NASSAGAWEYA S. R. No. 7

Friends of Mrs. Joseph Frank will be sorry to hear she is in Guelph General Hospital. We hope she is soon able to be home again.

Mr. Matthew Job, who has been in Milton Hospital the past two weeks seemed to be some better Sunday. We hope he continues improving until he has regained his health.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. James Evans upon the arrival of a baby daughter.

The number of cars travelling the No. 12 sidewalk running from Speyside to Guelph road are noticeably increased since gas rationing is past. Trout fishing is rationing for the greater evening traffic.

Last Friday was Arbor Day at No. 7 and school children went trout fishing when the work was finished.

Last Friday the men working in Mr. Ed. Drege's saw mill went to fight a bush fire in his bush just behind Dufferin School on 25 highway. A watch was kept all night and it was well there was as a fire broke out again about 3 o'clock. Saturday morning but was soon put out and the rain in the evening made it safe to leave.

The rain over the week-end will do much good where it was so badly needed on farms and gardens.

ROCKWOOD

Following an illness of some years Miss Kathleen M. Oakes passed away last Thursday evening at St. Joseph's Hospital, Guelph. The late Miss Oakes was the daughter of Mrs. G. Oakes and at one time was an employee of the Rockwood Woollen Mills and later worked in Galt. The funeral took place Saturday morning from her late home to Sacred Heart Church where service was held with Rev. Father Callaghan officiating. Numerous floral offerings bore silent testimony of the esteem in which she was held. The pallbearers were Messrs. John Tone, Herb Gibbons, Herb Saunders, Rockwood, Al Kelly, James and Clarence Lynch, Toronto. The sympathy of the community is extended to her mother and sister, Irene (Mrs. Weisensal) of Buffalo, brothers Lawrence of Galt and Frank of Salem. Other members of the family are Joe of Toronto and Jack at home and working in Guelph. A brother, Wilfrid, was killed in action in World War I and Stanley predeceased her some years ago. Interment took place at Oustie Cemetery.

Miss Reddy, who keeps home for Rev. Father Callaghan returned last week after a few months' absence. During January, when on a month's holiday at Hespeler, she had the misfortune to fall and break her arm at the wrist. Miss Moore of Conn kept house during her absence and returned home during the week-end.

Mr. Clarence Lynch, who was overseas in the Provost Corps, returned to his home in Toronto recently. His brother Jack, who is with the R.C.A.F., is still at Oldham, England.

Rev. F. Williamson, of Kitchener, who is supplying during the absence of Rev. Dr. Melvor, conducted service at the Presbyterian Church Sunday morning. His ministry was much enjoyed.

Since the organization of the Rockwood Musical Society recently, Mr. S. Escott of Guelph has already commenced his duties in training a number of young people in a spare room of the Continuation School twice a week.

Mr. Weisensal and members of family were among those from a distance at the funeral of Miss Oakes.

LIMEHOUSE

The annual meeting of Limehouse W. I. was held in the Memorial Hall last Thursday afternoon. Previous to the meeting 25 ladies were entertained at lunch by Mrs. Ellerby, president. The secretary read that over $200.00 had been cleared from the bazaar and Mrs. Sanford, April financial convenor, had cleared another $450.00 from a play and socials. Mrs. Smith's winning poem "The W. I." was read. Mrs. Francis Brown reported on the District Director's meeting and Mrs. A. W. Benton on the annual meeting of Halton Children's Aid Society. Two memberships were paid for the 1944-47 Children's Aid Society, Mrs. A. W. Benton and Mrs. S. Wright being appointed delegates.

Reports were heard from convenors of standing committees and work convenors. Fifteen quilts were finished and 431 articles of clothing had been shipped overseas. Some work had been done for the Red Cross and Salvation Army which was on hand at present. Madams Miller, Bent on, Ellerby, Francis Brown and S. Wright had had 100 per cent. attendance during the past year.

The President read her report and that of the Memorial Hall. The secretary and treasurer's report showed 12 regular meetings with average attendance of 15. $1963.36 which included the purchase money for the Hall passed through the treasurer's hands and balance of $105.61 is on hand for the next year.

Mrs. E. Miller took the chair for election of officers which resulted as follows:

President—Mrs. J. I. Ellerby.
1st vice-president—Mrs. S. Gibby.
2nd vice-president—Mrs. J. Jamieson.
Secretary—Mrs. E. Miller.
District Director—Mrs. H. Norton.
Branch directors—Mrs. A. Benton, Mrs. E. Sanford, Mrs. Jamieson.
Press Reporter—Mrs. A. Benton.
Auditors—Mrs. J. Noble, Mrs. Smith.

Delegates to district annual—Messrs. James Gibby, Ellerby, H. Norton.
Convenors—knitting, Mrs. Miller; serving, Mrs. Kirkpatrick; quilting, Mrs. Gibby; roll call, Mrs. Wright; citizenship, Mrs. J. Roughley; home economics, Mrs. S. Wright; agriculture and Can. Ind., Mrs. Kirkpatrick; social welfare, Mrs. A. Benton; historical research, Mrs. E. Sanford; pianists, Mrs. C. Meredith, Mrs. H. Norton.

When the president returned to the chair for her sixth year all sang "For She's a Jolly Good Fellow."

The meeting closed with the National Anthem.

Mrs. Gale and Miss Ivons have returned to their home here, having spent the winter in Toronto.

L.A.W. Helen Mills of the R.C.A.F. (W.D.), at Trenton, spent the week-end at Limehouse with her parents.

Limehouse has had its meanest thief of thieves. On Thursday afternoon someone robbed Mr. Bert McCauley, who is blind of $32, which he had saved for coal for his own and his blind brother's home. About the same time Mr. Percy Hurst, a cripple lost $1, being all he had in that wallet at the time. In both cases the money was taken from the victim's pockets in pretext of looking for a match. We hope that the officers working on the case catch up with them and that they get what they well deserve.

At the euchre and dance sponsored by the Hall Board last week, high scores were held by Mrs. Hunter of Acton and D. M. Robertson, centre score by Dorothy Shelbourne and the door prize by Tom Letherbridge.

Mrs. A. W. Benton attended the executive meeting of the Guelph W. I. on Tuesday where plans were made for the fall convention in Norfolk St. United Church November 1 and 2. The theme will be "Education for World Peace must begin in the Home."

We are sorry to report that Mrs. J. W. Nickell is in a serious condition following a paralytic stroke on Saturday morning at her home.

Religion—a cane for some—a crutch for others—was meant to be a sword.

GEORGETOWN

Confined to bed for several months, Mrs. Neil Hunter, a life-long resident of Georgetown, passed away at her home on Queen Street on Wednesday, April 24th. She was born in Hamilton 75 years ago, but moved to Georgetown with her parents, the late Robert John Bennett and Hannah Jane Thompson when a baby.

One of Georgetown's oldest residents Mrs. Phoebe Watson passed away in Peel Memorial Hospital on Saturday, April 26th, after a four days' illness. A pioneer Episcopalian resident, she was born Phoebe Jane Lane in Limehouse 91 years ago last October and was a daughter of the late John M. Lane and Mary Youmans. Her maternal grandmother was a United Empire Loyalist. In February, 1935, she married the late George Leonard Watson who predeceased her ten years ago.

At enthusiastic meetings on Friday and Monday evenings, an Intermediate Baseball Club was formed in Georgetown and a team entered in the Halton County League.
