BALLINAFAD

We are pleased to welcome back to our community three more boys from overseas. Springfield, Peter, Ray and Victor Swindellhurst, all returning on the Queen Elizabeth.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Shortall celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary on Saturday.

The Farm Forum met on Monday night in the Hall with an attendance of 50. The discussion was on "poor soil produces poor food". Mr. Holley of the National Film Board presented pictures on the Tennessee Valley and Health which were very interesting.

LIMEHOUSE

We regret the unintended omission of Jack Nolle's name from the list of returned servicemen who received their membership cards at the Memorial Hall opening. Mr. Nolle was present to receive his own card.

Another very enjoyable time was spent at Limehouse Memorial Hall on Friday evening when the Hall sponsored a dance and dinner. Winners of cards were Mrs. E. Miller and Mr. Peter Clifford. McDonald consultations going to Mrs. E. Sanford and Mr. Don Parker. Mr. Sidney Kirkpatrick won the special half-way prize. Following sandwiches and coffee the floor was cleared for dancing. Music was provided by Heli Merle, Jack Noble and the Kains brothers. Mr. P. L. Davidson was floor manager. The Hall seems to be a popular place as it is booked for several Friday evenings in December already.

The Girls Club met at Doris Mitchell's on Tuesday evening and plans were made for a euchre and crokinole.

Mr. and Mrs. Wright and Miss Shirley spent Sunday with the Wrights, Erin Township.

Mrs. R. McVey and David have gone to live in Toronto where Mr. McVey is employed with Canada Packers. We will miss them in our community.

Mrs. Gusty and Mrs. Dan McPhee and children spent the weekend in Toronto.

Quite a number of deer hunters were seen passing through the village last week. Joe St. Pierre was lucky enough to bring one home too.

ROCKWOOD

During last Wednesday evening when the Rockwood Women's Institute was in progress in the Town Hall and had the Book Aid in Hall as well as the Book Aid Institute as their guests, a number of young people made a series of themselves around the premises.

Thursday afternoon a general election film was shown in the Town Hall for the public school scholars.

Friday nominations were held for the Township with the result that D. Gray was reelected by a claimant as was also Roy Lester for deputy reeve and Messrs. E. H. Bonham, T. G. Hutchinson and J. B. Rutherford for council. Candidates for School Area Trustees due to be elected, Messrs. Elmer McManus, Thos. Saunders, Gordon Swanson, Wm. Henry, Frank Ostrander, Harold Cox, Lorne Allen, Hugh Adsett, Elmer McManus, Thos. Saunders, Gordon Swanson, Wm. Hindley and Hugh Adsett were elected. The Police Village Trustees are Messrs. John Lester, Chas. Thatcher and Fred McArthur for next year.

The W. A. of St. John's church held a very successful Afternoon Tea and Bazaar in the Town Hall Saturday afternoon. Members of the choir waited on the guests. Another group of young folks had a separate table where they sold tickets for a Christmas pudding and Mr. Richard Harris won the lucky ticket.

Mr. Chester Phink who was on company with a group of other hunters after game some 100 miles north of Peterborough returned home Saturday evening with a deer led on the back of his car.

The many friends of Campbell McArthur, R.C.N.V.R., who was overseas will be pleased to know he is back home again. While in England, he took further training in voice culture in spare time. Before enlisting, he became gold medallist in Western Ontario musical festivals and was also former baritone soloist at Norfolk Street Church, Guelph. While in London, Campbell McArthur took lessons from Mr. Robert Parker, American-born opera star and friend of Edward Johnson, former Guelphite, who is general manager of the Metropolitan Opera Company. Campbell McArthur also won second prize in the Belfast musical festival last spring, and also spent some time singing at service entertainments and during his posting in London was in the world-famed Fleet Street Choir as well as being with the choir in nation-wide recordings and appearing in England's Royal Albert Hall. Since his return home, he is stationed at Hamilton where he will be for some time before securing his discharge.

Mr. Morgan of Almonte, N.Y. returned to his home this week after visiting his parents. Mr. and Mrs. Harvey and Mr. Percy Peavy.

NASSAGAWEYA

This community was greatly shocked to learn of the death of Mr. John Locker on Wednesday November 21 at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Arthur O'Conor, Mary, 14 Cambrian St., Stratford. He had been up around on Sunday and on Monday was taken ill with pneumonia followed by a heart attack from which he passed away. Deceased was a highly respected resident of Nassagaweya and but for a few years after marriage farmed on lot 21 con. 5. Nassagaweya returned to his father's homestead where he farmed until he retired and moved to Acton. His daughter, Mrs. Wm. Early and his wife are on the farm at present. The funeral was held on Friday from the residence and Ramsay Funeral Home where services were conducted by the Rev. C. L. Foster who also conducted the burial service at Evergreen Cemetery where interment was made in the plot of his son, George. The deepest sympathy of this community goes out to the wife and brother of the deceased in their sudden bereavement.

The children have a change of teacher. Mrs. George, fromsville of Acton, filling the vacancy caused by Mrs. Paul's illness.

was to be sent the Salvation Army for rehabilitation work. Also twenty-five to be given to the Christie Street Hospital fund for Christmas. The good cheer leader gave her report. Quilt discussion then took a few minutes. Plans for the coming bazaar were made. A progressive auction is to be held the evening of the bazaar. Six dollars was allotted for gents and ladies first and second prizes and low prizes extra. The hostess served a lovely lunch that was enjoyed by all and a quilt was quilted during the day.

Mr. W. W. Drudge held a Busy Bees quilting on Wednesday, November 6. After Busy Bees dance at Brookville Hall two of the boys, namely Pte. Glen Britton and Sergeant James Wallace were welcomed home. After intermission the two boys were asked to come forward and Mrs. W. Kennedy read the address of welcome. Mrs. W. Drudge and Mrs. Joseph Frank presented the boy with a Waterman's "Lifetime" pen and pencil set each. Both boys in their reply spoke of the nest as well as the pleasure in the cigarettes and pencils the club sent them during their stay overseas. Everyone sang. For they are jolly good fellows. Many friends of the boys attended the event to meet the boys.

During the open season for deer hunting Mr. J. J. Kennedy and Mr. Stan Robinson, two No. 7 men, were lucky enough to capture two, a doe and a buck. One was caught on Saturday and the second on Saturday. We bear in mind being caught in the districts by outsiders.

Mrs. Anna Paul, teacher of this class, was on vacation on Monday in Milton Hospital and is doing nicely, we are pleased to report.

Pte. Ben Beavis has a six month leave from the army and is going to work on a farm. It's nice having Ben back in the community again.
