McENERY-EARLY WEDDING IN THE EDEN MILLS CHURCH - Eden Mills Presbyterian Church decorated with gladioli and hydrangea in pink and white, was the scene of a wedding when Mabel Eileen, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Early, Campbellville, became the bride of Ernest Campbell McEnery, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Cameron McEnery, Ballinafad. Rev. Dr. W. J. McIvor officiated. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, looked charming in a floor-length gown of white brocade satin with full net skirt, a sweetheart neckline and leg o'mutton sleeves. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a halo headress. She wore a matching necklace and bracelet, the gift of the groom, and carried a bouquet of Briarcliff roses. Miss Margaret Thompson, Acton, wearing a floor-length dress of powder blue sheer with a shoulder-length veil and carrying a bouquet of Hapture roses, was bridesmaid. Miss Margaret Early, sister of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a floor-length frock of pink taffeta with tiny pink rosebuds in her hair, and carried a nosegay of roses. Mr. Kenneth Kidder, Ballinafad, was best man. The ushers were Mr. Elwood Gullis, Milton, brother-in-law of the bride, and Mr. Gordon Price, Hillinford. Mrs. Duffan, Lower, aunt of the bride, played the wedding music. During the signing of the register, Miss Beatie Early, cousin of the bride, sang "O Perfect Love". Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held in Eden Mills Hall, decorated with gladioli and other fall flowers in pink and white. An heirloom tablecloth, over one hundred years old, belonging to the mother of the groom, graced the bride's table, which was centred with a three-tiered wedding cake, tall tapers and sweet peas. Receiving with the bridal party were the parents of the bride and the parents of the groom. Mrs. Early wore a dress of grey crepe with a corsage of red Peerless roses and Mrs. McEnery was attired in powder blue crepe with a corsage of red Peerless roses. Later the young couple left on a short wedding trip, the bride wearing a dress of rose wood, navy coat and matching accessories. On their return they will live on the groom's farm, at Ballinafad. Guests were present from Stratford, Port Credit, Petawawa, Milton, Georgetown, Ballinafad, Acton, Badenoch and Campbellville.

Patrick-Kinsey WEDDING IN CHURCH IN GUELPH - In a ceremony conducted by Major the Rev. R. M. Field at St. James' Anglican Church, Guelph, Audrey Annie, daughter of Mrs. Frederic Kinsey and the late Mr. Kinsey, became the bride of Neil Patrick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Patrick, Acton. White gladioli at the altar and in the chancel formed the decorations. The guest pews were marked with white gladioli tied with white ribbon. The bride, radiant in a floor-length gown of white sheer with a Peter Pan collar and long, full sleeves, was given in marriage by her brother, Gordon H. Kinsey. Her fingertip veil of silk net was held in place by a Mary Queen of Scots headress. She wore a gold heirloom bracelet and carried a bouquet of white roses and ferns. Mrs. Burt Patrick, sister of the bride, wearing a floor-length dress of white taffeta with shoulder-length veil and a corsage of white flowers, was bridesmaid. She carried a bouquet of roses and baby's breath. Mr. Burt Patrick, Toronto, brother of the groom, acted as best man. Mr. E. C. Pettifer, and Mr. A. J. Pettifer, both of Guelph were ushers. The wedding music was played by Miss Doris Clark, organist. During the signing of the register she played "My Heart Ever Faithful" and "The Voice That Breathed O'er Eden". A reception followed at the home of the bride's mother, 43 McTague Street, which was decorated with pink and white gladioli and ferns. The bride's table was centred with a three-tiered wedding cake, flanked by tall white tapers in crystal holders and bouquets of white gladioli. Receiving with the bridal party were the bride's mother, who chose a two-piece grey frock with black accessories and a corsage of pink Briarcliff roses; and the groom's mother who wore a dress of navy blue with matching accessories and a corsage of cream roses. Later the young couple left on a wedding trip to Detroit and other points, the bride wearing a dress of powder blue wool, coat of pearl grey black accessories, a corsage of pink roses and a Sapphire spray pin, the gift of the groom. On their return they will live in Acton. Guests were present from Toronto, Ottawa, Hamilton, Brantford, Hespeler, Guelph and Acton.

Bayne-McKay WEDDING SATURDAY AT BRIDES HOME - The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. McKay, Lanwood, was the scene of a pretty wedding Saturday afternoon when their daughter, Ruth Elizabeth and William Harvey Bayne, Rockwood, son of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Bayne, were united in marriage. The ceremony was performed before a background of gladioli by Rev. A. W. Fosbury. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of ivory satin with round neckline, and long sleeves. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a headress of satin petals. She carried a bouquet of Bettertime roses. Miss Doris Watson, wearing a floor-length dress of powder blue sheer with long full sleeves and smocking trim, was bridesmaid. She carried a bouquet of Briarcliff roses and wore a headress of blue flowers. Mr. Maurice Hurd, Rockwood, acted as best man. The wedding music was played by Mrs. G. H. Nott. During the signing of the register, Mrs. A. W. Fosbury sang "Through the Years". Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held. The rooms of the home were decorated in pink and white for the occasion. The bride's table was attractively arranged with the wedding cake, and pink and white streamers, reaching from the ceiling to small baskets of flowers flanking the cake. Receiving with the bridal party were the parents of the bride and the parents of the groom. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. McKay chose a frock of blue crepe with black accessories and a corsage of Pinnocchio roses. Mrs. Bayne was attired in a two-piece dress of open blue with contrasting accessories and a corsage of Pinnocchio roses. Later the young couple left on a wedding trip to Eastern Ontario, the bride wearing a rose wool suit with brown accessories and a corsage of white flowers. On their return they will live in Rockwood. Guests were present from Toronto, Ingersoll, Rockwood, Acton, Stratford and Hopworth. Friends will regret to learn that Mr. Sam Roberts was taken ill and is in the General Hospital in Toronto for treatment. All hope for a prompt recovery.
