IN MEMORIAM

WEAVER In loving memory of a dear father and grandad who passed away September 28th, 1945. His weary hours and days of pain. His troubled nights are past. And in our aching hearts we know He has found sweet rest at last. Ever remembered by Jean, Harry and Muriel.

JONES In loving memory of my beloved daughter, Nora Jones, who died in Windsor, October 2, 1942. We shall meet her some bright morning. Resting by waters fair. She is waiting for our coming. In the upper garden there. Safe in the arms of Jesus. Ever remembered by Mother.

McNABB In loving memory of our son and brother, Neil Linklater McNabb, who was killed in England September 30th, 1945. His last parting wish we would like to have heard. And breathe in his ear our last parting word. Only those who have lost are able to tell. The pain in the heart is not saying farewell. Mother, Father, Beata and Colin.

This and that

- Acton Fair next week.

Mrs. Archie Kentner was the winner of the doll on Recognition Day in the draw of the Legion Auxiliary.

Doesn't seem possible but Friday and Saturday of next week are Acton Fair Days.

Acton Fair Prize Lists are available at Talbot's and Symon's Hardware Stores and the Free Press Office as well as from the Secretary.

A Canadian National Railways engine breakdown at Parkdale station in Toronto Tuesday caused an hour's delay in train schedules and mail here.

On Saturday night a hit and run motorist crashed into Councillor Benson's car as it was parked on Knox Avenue. Damage resulting was approximately $50.

A unique potato brought in by W. F. Ever last week had a sprout not only grown through a hole in the neck but had passed the black top of the bottle for a cap on the second section of the spud.

We're sorry that for the past few weeks we have been unable to supply the demand for extra copies of the Free Press. Paper shortage is one trouble and the circulation of Acton's paper is higher now than for many years.

The heavy shower in the evening interfered with the concert arranged and started by the Lorne Scots Band. But the rain had hardly stopped until an all-female band from somewhere paraded the Main Street and led the crowd to the park. The Lorne Scots Band returned on Tuesday night and gave their concert in the Park Pavilion.

Light on the lot at 8:30 the first being announced an unusually fine display of fireworks and there was a big crowd on hand to enjoy them. A dance in the park pavilion with Bob Martin's orchestra drew a crowd of dancers and spectators which jammed the place to the doors.

'The Davies' Are Coming To Acton

Four Stars in a Four Star Concert

NOBLE DAVIE, Baritone
"Noble Davie's resonant baritone was at its best in 'Largo al Factotum' The Paisley Advocate.

VERA HENDERSON DAVIE, Musical Director
"The accompaniments were sympathetic and skilful." The Paisley Advocate.

FRANCES DAVIE, mezzo-soprano
"Miss Frances Davie, mezzo-soprano, sang most beautifully in the different numbers in which she took part, showing great talent and ability." The Harrison Review.

NELLES DAVIE, Bass
"Nelles Davie's rich basso voice was heard with wonderful effect in a variety of songs. He completely captivated his audience."

"The Davies", Canada's newest concert personalities, who have triumphed in their recent Ontario tour, are now coming to Acton under the auspices of Acton United Church. "The Davies" have been acclaimed by critics everywhere, including Edward Wodson of the Toronto Evening Telegram, who wrote of their Georgetown appearance: "Three beautiful individual voices, not a forced or quavering tone amongst them. A mezzo-soprano mellow as the thrush and limpid as the nightingale. A baritone of John Charles Thomas range and sympathy. A bass-register, Vera Henderson Davie, at the piano, was a miniature so cavernous as Paul Robeson's, with tenor timber in topmost orchestra without orchestral distraction."

These four talented artists will appear at
Acton United Church
MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 30th
AT 8 P. M.
