Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Harris and family wish to express their appreciation for the many kind messages of sympathy during their recent bereavement.

It's odd that... Seems awfully hard to get a brief period of dry weather.

Election time is getting closer and the campaign warming up a little.

Seems as if the gardens planted by the 24th of May will be early enough yet.

Those warm March days were easier on the coal bins than these chilly May days.

In the Legion draw for a $50 Bond, M. Saunders, R.R. 1, Acton was the lucky winner.

Liberal Committee Rooms have been opened at the residence of Mrs. W. G. Cullen on Mill Street.

Acton certainly made a grand finish in the Eighth Victory Loan, but it was just over the wire in time.

Mrs. George Woods received Mother's Day flowers cabled from overseas by her son Pte Herb Woods.

Edward Cole, R.R. 2, was fined $10 and costs, on a charge of being intoxicated, in Police Court in Acton on Wednesday morning.

Flowers were cabled to Mrs. Wm Landsborough for Mother's Day from her son, Cpl. Edwin Landsborough, serving in Holland.

The new automatic pump at the waterworks spring was put into operation last Saturday. It is pumping 157 gallons per minute and taking the entire capacity of the flow at the spring.

A real estate transaction of considerable importance this week was the purchase by Mr. John Leshman of the eleven acres of farm land from Mr. Jeremiah Ball at the eastern section of Acton, facing on No. 7 Highway. It is ideal building land and readily accessible for water and services. The sale was arranged by Wm. Bracken.

Obituary

MRS. PHILIP H. REVOY

Friends in Acton and vicinity will regret to hear of the passing last Thursday of Mrs. Philip H. Revoy, of Toronto, in the General Hospital there.

Although in failing health for some time, her condition was not considered serious and it was expected that a rest would restore her to a measure of strength.

Mrs. Revoy, formerly Alice Maud Coleman, was born in Hamilton and since her marriage has resided in Toronto. Although interested in the life of others, hers was a very quiet one, her chief concern being for the upkeep of her home and the welfare of her husband and daughter, Winnifred, who are indeed sadly bereft. Three brothers also remain, William of Acton, Joseph of East Chicago and Robert of Los Angeles; and three sisters, Mrs. Carl M. Hansen and Miss Isabel Anderson of Acton and Miss Nellie Anderson of Georgetown, British Guiana, South America.

The funeral was held from the funeral chapel of Washington and Johnston and was conducted by Rev. F. Breckon of Silverthorn Avenue Baptist Church. It was largely attended and the many beautiful floral tributes and expressions, both verbal and practical, of kind condolence, testified to the fact that Mrs. Revoy was a fine wife and mother, a loyal friend and a helpful neighbour, who had spent her life in the service of others.

Interment was made in St. John's Cemetery, Norway.

HOLSTEIN AND JERSEY BREEDERS TO HOLD FIELD DAY AT GUELPH

The Holstein and Jersey Breeders of Halton and Peel recently made plans to hold their Annual Field Day at the Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph, on Saturday, June 9th. The programme will include optional tours to the experimental plots; poultry department, the College greenhouses; long term pasture plots, or the dairy barns, in the morning. Following lunch and an address by Dr. G. I. Christie there will be judging competitions for men, women and Junior farmers; a parade of College livestock, and the usual sports programme. In 1944, one thousand farm folk from the two counties participated in the event, and weather conditions permitting, an even larger crowd is expected at the event on June 9th.

HUGHES CLEAVER Liberal Federal Candidate for Halton County

To my Friends in Halton County:

I have been your federal member for ten years and am again asking for your support in the coming federal elections on June 11. At this time you will be electing a government to finish the war with Japan, to represent Canada at the Peace Conference and to govern this country in the post-war period.

You may not agree with everything which we have done but I am convinced that a large majority believe that looking at the whole picture the King Government has done a pretty good war job and that Mackenzie King should represent Canada at the Peace Conference.

As to the post-war period most thinking people look forward to the future with mixed feelings of hope and misgiving as to whether we will win the peace. By winning the peace I mean will we succeed in making this Canada of ours the finest place on earth in which to live and rear a family.

When the war is over I do not think that you want to drift back to the old way of life with its successive booms and depressions. I think you want a new deal. The war has taught us many lessons and in addition the war has increased our productive capacity both industrially and from an agricultural standpoint to such an extent, that if we are to have full employment in the post-war period and the many years to follow, we must have a standard of living for everyone in this country much greater than we have ever enjoyed before. In order to achieve full employment and a high standard of living, I believe that very definite plans must be made in the first place to assure a fair distribution of our total national income among our three main groups: Agriculture, Labor and Capital and further that we must have a fair distribution among the individuals comprising each of these groups to the point where everyone, willing to work, will enjoy in plenty the good things of life. I believe further that confidence in our democratic institutions and our government is just as important as good legislation. This country has made a prodigious war effort and because we had good leadership, and because the great mass of Canadians were determined to win the war. If we are to be a happy and prosperous country in peacetime, I believe that we must substitute in place of our war spirit a determination to win the peace.

This time there are three parties appealing to you for support. Strange to say, all three of them promise you the same results: Social Security for everyone and Full Employment. This time you will have to weigh the probability of performance. Past performance of the Liberal and Conservative parties will materially help you in deciding which of these two parties will be most apt to achieve for you the results which they promise. As to the C.C.F. party you have no previous performance to guide you.

You have generously given me your support for the past ten years and during that period I have tried to serve you in a manner which would express my appreciation for the confidence placed in me. A private member commences his duties with little influence but, if he is willing to work, through the years his experience and influence both within his party and with respect to the formation of government policy gradually widens. I cannot try any harder than I have tried in the past to improve the lot of the farmer, the worker, and the business man, but the experience which years of service has taught me may result in a better contribution to the work of government in the future.

There is one thing you can be sure of and that is you must know by now the personal disposition of your member and the aims for which he stands. I am again seeking election as a Liberal because I believe that the achievements of the Liberal party in the past and its plans for the future approach more nearly than either of the other parties the aims which I desire.

I fully appreciate the fact that the coming election will not be as easy an election to win as the past two contests because some of my friends, who are "impatient Liberals" have joined the C.C.F. party. They have done this not because they are socialists. They are just irked as I am with the many controls which the war has made necessary and which would be multiplied under a socialist government. They are C.C.F. supporters simply because the Liberal party has not moved fast enough for them. It is true that reforms come slowly but during my term as your member, in addition to this country fighting the costliest of wars, I have seen the Unemployment Insurance Act, the National Housing Act and Family Allowance Act come into being, and as you know, there is a Public Health Act now ready for an interprovincial conference. I served on the Special Committee which studied this Act for two years at Ottawa, and under it medical and hospital services will be supplied to everyone. In Agriculture we have seen floor prices for farm products become an accepted principle. As to Labor, collective bargaining is an accomplished fact, and the unions have more than doubled their membership. In industry, a new Industrial Bank and the Act to finance export credits are both functioning. While I have many times been impatient at delays in reforms, yet looking over the record I doubt if you will find any other decade in our civilization which can show equal progress. And so to my "impatient Liberal" friends may I remind you of the record and ask you to think twice. I may be wrong, but I do not think there is any chance at all that a C.C.F. Government will be elected. There is, however, grave danger, in this riding in any event, that enough Liberals will vote C.C.F. to elect the Conservative candidate by a majority vote. This is the last thing that you want to happen but I believe the danger is a quite apparent one.

During my tenure of office I trust that I have made many friends and I now ask for your active support. To those who wish to help please get in touch with the local committee rooms and indicate what you would like to do.

In closing I would like at this time to express my thanks to the electors of the County of my birth for the confidence placed in me in the past and to assure you that no matter what your decision may be this time, I am grateful for the honor of representing you at Ottawa for the past ten years.

Yours sincerely, Hughes Cleaver
