STEWART-BENSON WEDDING SATURDAY IN TORONTO HOME

Miss Agnes Louisa Benson daughter of Mrs. Benson and the late W. Stuart Benson, became the bride of William McDonald Stewart Saturday evening at the home of her sister, Mrs. P. H. Howarth, Heddington Ave. Toronto. The groom is the son of Rev. A. C. and Mrs. Stewart, Midland. The groom's father officiated, while Sgt. E. A. Hanson of Acton played the wedding music.

Given in marriage by her brother-in-law, P. H. Howarth, the bride was gowned in gardenia white velvet with Mary Queen of Scots headpiece to catch her unbridled tulle veil. She carried a colonial bouquet of yellow roses and bouvardia. Mrs. Howarth, who was her sister's matron of honor, wore geranium red crepe trimmed with sequins, small velvet hat to match and carried forget-me-not blue baby mums. Afterward Mrs. Benson received, attired in powder blue crepe with corsage of pale pink roses. The groom's mother was in black crepe accented with black beading. Holidaying at Lumberlost Lodge, Huntsville, the bride travelled in a dark green wool suit, black lambs-wool black velvet hat and black accessories. They will reside in Pembroke.
