ROCKWOOD

The sacrament of the Lord's Supper was observed at the United Church Sunday morning. Pre-communion service was held Wednesday evening. Under the ministry of Rev. Fred Williamson at the Presbyterian Church, attendance shows a slight increase and Rev. Williamson's discourse are much enjoyed.

Mrs. Ellis (nee Sus Clements), formerly of Rockwood held an afternoon tea at her home in Hooper last Friday afternoon. Mrs. Clarence Henderson and Mrs. (Dr.) Waller each took a car load of Rockwood people for the occasion.

The annual forty hour devotional services at the Sacred Heart Church were observed over the week-end.

Miss Minnie McNeill of Toronto, in company with a few others were up for the week-end at the home of her mother, Mrs. E. Nickell.

Mr. Charlie Pollock of Toronto returned to Toronto last week after a two week's visit with Miss C. Campbell and Mrs. E. Nickell.

Miss Pearl Hamilton of Toronto was home for the week-end.

Rev. C. Gordon Harris of Cong. who was in attendance at the United Church conference at the O.A.C., Guelph, last week, was a visitor in town last week. At the end of the conference he moves to his new charge at Calverville, below Hamilton his father, Mr. Charles Harris, lately of Niagara Falls and who has been making his home with his son, will also go with him.

Monday morning as Mr. Joe Holman was driving down street in his truck and approaching the bridge, a car was coming in the opposite direction and somehow turned in front of the truck with the result that the left front fender jack-knifed and the glass in the left door of the car was badly shattered. The left front fender of the truck suffered less damage being slightly bent inward, but clear of the front wheel. In the meantime traffic was detoured around past Horrop's Mill and along portion of Valley Road.

Anniversary services at the United Church next Sunday. Mr. George Laverty had his service station and garage considerably improved with a coat of fresh paint, some of the work being done with a paint sprayer outfit. Mr. and Mrs. Grafton Barry are also having their residence treated to fresh paint.

TERRA COTTA

There were a number of holiday visitors in our hamlet during the 24th including:

Miss Wilma Hunter of Toronto. Miss Annie Puckering of Toronto. Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Vanderfleet of Toronto, also Miss L. Laughton of Toronto.

There have been a number of real estate transfers in our hamlet recently. Mrs. J. Eaves, we are pleased to learn, has arrived home from the Toronto General Hospital after a successful operation for appendicitis.

We regret to record the passing of the late Charles Healy Price, a highly respected resident. Deceased had farmed at Rockdale for a number of years prior to his removal to Terra Cotta. He was a member of the Calverton United Church. Thirty-seven years ago he married Rachel Davidson, who, with one daughter, Dorothy, Mrs. Arthur Gordon of Waagaa Beach and two brothers, W. E. Price of Toronto and John Price of the 4th line, Chinguacousy remain. The funeral services were on Saturday afternoon from the Weddell Funeral Parlors in Erin conducted by the Rev. A. O. W. Foreman of Balhnafad. Interment took place in Boston Mills Cemetery. The pall bearers were George Kirkwood, John Jackson, Jack McMillan, Robert Bruah, Clayton Rogers and Morris Teeter.

A number of university students from Toronto are here at present putting bass in the River Credit and are catching some insects. They say they want to find out the best variety of fish to stock the river with. This, we are informed, is government work.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Kidd and family of Inglewood spent the week-end with Mrs. K. Icam and family. Mrs. Lloyd, we are sorry to learn, is now on the sick list. We hope soon to hear of her complete recovery.

Mr. Leslie Icam has put a new roof on his stable and other decided improvements. Mr. Loristman of Georgetown, who recently purchased 50 acres on the town line is busily engaged erecting an up-to-date fish pond and many other decided improvements. This farm was formerly known as the Nobbe Estate.

Mr. John Gordon Stringer has purchased an up-to-date truck. A number from here took in the play at Union Church on Friday evening and all report a good time.

Tenders are up now for carrying the mail from the C.N.R. station here to the post office.

Mr. and Mrs. Spitzer and family attended the Braids-Allison wedding in St. Joseph's Church, Acton on Saturday.

Mr. D. M. Robertson celebrated his 73rd birthday on June 1 with a party at his home the following day, Sunday, June 2. About 100 guests were present from the surrounding countryside and from Toronto, Brantford, Brampton, Paris, Acton and even Nassau, in the Bahamas. The visitors were made welcome by Mr. Robertson, his son Wm. D. of Toronto and his daughter, Mrs. Cameron, Leishman of Acton. Another daughter, Mrs. Gibbons of Oshawa was unable to attend due to illness in the family. In accord with his Scotch customs, Mr. Robertson was dressed in kilts and carried his Sir Harry Lauder curly cane. Mr. Wm. Robertson introduced the guest artists who included the Georgetown Girls' Pipe Band, 30 strong; Mr. James Fax, aged 92 years; Mr. Sam Glaby; Mrs. Jno. W. Nichell; Mr. Al Leishman and Miss Carton. Three great granddaughters, Messrs. D. M. Robertson, Jno. W. Nichell and James Fax were photographed together. Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Wright assisted Mr. Robertson in serving coffee, hot dogs and birthday cake.

GEORGETOWN

Friday, May 24th was a red-letter day for two Georgetown men who were decorated by the Governor-General, Viscount Alexander at an investiture ceremony they were among a group of soldiers at Convocation Hall, University of Toronto. The men were Tpr. Thomas Edwin Dickenson of Georgetown and Tpr. Frederick Henry Harrison of Georgetown. Both won the Military Medal for gallantry in action in Italy during the 1944 spring campaign in World War II.

The auction sale last Wednesday at Cedarvale Farm was one of the most successful of the year. The farm had previously been bought privately by Mr. E. B. Tyers who recently sold his dairy business in town. A portion of land around the Cedarvale school buildings was retained by the United Church, which owned the farm and Mr. Tyers purchased the balance with the exception of some acreage fronting No. 7 Highway which is being sold to the town for the construction of veterans' homes.—Herald.
