THE FOOTITT-BENNIE WEDDING AT DUART ON VICTORIA DAY

Duart Presbyterian Church was the scene of a very pretty wedding on the 24th of May last, when Jean Heveron Bennie, elder daughter of Rev. and Mrs. H. L. Bennie, became the bride of Robert Footitt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Footitt of Acton. The church was decorated with baskets of white lily, tulip and purple iris with a background of dogwood blossoms.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her brother, Douglas Bennie, and the ceremony was performed by her father. She looked charming in her mother's wedding gown and veil of brocaded Belgian broche and white satin with court train and full length silk net veil. She carried a white bible with streamers of lily-of-the-valley, double narcissus and forget-me-nots.

The bride was attended by Anna Davidson of Mitchell as maid of honor and her sister, Joyce Bennie as bridesmaid. They both wore floor length gowns, the maid of honor looking very lovely in rose georgette and the bridesmaid very sweet in Albee blue taffeta, both carrying arm bouquets of double white lilies and Ophelia roses with lily and roses in their hair.

The groom was attended by Donald Ryder of Acton and the usher's duties performed by the groom's brother, George Footitt of Toronto and Norman Wright of Acton. The wedding music was played by Mrs. J. H. McKillop, organist of the church. Miss Norma McGuigan of Mulrirk sang very beautifully "The Lord's Prayer" and "I'll Walk Beside You".

An informal reception was held at the manse immediately following the wedding where good wishes and toasts were given to the happy young couple. The bride's mother wore for the occasion, pearl grey crepe with queen's blue accessories and corsage of lily-of-the-valley and sweet peas. The groom's mother was charming in a brocade moss green crepe with black accessories. She also wore a corsage of lily-of-the-valley and sweet peas.

All returned to the church basement at 4.30 for the delicious wedding dinner prepared and served by the Ladies Aid. The tables and basement were very attractive with many crystal bowls of pink sweet peas, lily-of-the-valley and blue forget-me-not. Mrs. W. A. Davidson of Mitchell poured tea for the guests as the cake was being served.

The bride and groom left for Windsor and Detroit, the bride travelling in an American Beauty suit with brown accessories. On their return they will reside in Acton. Those attending the wedding from Acton were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Footitt, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Footitt, Miss Hannah Wallace, Miss Emma Cole, Mr. Dan Ryder, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mainprize, Helen and Bill Mainprize, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Graham.

Championship Trips Awarded in Junior Farmer Competition

One Hundred Participants in Event at Milton Last Saturday—Other Awards are Made

The Annual Achievement Day for Halton Junior Homemakers and the Livestock Judging Competition for Halton Junior Farmers were held in Milton and district on Saturday, June 1st.

The Junior Homemakers, under the leadership of Miss Lulu How of the Women's Institute Branch, made their displays and staged their demonstrations in the Milton Town Hall. Both the displays and demonstrations centred around the two projects conducted by the Junior Homemakers during the past year. These two projects were as follows: (a) Sleeping Garments and (b) The Club Girl Entertains.

The afternoon program brought many Senior Institute members and Senior Homemakers, who followed the demonstrations with keen interest. Among the visitors was Miss Lotta Dempsey of Chateaufort, who is writing a story on Halton Junior Homemakers for their August issue.

At the same time, 70 Junior Farmers with Agricultural Representative J. E. Whitlock in charge, visited the following Trafalgar Township farmers: Percy Merry, Featherstone Bros., Graymar Farm, Valleycrest Farm and J. H. Willmott. In all, a total of 10 classes of outstanding livestock were judged by the 70 contestants. The official judges assisting J. E. Whitlock were as follows: J. H. Willmott, Milton; Robt. Miller, Georgetown; A. H. Martin, Assistant Director, Agric. Rep. Branch, Toronto; Elgin Senn, of the Federal Livestock Branch and Bruce Beer, Agric. Rep. for Peel County.

In the evening the announcement of the awards and presentation of prizes took place in the Milton Town Hall under the leadership of Geo. S. Atkins of the Halton Junior Farmers. The awards were as follows:
