CAMPBELLVILLE

Mrs. A. C. McPhie was hostess to the W.M.S. on Thursday afternoon. The president, Mrs. Reid occupied the chair. Two minutes silence was observed in loving memory of the late Mrs. Agnes, who was laid to rest earlier in the afternoon. Mrs. A. McPhie led in the reading of the 23rd Psalm. The Welcome and Welfare Committee reported three calls had been made. The members were asked to bring in their gifts for the fall bazaar. A committee was appointed to make arrangements for the Diamond Jubilee of St. David's W.M.S. in October. The roll call was answered by using harvest as the text word. Prayer was offered by Miss Simpson. The High Young Women took charge of the program in the absence of the president. Miss Black, Mrs. J. S. Robertson conducted the part of the meeting. Miss Gertrude Holmes gave a reading "The Second Mile". Mrs. Robertson read a poem entitled "Adoration". Mrs. Robertson also gave a brief synopsis of the life of Caroline McDonald, the white angel of Tokyo. This story was very interesting as Miss MacDonald was an ardent Christian worker in Japan.

Mrs. Louie McKenna of Hamilton visited several friends in our village a few days last week.

Mrs. Raymond of Orillia is visiting at the home of her niece, Mrs. J. Peacock.

Little Tommy Elliot, who was quite sadly burned several days ago is convalescing very favorably in Milton Hospital.

Mrs. J. D. Wheelahan and children visited for a few days last week at the home of her parents in Brantford.

Messrs. R. B. Elliot and W. Bryant sang a very nice duet at the regular church service on Sunday afternoon. During the month of August a men's choir had charge of the service of praise with special music at every service.

Several from here attended the anniversary service in Christie Mission on Sunday evening. Rev. Mr. Marshall was the guest speaker. His theme was "Our Responsibilities."

BURLINGTON

Our community was enlivened by many Labor Day visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Penrose of Windsor, Miss Donna Zurek of Orillia, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Spicers of Hamilton were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Fraser.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. McGrogan, George and Mary Elizabeth of Milton, visited with Mrs. McGrogan's mother, Mrs. Turner over the week-end.

Mrs. Peter Smith and Pearl, Mrs. J. Drayton, Mrs. J. Selwood, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Brown, Misses Fern and Bertha Brown, Miss Nellie Williamson of Acton, Mrs. Isaac Adams, Ruth and Fred of Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. Ida Nave, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Edsforth and children of Ridgeway, Mr. John Kenney of Guelph, have been callers and guests at the home of Rev. and Mrs. C. L. Poole during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Elvey left on an extended motor trip across the province.

Mr. and Mrs. Henderson and children of Long Branch, spent the week-end with Mrs. Verne Campbell, Elvay and Mildred.

Mrs. Henry Donaven is visiting the members of her family in Hamilton and St. Catharines.

ROCKWOOD

The street dance under the auspices of the Junior Band and the Bowling Green which was slated for last Wednesday evening was postponed till the following evening, owing to rain interfering with the program. Just before rain fell, quite a number had gathered, then it was announced that all would go to the Town Hall for a time. The Old Time Fiddlers of Guelph provided the music. A good sum was realized for the two organizations.

Labor Day passed off quietly here. Holiday visitors who were noticed during the week-end included:

Mrs. George Adams of Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Comfort and son of Toronto. Mr. Comfort is a former principal of the Continuation School.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Greer and son of Hamilton.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Richardson and family of Vineland.

Mr. and Mrs. Gratton Barry were in Niagara Falls over the week-end.

Mrs. E. Nickell and daughter, Mrs. Morris, are spending some time in Toronto, and owing to Mrs. Nickell's sister, Mrs. Pollock, sustaining serious injuries due to a bad fall, they are remaining in the city. Miss Minnie Nickell was up during the week-end and Miss C. Campbell returned with her.

Word has been received that Rev. De McIvor and his wife are remaining in Ireland for another six months. Rev. F. Williamson will continue his ministry during their absence, at St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, Guelph, Eden Mills and Rockwood.

Schools reopened Tuesday. A slight change in the staff of the Continuation School is due to M. S. H. Moderwell of Stratford taking the vacancy caused by Miss C. Pismarek's resignation last June.

Miss Thomas Rosa returned home last week from her trip to the Pacific Coast for a holiday.

Turnip shipping is in full swing at the M. P. Barry and Co. warehouse. Miss M. Milroy left during the week-end for Northern Ontario where she taught school during the spring term last year.

MILTON

The August meeting of the Drumquhan W. L. was held at the home of Miss G. Featherstone, with 16 members present, 2 visitors and 1 new member enrolled. With the president Mrs. Cavanaugh in the chair.

The Roll Call was answered by some very interesting historical events. Final arrangements were made regarding the entries for the Milton Fair in which several will enter. The members received their Institute pins, the visible sign of being a member of that mighty band of workers.

Alliston Juveniles evened up the O.B.A. semi-final series by giving the locals their worst drubbing of the season. In the game played in their own backyard last Saturday, Alliston trimmed the boys 13-2 which wasn't as bad as the score against Alliston in the first game of the series.

Douglas Wilson, aged 9, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wilson, Main St., narrowly escaped serious injury Monday evening when playing on the road in front of his home, when he swerved his wagon in front of a car driven by Mr. Jack Hison of 38 Pine Ave., Oakville. According to Chief of Police Canning it was the quick judgment of Mr. Hison that saved the boy from being killed. The wagon was completely demolished. After being examined by Dr. Robert on it was found that Douglas was unharmed.

Men try to convert the world to their way of thinking, so they can continue undisturbed in their way of living.
