Henderson will be leaving in a few days for Prince Edward Island, where they take up an appointment under the Missionary Board of the Presbyterian Church in Canada. The hearty good wishes for a successful and happy ministry were expressed during a social hour, after a very impressive ordination service.

The Ordination service was conducted by representatives of the Guelph Presbytery. Rev. Dr. McIvor of Guelph, presiding. Rev. Mr. Weir of Hespler, preached the sermon and Rev. J. A. McNeil gave the charge to the minister.

Rev. C. L. and Mrs. Poole attended the Halton Presbytery of the United Church, at Milton last Tuesday.

OSPRINGE

Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. C. Bruce included Mr. and Mrs. Nelson and children, Bruce, Joan and Gordon of Brampton; Mrs. John Forgrave of Cheltenham and Archie McLeod of Toronto.

Mrs. Fraser of Dundalk was the guest speaker on Sunday at the local Presbyterian Church, her subject being "Missions." An appropriate solo by Miss Blanche McKinnon was also enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. Morrison of Toronto visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. D. Stewart.

A number from here attended the funeral of the late Mrs. D. O. Root on Monday. Sincere sympathy is extended to the bereaved family in their loss of a loving mother.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Bryson spent Monday with relatives in Acton.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Atken and family of Hamilton were visitors on Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Aitken.

Mrs. G. G. Robertson of Everton was a visitor last week with Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Robertson.

Death came suddenly and unexpectedly on Monday evening to Joseph Renton, a life long resident of the community. Mr. Renton had made his home lately with Mr. and Mrs. Dan Winter on the Town Line. He had contracted the flu which weakened the heart. Improved in health, he was carrying in wood when a heart attack struck, a doctor and ambulance was called to take him to the Guelph hospital, but he passed away before reaching the institution. His only brother, Frank, of Guelph survives.

Under the auspices of the Woman's Institute, a very successful Auction Sale was held on Wednesday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Pines. The various and numerous articles were offered for sale by our popular auctioneer, Mr. Roy Hindley who, by his ready wit and humour, kept the crowd in a very responsive mood. At the close, hot dogs, pie and coffee were sold. Nearly forty dollars was raised for charitable purposes.

NASSAGAWEYA

The sudden death of Elizabeth Hawson, beloved wife of Mr. Knoc Walker of Darbyville, last Thursday morning, was a terrible shock to the people of this community. The funeral was held on Saturday from the home where service was conducted by her pastor, Rev. R. W. Pickersgill, assisted by Rev. E. Milton Carter, a former minister of Ebenezer Church. The pall bearers were Messrs. Elwood Wilson, James Easterbrook, Andy Frank, Clare Pickett, James Simpson and O. Sherwood. The deepest sympathy of the community goes out to the husband and daughter and relatives in their sorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Darby and family visited with relatives and friends in Lowville recently.

Mr. Bert Nightingale of Orangeville visited with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Nightingale of Knatchbull over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. George Nightingale and family of Knatchbull visited with relatives and friends in Dundalk last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Reg Wilson of Acton visited relatives and friends at Knatchbull Sunday last.

Mr. and Mrs. Mac McLaughlin and family moved to Campbellville last week.

LIMEHOUSE

The annual meeting and election of officers of Limehouse Women's Institute was held at Mrs. Gishby's on Thursday last. The roll call was an answer to four questions as follows: payment of fees, the month in which each member would prefer to be hostess, the highlight of the year's work in your opinion, and the characteristics of a good leader.

Reports were heard on the year's work from convenors of standing committees, officers and those in charge of war work.

The secretary-treasurer's report showed twelve regular and a number of special meetings held with a total of twenty members enrolled and an average attendance of 12.6.

The financial statement showed $617.85 raised during the year, an increase of $110.00 over the previous year. Of this $369.00 was spent for war work and the rest for a Victory Bond, 2 1/2 dozen chairs for socials, seeds and prizes for the school Victory Gardens, gifts to sick persons, a donation to Scott Mission of Toronto and supplies for parties and county expenses. As well ditty bags valued at $300.00 were donated to the Navy League by members and friends of the W. I. and a load of salvage was given the Acton War Service League. Little sewing was reported done for the Red Cross during the year. Although the number of garments in knitting was just eighty-six, quite a number of them were turtle-necked heavy sweaters.

Mrs. Gishby was appointed delegate to the District annual meeting together with the president and district director. It was decided to call the meetings at 2 p.m. for the summer months.

The election of officers was conducted by Mrs. Mitchell and resulted as follows: President, Mrs. J. L. Ellerby; 1st Vice-President, Mrs. S. Gishby; 2nd Vice-President, Mrs. R. McVey; Secretary-treasurer, Mrs. A. W. Benton; District Director, Mrs. Francis Brown; Branch Directors, Mrs. H. Nelson, Mrs. E. Sanford, Mrs. R. McVey; Auditors, Mrs. J. Noble, Mrs. S. Wright; Convenor Red Cross Knitting, Mrs. E. Miller; Convenor Red Cross Sewing, Mrs. S. Kirkpatrick; Convenor Quilts, Mrs. S. Gishby; assistant, Mrs. Noble; Roll Call Convenor, Mrs. Wright; Convenors of standing committees, Citizenship, Mrs. F. Brown; Home Economics, Mrs. Wright; Agriculture and Canadian Industries, Mrs. McVey; Social Welfare, Mrs. A. W. Benton; Historical Research, Mrs. Smethurst; assistant, Mrs. W. Mitchell; Publicity, Mrs. E. Miller; Pianists, Mrs. C. Meredith; Mrs. H. Norton.

A large number of neighbors and friends of Mr. and Mrs. S. Norrie gathered at their former home here to wish them happiness in their new home in Georgetown and to present them with gifts of remembrance, last Tuesday evening. While A. W. Benton read an address on behalf of those present, Wm. Mitchell and August Spitzer presented them with a lovely Trillium lamp, mirror and wall ornaments. Mrs. S. Gishby then read a short address on behalf of the Women's Institute and Mrs. E. Miller presented Mrs. Norrie with a pair of silhouette pictures. Both Steve and Maud thanked all fittingly and invited their friends to visit them in their new home, the latter asking to be still considered a W. I. member. The evening was spent dancing.

A number of men and women from Limehouse did their bit at the blood donor clinic in Georgetown on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Grant visited Mrs. Smethurst last week-end.

ROCKWOOD

Under the auspices of the Rockwood Women's Institute a successful play was presented in the Town Hall last week by the Morrison Library Group which was well attended. The play was entitled "Sally Sallies Forth". Each one in the cast carried out their parts to perfection. Mr. Sims McLean spoke briefly and Mrs. Frank Brown gave a short reading between acts.

The Arnot Construction Company of Arthur has completed their work on the new bridge on Valley Road and the structure presents a fine appearance.

Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Hilton moved into their new residence on upper Main Street which they bought from Mr. Fred Maw, and the latter with members of his family have moved into an apartment in Pearl's Terrace.

Some time during the week-end a young lad on a wheel crashed into the window of Plank's General Store breaking one large window glass.

Mr. Joe Onkes, of Toronto, was up for the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Arch McNabb spent Sunday with the latter's mother, Mrs. George Young who is not so well at present. Mrs. Young resides with Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm McNabb and family.

CAMPBELLVILLE

The April meeting of St. David's W.M.S. was held at the home of Mrs. A. C. McNeil with the vice-president, Miss Ired presiding. Those taking part were: Mrs. S. Cairns, reading the Scripture; Mrs. E. D. Mahon, ministrations, followed by prayer. The topic, "Opening the Gate," was taken up by Mrs. R. C. Menzies. The committee appointed for the Peace Thanksgiving Fund have prepared letters, one of which was read at the meeting, to be sent to all the ladies in the congregation. It is hoped this will create special interest in this worthy cause. The roll call was answered with the text word "Love". The meeting was closed with prayer by Mrs. G. Agnew. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Martin, Mrs. Harris and Mrs. Menzies and the usual pleasant time was enjoyed by all.

The Ladies' Aid of St. David's Church met at the home of Mrs. A. T. Moore for their May meeting. After the devotional period, conducted by the president, Mrs. A. T. Moore, and the usual routine business, arrangements were made for the dinner for the convention of the Women's Institute on May 10th.

Several from here attended the service held in Nassagaweya Church on Thursday evening when members of Guelph Presbytery met for the purpose of ordaining Mr. Charles Henderson, son of Mr. John Henderson, to the ministry of the Presbyterian Church in Canada.

Evidence of the esteem in which Mr. and Mrs. T. Snyder are held by many friends here was shown to some extent when they were honored on Friday evening at St. David's Church. It is twenty-four years since Mr. T. Snyder came to this community as an operator for the C.P.R. He has been an active worker in every walk of life, as a citizen and churchman. In his loyalty and steadfastness, he was the type of man who was an inspiration to any minister. He lived a life of unselfish service and devotion to duty. He considered it a privilege to use his talents for the betterment of this community.

Rev. Mr. John MacNeil was chairman for the evening and William Vansickle, Mrs. Robert Menzies, Robt. Laking, Colin McPhail, Joe Weir, Edward Mahon, Murray, Murray all spoke briefly on the high ideals of the family.

Jean Snyder, daughter, spoke briefly on behalf of her mother, who was unable to attend on account of sickness and her brothers and sister, expressing their regret of leaving this community.

Mr. Snyder was presented with a book by Mr. William Holes and an upholstered chair, carried by Robert Laking and Wallace King from the community.

Mrs. Menzies presented the son Thadde with a Bible from the community.

Jack McPhail made the presentation of a "Scroll of Remembrance," signed by members of St. David's Church and friends.

Musical number during the evening were given by Mrs. James Mahon, Lyla Cairns and Jack Murray, Nell McPhail and Robert Laking.

Mr. Snyder replied, thanking all who made the evening so pleasant. He assured everyone if they called on them in their new home in Elora, they would be welcomed and that he and his family would visit at Campbellville whenever opportunity made it possible.

The concluding item was "Auld Lang Syne," with everyone in a circle and crossed hands and sang with a feeling by all that attested to genuine friendship and a regret in parting. A social half hour followed.

Mrs. Robert Inglis is convalescing at the home of her son, George Inglis. Mrs. Lewis Herman received word this week that her husband Pte. Lewis Herman has arrived safely overseas.

On Wednesday evening a farewell surprise party was held for Mr. and Mrs. Ted Hamilton, of Guelph Junction. The couple were presented with a leather hammock as a token of remembrance. They will reside at Komoka, west of London, in the near future.

CREWSON CORNER

Mr. and Mrs. David Drysdale entertained fifty guests at the Orange Hall on Saturday, April 21st on their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The table formed a T and was beautifully decorated with snap dragons and marigolds. A buffet supper was served with the bride and groom of twenty-five years seated at the head of the table, on which was a wedding cake which they cut together. Lunch was served and a toast to the bride and groom was proposed by Mr. Dave Richardson, Acton, a second toast to the King was proposed by Mr. Fred Kingmill, Acton. The bride and groom proceeded to open many beautiful silver gifts, after which they both returned their thanks. The rest of the evening was spent in dancing, music being supplied by Mr. George Fountain, Acton.

GEORGETOWN

At the last meeting of County Council it was decided that the road between Stewarttown and Georgetown be paved this year.

The welcome sign was out in Stewarttown last Wednesday when the community greeted Tpr. Thomas Edwin Dickenson, home after three and a half years service in England and Italy.

Well-known in Georgetown and district, Mrs. Margaret Davidson, wife of the late Hubert Hunter, passed away at her home in Georgetown Sunday afternoon, April 15th, after being confined to her bed for three weeks. Lt.-Col. the Rev. George H. Williams, D.D., father of Dr. C. V. Williams, who was chaplain in the first Great War and an active Red Cross worker in this war, died suddenly on April 12th at his home in Hamilton Herald.

REGINA (CP) A resolution strongly expressing "frivolous celebration" on V-E Day and recommending instead a day of solemn thanksgiving, was passed by Regina Branch of the Canadian Legion.

EDEN MILLS

The spring Thank Offering of the Women's Missionary Society of the Presbyterian Church was held in the home of Mrs. Gordon McPhail. Mrs. Mino was in charge and opened the meeting with a hymn, Mrs. J. MacDonald read the Scripture and Rev. W. J. McIvor led in prayer. A reading by Mrs. W. McLean, Mrs. Parly and Mrs. J. D. Lowrie were much enjoyed. The guest speaker was Rev. Dr. McIvor, who brought an inspiring message on Missionary work. After a short business session, Mrs. Mino closed the meeting with prayer.

The Ladies' Aid held a short meeting following and opened with a hymn. The minutes and treasurer's report were given and several items of business were dealt with. Mrs. Herb Gilbertson gave a reading and roll call was answered with a favorite Easter hymn. The National Anthem and Lord's Prayer brought a very profitable meeting to a close. A social half hour was spent with Mrs. Roy Gordon and Mrs. J. MacDonald assisting Mrs. McPhail.

Mrs. Robert Stevens and little daughter have returned to their home in Mount Dennis after spending two weeks in the home of Mr. Norman Lee.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wright and sons of Guelph were visitors in this vicinity on Sunday.

Miss Eileen Early of Acton spent the weekend in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Early.

Mrs. Clarence Ramsey and little son, also Mrs. Garnet MacDougall and little daughter, have returned home from the hospital.

Pte. Ross Elliot was a visitor in the Gilbertson home on Sunday.

It was with deep regret it was learned of the death of Mr. Anthony Allison. Mr. Allison has been making his home with his niece in Moffat, but until a year or so ago was a resident of this district. The sympathy of the community is extended to the relatives.

UNCLASSIFIED
Small Advertisements
Advertisement under this heading 5c. cash with order, up to 25 words. Additional words 1c. per word. If cash does not accompany the advertisement, minimum charge 5c. and 1c. per word additional for each word over 25.

NOTICE
Sanitary Work done with modern equipment. Apply
T. CUTTING, Mill Street 42-3

FOR SALE
One walnut finished steel double bed. Cheap.
MRS. H. ARBIC

WANTED
Child's play pen. Apply
MRS. CHAS. HARR,
Main St., Acton

FOR RENT
Good sized garden, corner of Church and Willow Streets. Apply to
MRS. ANDERSON, Acton

WANTED
Caretaker for Acton United Church. Send applications to
A. T. BROWN

FOR SALE
Building stone or rock for cesspools. A. J. McISAAC,
Phone 476, Acton

WANTED
2 light housekeeping rooms, furnished or unfurnished.
MRS. TALBOT, Station Hotel

FOR SALE
Folding baby carriage. Apply
MRS. J. R. McARTHUR,
Main Street

FOR SALE
1 Holstein Bull, 14 months old. Apply
JOE HERZOG,
R. R. 4, Rockwood

FOR SALE
Purchased Yearling Shorthorn Bull, fully accredited, cheap.
J. H. WILLMOTT,
Phone 158711, Milton

FOR SALE
Two central electric light fixtures, one 3 light and one 5 light. Also several window frames complete with glass.
A. T. BROWN

FOR SALE
One Durham Cow, due May 19th; also 10 weaned pigs. Apply
GEO. ROBERTSON,
Lot 25, Con. E. Nassagaweya

NOTICE
Get your RAWLEIGH PRODUCTS at the KINGSHOTT GROCERY. A full line of products carried at all times.
Mill Street Phone 42-4

HELP WANTED—FEMALE
Satisfying for ladies' wear store. Full time employment. Good wages. War workers not eligible. Apply
Employment & Selective Service Office, Guelph, Ont. File No. 317

BUSINESS OPPORTUNITY FOR SALE
Small Tannery in central Saskatchewan city. A going concern. Owner wishes to retire. For further particulars write
BOX 3, FREE PRESS 28-12

FOR SERVICE
Cornet Jim (18448) Dark Grey Peckeron Stallion; sire Superior (15443) (21680); dam Fay Le Verne (17683). Will stand for service at his own stable, Lot 3, first line Esquipping. Fee $10.00, $15.00 down at time of service. All accidents to mares at risk of owners.
B2C W. H. ALLAN

CLEARING AUCTION SALE
The furniture and household effects of the late
MRS. THURSA BURT
will be sold at her late residence, Erin Village on Saturday afternoon, May 5th.
ROY HINDLEY, Auctioneer

Real Estate Broker General Insurance
W. M. R. BRACKEN
PHONE 26 ACTON, ONT.

TRUSSES
Abdominal Trusses and Supports EXPERTLY FITTED
ALEX. STEWART, Ltd.
Angus Kennedy, Prop.
St. George's Square Guelph

MILTON WELDING
Electric and Acetylene Welding. Repair Welding of All Types. Portable Equipment.
PHONE 332
MARY ST.—MILTON
Opposite Dr. Haslop's

A. Floyd Smith Jeweler
WATCHES—CLOCKS—JEWELRY
75 Quebec Street, West GUELPH, ONT.

"BUY IN THE BEST"
BUY VICTORY BONDS
F. L. Wright
REALTOR AND INSURANCE
Member Guelph and District Real Estate Board
Associate Member Canadian Association Real Estate Boards
Associate Member Ontario Association Real Estate Boards
Member of Fire and Casualty Insurance Agents Association

Change of Store Hours
STARTING NEXT WEEK OUR STORE HOURS WILL BE Open All Day Monday
- Closed All Day Wednesday
Closed Saturday Night at 8 p.m.
These hours are necessary to comply with present regulations and we trust will be found more satisfactory to all our customers.
Geo. W. Benton
MEAT SHOP — MILL STREET, ACTON

COME AND ENJOY
GALA
OPENING DANCE
TO MODERNAIRES BAND
AT
STANLEY PARK
ERIN, ONTARIO
Friday, May 11
New Floor for Your Dancing Pleasure
UPWELL'S LIMITED