PETER L KIRKNESS

During the Month A well-known and highly respected citizen of Acton, Peter L. Kirkness passed away on Monday, May 27th at the General Hospital in Guelph after a few weeks' tilness. He was in his seventy-fifth year.

Born near Stromness in the Orkney Islands, Peter Kirkness was a son of the late David and Katharine Kirkness. For over fifty years he was a on Monday evening. May 20th with faithful employee of Beardinore and Allison, daughter of Mr. Benson Co., first at Bracebridge and for the past twenty-two years, in Acton. His wife, Grace Elizabeth Allan predeceased him in 1937 and since + that time he has resided with his son, Reeve Chas and Mrs. Kirkness.

Peter Kirkness was a citisen of that rugged, straightforward type that are the backbone of any community. He had many loyal friends who admired his life and example. He attended the Presbyterian Church and the funeral service on Wednesday morning was conducted by his minister, Rev. Forbes Thomson.

He leaves three children to revere the memory and mourn the loss of a beloved father, Meretta of Kitchener; Reeve Chas. L. Kirkness of Acton and Ivan of Kitchener. Two brothers also remain, David of Toronto and John of Ever remembered by wife and Bracebridge. To all of these the sym-

PRETTY-JUNE WEDDING SATURDAY IN UNITED CHURCH AT BALLINAPAD

Ballinafad United Church was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Saturday, June 1st, when Rhoda Florence French, only daughter of Mr and Mrs. Donald Campbell and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. French, Eramosa, became the bride of William McClusky, son of Mr. and Mrs. McClusky of Smithville. The church was decorated with tulips and other garden flowers. The lovely little bride was gowned in white satin and floor length tulla veil with a fashioned headdress of lilies-of-the-valley and carried red roses. She entered the church on the arm of her stepfather, Mr. Donald Campbell, to wedding music played by Miss Marguerite Thompson. Her at tendants were little Mary Howitt of Fergus as flower girl in pale yellow, Miss Phyllis Craig, Guelph, maid of honor in peach and Miss Lillian Shortill as bridesmaid in blue. Each carried a nosegny of sweet peas and
