Success for 1945 at Acton Fair Last Week

(Continued from Page One) Violet Murray, soloist, appeared during the afternoon. The musical chairs and potato race did not have a big entry but provided some fun. Jean Early won the musical chairs and Wanda Burrows was first in the potato race and Jean Early second. The livestock parade was of course a very fine feature and was held by Acton Boys' Band. It was made particularly interesting this year by having Elmer McKinnon, who did the announcing for the horse judging, give the names of the owners of the stock as it passed before the grandstand. Besides leading the parade, Acton Boys' Band provided programs during the afternoon. Their performance was the subject of much favorable comment by visitors and citizens and they were indeed a credit to their bandmaster, Chas. W. Mason. The midway was a lively place and while all the rides looked did not put in an appearance, it gave the fun and amusement for the crowd. The 1945 Acton Fair can be recorded as another splendid success and credit for its presentation and smooth running program can well be given President Dr. E. G. Stokes and his officers and Board of Directors and workers. The following are the prize winners in the various exhibits.
