This and that

Just another week of November left.

Christmas is just four weeks from Tuesday. Do your shopping when you can get it.

Mr. Chas. Mason now has in training a girls band which, with the assistance of the boys, is making good progress.

Hockey fans and skaters are anxious for the cold weather and ice in the arena. We don't anticipate it with the same enthusiasm as we used to.

To-morrow night is nomination night. Every ratepayer should be at the town hall to nominate municipal candidates and hear municipal matters discussed.

Look at the label on your paper this week. It tells the date to which your subscription is paid. Prompt renewals avoid missing copies of your home town paper.

Knox Young Peoples Society held their opening meeting on Monday, November 19 with President Inez McEllan in the chair. Doug Davidson and Bill Manitzke took parts of the worship service. A series of active and inactive games followed. A bountiful lunch was served by the Social Committee.

Mr. A. T. Brown kindly loaned us copies of the Winnipeg Free Press and Tribune which is being published jointly and by a different process while the compositors of both papers are having a work stoppage. They are much reduced in size and in the experimental stage but interesting specimens of what can be done by other production methods.

SHORT WATER

WOODSTOCK ON T.P. Local weather prophets predict a short winter reminiscent of a long winter, an early, warm spring. They say squirrels are not bothering to bury nuts and the tufts of black hair on caterpillars are smaller this year than usual.

HALTON HOG PRODUCERS CONSIDER PROPOSED SCHEME

A meeting in the interest of the Ontario Hog Producers' Marketing Scheme was held in the Ethelma Theatre, Milton on Thursday evening of last week. This scheme is proposed by the Ontario Hog Producers' Association for the marketing of hogs produced in Ontario. At the suggestion of Col. the Hon. J. I. Kennedy, Ontario Minister of Agriculture, the proposed scheme is being submitted to Ontario hog producers for approval or rejection as the case may be. If a sufficient percentage of Ontario hog producers express approval of the scheme, it will then be passed under the Ontario Farm Products Act.

Some 200 Halton hog producers attended the meeting referred to above. Mr. Paul Fisher, president of the Halton Federation of Agriculture, was the chief speaker and in his comprehensive and interesting address dealt with Marketing Schemes in general. It was pointed out by the speaker that to date twelve other schemes were now in effect under the Ontario Farm Products Control Act and all of these had proved beneficial to the producer and he expressed the opinion that given good leadership, similar benefits would be gained by Ontario hogmen.

Others who spoke briefly included Messrs. Percy Merry of Hornby, and Bruce Reid, local directors of the Halton Hog Producers' Committee. It was announced at the meeting that Agricultural Representative J. E. Whitehead had been appointed as deputy for Halton Hog Producers and deputy returning officer for the Ontario Farm Products Control Board in the taking of the vote. It was further announced that any Halton farmer who owns one or more hogs has the opportunity of registering at the department office in Milton any time up to and including Tuesday, November 27th. Such registration may be made in person or by mail. Ballots are also available at the department office and those who register on or before Nov. 27th have the opportunity of casting their ballot expressing approval or disapproval as the case may be. Balloting may be done in person or by mail and is now in progress but the final date for balloting is Saturday, December 8th.

AUSTRALIA DEVELOPS TROPICAL TERRITORY

PERTH, Australia (C.P.) - The tropical third of Western Australia now has about 2,500 white persons on nearly 300,000 square miles. One corner of it is due for rapid development.

This is Yampi Sound with its islands of iron, which have at least 100,000,000 tons of ore containing up to 40 per cent of metallic iron. The Broken Hill Proprietary Company has 100 men doing preliminary work for iron quarries, a deep-water port and a town.

Four vessels of 12,500 tons each are being built at Whyalla to carry the ore to Port Kembla. These will be refrigerated, a new idea in ore carriers, so that they can take food and other supplies back for the town.

The B. H. P. is also busy out beyond the other side of Australia. It will work the iron ore deposits at Fond du Lac in New Caledonia where 20,000,000 tons of high-grade ore are in sight. The company will put in at Port Kembla in New South Wales 48 coke ovens and a rolling-mill to turn out 1,000 tons of steel a day. That will put the Australian output well above 2,000,000 tons a year.
