The traditional harvest services of the Church of England are being held this Thursday and Sunday in St. Alban's Anglican Church. The week-night service provides an opportunity for all members of the community to join in giving thanks for the blessings of the harvest. The special preacher will be a former rector of the parish, the Rev. E. Billinger of St. James Church in Guelph.

The Sunday services will be in charge of the Rev. E. H. Costigan of Christ Church, Niagara Falls. Mr. Costigan was a chaplain in the army overseas during the war and now has one of the busiest parishes in the diocese, we are fortunate that he will be with us on this special occasion.
