EDEN MILLS

Mrs. L. Tolton and Mrs. J. Wright spent the week-end in the home of the latter's son, Mr. Howie Wright and Mrs. Wright in Toronto.

LAW, Georgina Quinn is home from Victoria for a few weeks before reporting to Ottawa for her discharge. Several from this district attended anniversary services at Arkell on Sunday. The choir of the local Presbyterian Church supplied the special music in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Ingle spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Reeves at Fergus. Mr. and Mrs. Donald Clark have returned home after spending the past six weeks at Oxbow, Sask.

Mr. Jack Gilbertson has had the misfortune to fracture his arm while starting a tractor. A number of former neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Lowery motored to their new home in Guelph and spent a very pleasant evening with them. Progressive Euchre was played. Mrs. W. Wilson was high for ladies and Mr. D. Lowrie for gentlemen. Consolation prizes went to Miss Eileen Wright and Mr. George McAlpine. Mr. and Mrs. Lowery were then called on and Mr. Bert Wright read an address and a hall tree and mirror were presented to Mr. and Mrs. Lowery, a wallet to Don and pictures to Beverly and Barbara. Bert, although taken by complete surprise, thanked all for their lovely gifts and invited all to come and visit them whenever possible. "For they are Jolly Good Fellows" was sung. Lunch was served and all left for home while the Lowery's all success in their new home.

The many friends of Mr. James Gilbertson will be sorry to learn he is confined to his home under the doctor's care. The monthly meeting of the Ladies' Aid and W. M. S. of the Presbyterian Church were held in the home of Mrs. Chas. Lashy with a good attendance. Mr. James Lowery has sold his farm on the Guelph Road to Mr. Victor Smith of Toronto. Mr. and Mrs. Smith are taking possession in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. E. McEnery were Sunday guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Early. The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was observed in the local Presbyterian Church on Sunday with the pastor, Rev. W. S. McIvor in charge. Five new members were received by profession of faith.

We are pleased to report that Mrs. Kirkpatrick was well enough to return home from the Guelph General Hospital on Thursday. Mr. Harold (Tim) Scratch had the misfortune to break a bone in his ankle while at work at the Alliance Mill on Friday.

The Sunday School picnic was held at Stanley Park, Erin, on Saturday, having been postponed due to rain in July. Although the attendance was small a splendid time was spent, ending with the usual picnic supper served in the hall.

Mrs. F. C. Chapman of Bradford, Penn., called on friends in the village on Friday. One hundred and seven pupils, as well as their teachers and a few of the parents were present from adjoining school sections at S.S. No. 3 to see the first showing in this district of the national film board pictures, sponsored by the Halton Federation of Agriculture. The children seem to have gleaned considerable knowledge from the reels and to have made friends with Mr. Heathcington, the operator.

In the evening there were two films shown for adults, which aroused considerable discussion. Lunch was served at the close. The Children's Victory Garden exhibits and displays were arranged and judged by Mr. Bruce Pargeter of Acton, who gave the younger exhibitors many useful hints on gardening and preparation of their products for show purposes.

Prizes were awarded as follows: Best display of at least five vegetables from pupil's garden, seeds supplied by Limehouse W. I.—Margaret Spitzer, Eleanor Spitzer, Nell Benton, Allan Ellerby. Three onions from sets—Margaret Spitzer, David McVey. Three onions from multiples—Bert Benton, Eleanor Spitzer. Three potatoes—Kathleen Kirkpatrick, Nell Benton. Three Beets—Jim Brown, Thelma Brown. Living Room Bouquet—Russell Miller, Ruth Brown, David McVey.

Prizes of War Savings Certificates were awarded by the Limehouse W.I. for garden plants, planted according to a plan by the pupils in the section from seed provided by the W.I. These had been judged by Mr. Pargeter during August, resulting as follows: Eleanor Spitzer, Margaret Spitzer, Nell Benton, Bert Benton, Russell Miller, Allan Ellerby, Ross Norton, David McVey, Ruth Brown, Kathleen Kirkpatrick, Margaret Kirkpatrick, Ruth McBride, Thelma Brown, Jim Brown, Helen Shelbourne. The latter part of an enjoyable evening was spent dancing to music provided by Mr. Stewart Elliott and Mrs. Doris Harding with Mr. Jos. McDonald as floor manager.

The W. I. sponsored a bazaar and afternoon tea at Mrs. Harvey Norton's on Thursday. Large, small and in between aprons were on sale, as well as pot holders, towels and other useful articles. Needless to say, the home-made baking did not last long. An apron raffled by Mrs. Kirkpatrick was won by Mrs. Simethurst. The ladies were so well pleased with the success of the affair that they began planning for another later on.

ROCKWOOD

Rockwood and vicinity received a shock last Thursday forenoon when word was received from Guelph of the sudden death of Mr. Angus Carter at his home, 61 Entrance Boulevard, in the early hours of the morning. The late Mr. Carter came to Rockwood early in 1926 to take over the store then vacated by Mr. H. B. Richardson, now of Vineland, and carried on business for a number of years when he disposed of his business and went to Seaforth. He also resided in Oshawa for some time before coming to Guelph, where he carried on store-keeping and engaged in insurance business with the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, then to the Waterloo Avenue store where he carried on till his sudden death.

In 1915 he was united in marriage to Irene Passmore, and to whom were born two children, Gordon at home, and Dorothy (Mrs. E. B. Cogruvo) of Burlington. The sympathy of the community is extended to them in their sudden bereavement. He also leaves one brother, Thomas Carter of Prince Albert, Sask., and three sisters: Mrs. J. Burnside, of Shelburne; Mrs. A. Hanlin, of Brandon, Man.; and Mrs. L. Taylor, Vancouver, B.C. A grandchild also survives. The funeral which was held Saturday afternoon was largely attended with service at the McLanaghan and Ross Funeral Home, Guelph, with Rev. George A. Wistard of Paisley Memorial Church conducting the service, assisted by Rev. Chas. Joffe, of Painsby. Deceased was on the Board of Managers of Paisley Memorial Church. Burial was in Rockwood Cemetery. Pallbearers were Messrs. Wm. Brownlee of Oshawa; J. Burnside, of Shelburne; M. Munro, of Hamilton; Dr. K. B. Waller, W. J. Guild and Wm. Passmore. The numerous floral tributes also bore silent tribute to the high esteem in which the deceased was held.

Among those present from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. George Rogers, New Lowell, Ont.; Mr. Dan Bartle, Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Norman Guild, Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. M. Munro and daughter Margaret, Hamilton; Mr. and Mrs. A. Munro, Hamilton; Mr. J. Hewat, Simcoe; Mr. and Mrs. G. McKenzie, of Georgetown; Mr. and Mrs. H. Milne and daughter Marion, of Elora.

On account of anniversary services at the Presbyterian Church next Sunday, Rally Day was observed last Sunday, and the Rally Day address, "Workers in God's Harvest Fields," was given by the pastor, Rev. W. J. McIvor.

At the monthly meeting of the Women's Institute last week in the Town Hall, plans were laid in preparation for a sacred concert Thanksgiving Sunday. During the meeting Mrs. Frank Dean presided over the program. Mrs. Arthur Ewers gave an interesting account of her recent trip to British Columbia, and Mrs. Chas. H. Harris spoke on Canadian Industries. Other items on the program were: piano solo, Lorna Linfoot; reading, Mrs. Robert Miller, reading, Pat Linfoot.

Since his return from a trip to the Pacific coast recently, Mr. Arthur Ewers underwent an operation in a Toronto Hospital and is going home shortly afterward and is going about his work on the highway as usual.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Smith, Kitchener Highway, entertained about 45 guests Saturday evening, Sept. 15 in honor of Masters Neil and Norman Lambert's fourteenth birthday. A buffet lunch was served after many games and contests were enjoyed and during the evening a purse of money was presented to the twins for the splendid support they had given at concerts during the past six years. Guests were present from Elmira, Alma, Elora, Kitchener, Fergus, Guelph and Rockwood.

Congratulations are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lambert who celebrated their thirtieth wedding anniversary on September 15. On returning from their wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Lambert (nee Anne Holmes) were guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lambert.

Week-end and Sunday visitors: Mrs. Alex. Hamilton, Lucknow. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Ingram and babe of Dundas; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Whyte, of Kitchener; Mr. and Mrs. Noah Miller of Elmira.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Allan and daughter Marie, of Toronto. Rev. and Mrs. Chas. H. Cornwell, of Kitchener were guests with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lambert.

Mrs. Nancy Glendinning is spending some time with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Glendinning, Acton.

Messrs. Geo. H. Pearen and Collin Kitching have been giving their residences a fresh coat of paint. The many friends of Miss Laura Powers regret her removal to Guelph General Hospital and hope for a speedy recovery.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Holman on the arrival of a baby daughter. Services at St. John's Church last Sunday were held in the interests of young people, with Rev. E. A. Pulker giving the address.

SASKATOON (CP)—The Red Cross Society is studying possibilities for inauguration of a peacetime blood donor system and is sending a questionnaire throughout the province to determine public opinion, said A. M. Blue, provincial president.

BALLINAFAD

Police are searching for a man who packed up Ruth Marshall, daughter of Lloyd Marshall and Mariel Hills (the daughter of Henry Hills, on their way home from school. After letting Muriel out of the car he took Ruth a few miles beyond her home and let her out and then made her get back in the car and took her part way home in the van. He did not harm her.

Miss Robertson, of Guelph, spent the week-end with Miss Lydia Snow, Miss Joyce Smith, who has gone in to Guelph General Hospital for training spent Saturday at her home here.

Miss Browne, of Blue Mountain School took her pupils to Limehouse to see the pictures which were quite helpful to the children.

The monthly meeting of the Farm Forum met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Marshall on Monday night, with an attendance of twenty. The new officers were elected for 1945-46: Convener for the year, Mrs. Robt. McEnery; Sec., Mrs. Frank Smith; convener for next meeting, Mr. John Cole; program committee, Mrs. John Cole and Mr. Robt. McEnery.
