DIED

WORDEN At his late residence, on Church Street, Acton, Ontario, on Thursday, September 13th, 1945, William L. Worden, husband of the late Charlotte Barbaree.

ARNOLD Suddenly at his late residence, Main Street, Acton, Ontario, on Saturday, September 15th, 1945, William Arnold (President of Storey Clove Co., Ltd.) beloved husband of Eleanor A. Langan, in his 67th year.

IN MEMORIAM

BARR In loving memory of a dear husband and father who passed away 8 years ago, Sept. 22, 1937. Beautiful memories are all we have left.

Of him we loved dearly and shall never forget. His loving smile and happy face, A broken link we can never replace. Ever remembered by Wife and Family.

LUCUTCHEON In sad and loving memory of a dear husband and father, Hugh Lucutcheon, who passed away suddenly September 22nd, 1943. A beautiful memory of a loved one who died.

I cherish still with love sincere, A day that comes with sad regret, And one that I will never forget. I miss his love, his cheery ways, With him I spent some happy days, As long as I live I will cherish his name.

In memory I see him just the same, Still in my heart he is living yet, I love to think when life is done, Wherever heaven's gates are open, That he'll be standing at the door, Up there to welcome me. Sadly missed by Wife and Family.

CARDS OF THANKS

Mrs. P. A. Elliott wishes to thank the Acton and Vicinity War Service League and other organizations and friends for parcels received while serving overseas.

Cpl. Dave Hodge desires to publicly thank the Acton and Vicinity War Service League, Beardsmore & Co., Ltd. and all other organizations and friends for parcels and cigarettes etc., while overseas.

Mrs. Gordon Lambert wishes to thank the Acton War Service League, Beardsmore & Co. and other friends and organizations for parcels and favors while overseas. They were indeed appreciated.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Elliott wish to thank publicly the ladies of the Altar Society of the Catholic Church for the flowers, altar cards and favors from friends in Acton while staying at the nursing home.

I wish to thank the Acton and Vicinity War Service League, Beardsmore & Co., Ltd. and all other organizations and friends for parcels and favors very much appreciated. Mrs. E. G. Cross.

This and that

Acton Boys Band will play at the Milton Fair instead of the Lorne Scots as first announced.

A large scale construction of the water main extension will be started by the Contract next week.

Mrs. J. C. McLellan received a parcel from her son, Pte. M. S. McLellan in hospital of 50 lb. milk bulbs on Tuesday, September 19th.

A woman claiming to be released from a box car on the C.N.R. siding caused quite a future early Sunday morning in that section of town. It is said liquor was involved in the incident and two men have been questioned by Chief Harrop in the investigation. The woman was taken to the hospital suffering from injuries.

FAIR NOTE

The best sound system provided fine coverage for all events and kept the program moving smoothly.

Elmer McKinnon of Erin, was the man at the microphone who kept the program of judging of horses moving well all afternoon. His comments were appreciated by the spectators too.

Looks as if more poultry pens would be required if the exhibit is to continue to grow.

The fill-in and new ties for the cattle classes was a great improvement. More ground should be levelled in the general park improvement.

Judge "What possible excuse could you have for acquitting the prisoner?"

Jury Foreman "Insanity, sir."

Judge "What! All twelve of you?"

Obituary

FRANCIS HENRY BEAMISH Conducted by the Rev. T. B. Reil, of Erin, funeral services for the late Francis Henry Beamish was held in Acton, Rev. J. McKenzie assisted, and Robert Lofthouse, Erin, sang "The Old Rugged Cross," one of the favorite hymns of the deceased. Following the service, interment was made in Exeter Cemetery.

Son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Francis Beamish of Bolton. He had been suffering from a heart condition for some time. Survivors are his wife, five sons, William, of Toronto, Ross, of Collingwood, Jack, Richard and Victor, of Oshawa, a daughter, Nina, at home, a brother, Victor, Bolton, four sisters, Mrs. F. Fowler and Mrs. J. Harrison, both of Woodstock, and Mrs. J. Mortimer and Mrs. W. Mortimer, Elora.

Funeral services at the funeral were Alvin Fisher, George Grundy, Richard Barrows, George Burrows, D. Stewart, and William Magill. Duncan McTavish and Frank Brydon were honorary pallbearers.

WILLIAM L. WORDEN Born in Acton and a life-long resident of this community, William L. Worden passed away on Thursday last at his home on Church Street, in the home built in Acton by his father. He had been ill about three weeks and was eighty years of age.

William Worden was a son of the late Wm. Worden and Catherine Swackhamer and was the last surviving member of a family of eleven. He was a painter and decorator by trade. For many years he was employed by Beardsmore & Co. but lately has worked on his own contracts. Wm. Worden was a fine type of citizen. He took an active interest in the community and church and served faithfully and well. He was a member of the Baptist Church, regular in attendance and always willing to take a full share of the work and responsibility necessary to maintain the church. For many years he was a member of Acton Fire Brigade and belonged to the Chosen Friends and L.O.O.F. Lodges. He served well and faithfully his day and generation.

Wm. Worden was twice married, his second wife being Miss Charlotte Barbaree, who predeceased him several years ago. A daughter, Gladys, died in 1921. He is survived by one son Leonard of Toronto.

The funeral was held on Sunday afternoon with services at the Johnstone & Rumley Funeral Home conducted by Rev. M. Wallace assisted by Rev. A. W. Fosbury. Interment was in Exeter cemetery. The pallbearers were Messrs. H. Allison, F. Jones, Jas. Mackie, A. T. Brown, Hugh Bell and C. O. Plank. Many friends attended in tribute to this well-admired man.

Among the floral tributes were those from the following: Sam, Leonard, Mrs. Armstrong and Mrs. Crossman; Mr. and Mrs. Bentley Wilson; Horatio Ford and Francis Ford; St. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Hill and Douglas Milton; Mr. and Mrs. L. Galbraith and family; Noranda Que; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Arthur and Barbara, Elora; Mrs. W. J. Arthur Sr. Elora; Mr. and Mrs. Thurlbell Brown, Mrs. Hill, Forest, and Mrs. Michie; the Acton Baptist Church; Acton Fire Brigade; Mrs. Mackie and Phyllis; Mr. and Mrs. H. Allison; Mr. E. Jones; Mr. and Mrs. John Stroud of Forest; Duncan McTavish; Miss Jessie and Myrtle Barbaree; Guelph, Donald McGregor; Family Guelph; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Price and Clarence Hamilton; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chesher, Belleville; Mrs. J. Brown, Regina.

JOHN DONALDSON Following an illness of five months, when he bore his suffering with true Christian fortitude, John Donaldson passed away at his home on Mill St. on Saturday, September 8th.

A son of the late James and Mary Donaldson, he was born in Glasgow, Scotland, and came to Canada with his wife and family and settled in Acton about twenty-three years ago. He has been in the employ of the Beardsmore Co. all through these years, and no employee was more faithful and diligent in his service. John Donaldson was a man of quiet disposition, whose home and church were his chief interests. He was of the staunch type of citizen who are the backbone of any community. He was a member of Knox Presbyterian Church and in the old land had served as a deacon and elder in the church. He was most regular in his attendance at the services in the church here where he will be greatly missed. Besides his wife, who was before marriage Miss Eleanor Gillanders, he leaves one daughter, Mrs. Robt. Turner, Acton, and a son John, Robertson, of Glasgow, Scotland. To all of these sympathy of many friends goes in their bereavement, and to Mrs. Donaldson who has given such constant and loving care during his long illness.

The funeral was held on Monday, September 11th with services at the Johnstone & Rumley Funeral Home, conducted by his minister, Rev. Forbes Thomson. Here many friends gathered in tribute and sympathy. Interment was at Exeter Cemetery. The pallbearers were Messrs. Goss, Smith, Alex. Mann, Wm. Bowman, Toronto, Robt. Turner, Wm. Burton and Toth Wood.

The following floral tributes also bore testimony of esteem and sympathy and were from: The wife; the Wood Family; Mr. and Mrs. John Donaldson and John Bruce, Directors and Staff of Beardsmore & Co., Employers Association Beardsmore & Co., Mrs. Armstrong and Mrs. Graham, Mr. and Mrs. Les Hotehena, Mr. Wm. and Miss Nellie Bowman, Toronto; Mr. Wm. Burton, Fellow Workers of Rolling Room, Beardsmore & Co.; Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Turner.

DAVENPORT-MARSHALL WEDDING IN CHURCH IN ENGLAND The marriage took place at Godalming Parish Church, England, on August 14th, the Rev. Harvard Jones officiating. The bride, Miss Edith Davenport, 1st Can. Hussar, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Davenport, R.R. 2 Rockwood, Ont., and Violet Edith Marshall, only daughter of Mr. D. J. Marshall, Surrey, Eng. The bride who was given in marriage by a friend of the family, Mr. C. S. Hall, was lovely in a dress of heavy figured satin with veil and orange blossoms and she carried red carnations.
