Acton Takes First Game in O.H.A. Here on Thursday

Outclassed Milton Entry by Score of 7-1-Fair Crowd on Hand for Opener

Old fans were on hand and a new crop of bockey enthusiasta gave vent to pent-up cheers of four years when the curtain went up on hockey in Acton again last Thursday night. was the first intermediate O. H. A. faces on the line-up, there were missing ones and some new ones at 22:50 as Townsley scored on a rebound from Brush's skate. The perlod ended with the score 3-1 for Ac-

Play in the third period stepped up and at 4.30, Goy scored for Acton on a lone rush. The play shifted then to the Acton end and Woods made some beautiful saves, as Milton peppered the net. Riddell, with an asaist from Townsley, counted for Acton at 12.30 in a skirmish around the Milton net.

Milton turned on the power but unsuccessful in obtaining a goal. Acton broke away with a rush and Morton scored from Marzo at 19.30

Morton hit Sellsizzi at 22 (x) and was sent down with a minor for boarding. Bayliss scored for Acton at 24.00 on a rebound-from McDuffe's pads.

And so the first game of the season ended very much in Acton's invor with the score 7 to 1

The line-ups were as follows: Milton: McDuffe, G; Blinco, R. D; Brush, L. D.; M. Cove, C.; Gervais, R. W.; Borer, L. W.; Alternatives,

The Boys' Band certainly added a icide. lot to the enjoyment of the game.

In this modern age of electricity and modern conveniences, it seems a shame that the big time clock is not in repair.

Perhaps the increased crowd in the second and third periods had something to do with Acton's scoring
