Interesting Items Concerning Other Centres and Communities in which Many of Our Readers are Interested

LIMEHOUSE

Nine tables of euchre were played when a W. I. committee sponsored a party in the hall on Friday evening. Winners were Mr. Rae Scott and Mrs. K. Hamilton, consolation going to Mr. W. Summers and Eleanor Spitzer.

Rom Norton, Margaret Spitzer and Eleanor Spitzer, pupils at Limehouse of Miss Marion Hepburn were all successful in their recent Grade 1 piano examinations, the first two with honor standing.

Limehouse experienced its worst flood in history when a large filter bed at Beardmore Tannery gave way on Saturday. The high embankment of the railway saved the village from the full force of the rushing, foul smelling torrents which swept away a cement bridge on the third line and several private ones, washed away tons of gravel from town-ship roads, uprooted trees and fences, polluted the water supplies of at least a half dozen families and filled one cellar to a depth of four feet. After the stream had subsided to its normal level all left in the wake of the flood was dyed a brownish purple color.

The Tuesday afternoon euchre last week was held at Mrs. Benton's, admission being an article for sale at a bazaar later on.

At the W. M. S. meeting held at Mrs. Smethurst's Thursday, Mrs. Roughley contributed a musical number. Thirteen ladies attended.

The Farm Service Committee of the Burlington and District Fruit and Vegetable Growers' Association met at the home of Mr. John Allen, King's Road, on Tuesday evening to discuss the labor situation for the coming season.

Declaring his utmost confidence in this country and community and expressing the opinion that there would be no shortage of lumber in Canada this year A. S. Nicholson gave a most interesting address to the Lions Club at the regular luncheon at the Brant Inn Monday evening.

At a special meeting of the town council, held on Friday evening last in the council chamber, sanction was given to the authorizing of an agreement from the town permitting the A. S. Nicholson and Son Lumber Co. to cross Ontario Street with a proposed railway siding from the main line now running along Brant Ave. Gazette.

NASSAGAWEYA

The sudden death of St. Joseph's Hospital, Guelph on Monday morning of Mr. John McGregor came as a shock to his many friends in this district. He had been in falling health and was taken to the hospital for treatment last Tuesday night. His wife predeceased him about eight years ago. He leaves to mourn his loss three daughters, Beattie, Mabel, and Anna, all at home, also one brother, Alexander and two sisters, Lizzy and Jessie McGregor, all of Acton. ## ROCKWOOD

As a result of last week's mild weather the ice on the river went out quietly and no disturbance. On a recent week-end some boys were noticed playing on loose cakes of ice adjoining Valley Road.

Miss Joy Callinson, niece of Mrs. O'Brien and Mrs. Hunter, Harris St. who came from Montreal last fall and spent the winter with her aunts, conducted a tableaux at St. John's Church Sunday afternoon in place of the usual service dealing with events in the life of Christ from his birth and including his trial before Pilate and Herod. At intervals, Rev. E. A. Pulker read portions of scripture relative to the tableaux and members of the choir sang appropriate hymns. It was interesting to see young people of the congregation appear in costume which helped materially to grasp the nature of the occasion. There was a fair attendance at the service. At the conclusion of the service, Rev. E. A. Pulker officiated at a baptismal ceremony for the infant son of Thos. and Mrs. Rusk (nee Gloria Peal). Thos. Rusk recently returned from overseas and was in the R.C.A.M.C. Owing to the illness of Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Peal being in hospital, the baptismal ceremony was delayed. Mr. and Mrs. H. Peal were at the service, also Mr. Bradley Peal.

Miss J. Callinson returned to Montreal Monday. Previous to coming to Rockwood she was in the Air Force service.

Cases of measles and mumps are prevalent in the village at the present time.

The many friends of Mr. Jess Gordier will be pleased to know he is improving following a relapse of flu and pneumonia.

The local Red Cross organization held a special meeting at the home of Mrs. Gratian Barry recently.

Week-end and Sunday visitors: Miss Edith Royce, R. N., Toronto. Mr. and Mrs. J. Eldon Lambert, Hamilton.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Miles, Galt. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Thomas, Galt. Miss Letta McIntyre, Guelph. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kelso and family, Guelph.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lambert, Masters, Neil and Norman spent Sunday in Erin village with relatives.

A number of Rockwood people motored to Toronto Saturday evening to attend a hockey game.
