"My Week"

BY E. J. DEACIMAN

I have a grandson about seven years old who has a chum who is eight. The chum had the hiccup the other day and my daughter-in-law thinking in her kindness to cure them said: "Come over here and I will give you a glass of water to take away the hiccup." "No thank you," he said, "I like them."

There are a good many people in Canada who are like that boy. They like to see things happen but they failed to see that they would be the sufferers in the end.

We are just beginning to harvest the fruit of many wage increases and they are more or less unpleasant. There was a very distinct and positive howl made when the price of agricultural implements went up. The net result of that was an increase in farm operating costs. Then followed an increase in the price of milk and the barking was on the other side of the street. The people who paid the price did the kicking. They could stand increases which fell on others but when personally affected they were distinctly vocal.

Now another instance looms largely on the horizon. For sometime the railway wage rates have been moving up. The cost of materials used by the railways has increased sharply, are likely to continue to increase, the result will be higher freight rates affecting our export market, affecting cost of production in Canada, probably increasing our rates. A freight rate increase is a basic rate. It is something which affects all the people of the nation.

But will you tell us what can be done about it? If costs rise so will prices. The temporary gains which one group receives are soon lost in the general price advance. I think I am safe in saying that a general wage increase has never increased the total earnings of labor any time in Canadian history. On the other hand a reduction in the price of products can be very effective in the promotion of prosperity. This occurs when the reduction takes place through technological change which lowers cost of production and permits a lowering of price and thus an expansion of markets.

There is one thing on which we should keep a steady eye, the relationship between the price of farm products and the price of manufactured products. Higher prices of farm products and higher general increases in wage rates may not produce any noticeable effect, but the greatest danger we face today is the prospect of possible reductions in price of farm products within the next few years. I said "possible," I might almost have written "certain." When, and if, that happens, there will be marked distortion in earning power. The cost of living will fall, wages will remain high, the price of farm products will be low and cost of production high. When that movement starts it will be the signal for hard times. It is the one problem to which we should now give our closest attention. It should receive the consideration of statesmen, farmers, labor leaders and all those who have an interest in the ultimate welfare of the nation. It is the biggest danger confronting the next four or five years. It will call for courage and breadth of mind — balance in the economic life of the nation is always an essential asset.

NASSAGAWEYA

R. S. No. 7

The November meeting of the Busy Bees Club was held at the home of the president, Mrs. C. E. Davenport. Roll call showed 13 members and three guests attending. Quilting was arranged for following week. A wreath was to be placed on the Nassagaweya cenotaph at service on November 11. A quilt was to be given a family who lost their home by fire. A donation of $15.00 was to be sent Christie St. Hospital and $15.00 to Evening Telegram Santa Claus Fund. Mrs. Stephen Cook offered her home for December meeting.

A pleasant change from the usual took place when our third week leader, Mrs. Arthur Davenport was honored. Mrs. Stan Robinson read an address of welcome to our country and community and wishes of success and happiness to our new adventures into country and matrimony and Mrs. Will Kennedy, on behalf of the Club presented her with a quilt in fancy pink pattern of blue and white, a pair of Pequot slippers and pillow case of the same and hand embroidered. Although taken by surprise, she thanked the Club for all the gifts and took of her pleasure in starting the boxes packed for her and Arthur over seas. Mrs. W. Kennedy sponsored a vote of thanks to the hostess for the use of her home and the lovely lunch served.

Mrs. Fred Davis of Port Nelson spent Sunday with her brother, Ben Davis.

Mr. Ben Davis has taken up farming, having rented Mr. Lawrence King's farm.

Mr. George Service has returned after spending a week with his brother, Mr. Alex Service, who has bought a farm at Orangeville.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Harris and children, Toronto, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence King over the week end.

Mrs. Joseph Frank held a Busy Bee quilting on Tuesday last.

No. 7 friends of Mr. and Mrs. Mervyn Yalaky, Ottawa, send them congratulations upon the arrival of a son.

Congratulations also to the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McCaskey, Acton.

This community was saddened last week when they learned of the death of one of their most respected neighbors, Mrs. Dan Talbot, who because of poor health had been staying with her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hindley. She was in her 91st year. Neighbors celebrated her 80th birthday with her and enjoyed it so much that each year up to the last year was celebrated with her in her home.

She was dear to the members of the Busy Bees. She opened her home for quiltings for two summers at the convenience of the club and her clever fingers were constantly busy making quilt blocks and quilt tops. Besides this her educated, broadened and active mind was an inspiration to all. Although she rarely left her home for anything else, she was a member of Ebenezer Church. Your correspondent is not familiar with the family except one son, Mr. Alf Talbot, who shared their home together, but sympathy is expressed from this community to all those who have, we know, lost a dearly beloved mother.

Last Monday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Frank gave their home for the forum. 18 attended and after listening to the radio broadcast, divided into two groups. Last night's forum was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stan Robinson with twenty-one attending. Arrangements were made to attend a meeting in Milton High School Auditorium on Friday evening.

There was a good attendance at Brookville Hall last Thursday evening at a Federation meeting to elect new officers for the year. Progressive euchre was enjoyed for the first part of the evening. When the meeting opened for business a lively and interesting discussion on obtaining transportation from Nassagaweya took up most of the time and resulted in Mr. Wilfred Kennedy, Mr. Andrew Frank, Mr. Robt. Anderson and Mr. Frank Rhinehart being appointed as a committee from the Federation to contact proper authorities and use all their strength to obtain this much needed help toward the children receiving an education.

Mr. and Mrs. Stan Robinson gave a chicken dinner for about fifty guests on the occasion of the birthday of Mr. Robinson's mother, Mrs. Margaret Robinson, Ancestor, and Mrs. Robinson's grandmother, Mrs. Sarah Graham, Caledon East. Friends from Hamilton, Brampton, Milton, Acton, Georgetown and Caledon attended.

Friends of Mrs. Thos. Kennedy will be sorry to hear she is under the doctor's care.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Diamond had their son, Edwin James christened at St. John's Anglican Church on Sunday last.

Mrs. Jas. Newells suffered a heart attack but the latest reports are that she is resting nicely.

Mr. Roy Balleatine, who went out on the Harvest Excursion to Carstairs Alberta, returned home on Wednesday.

A social evening was held in the Ebenezer United Church on Monday evening with a large gathering present. A program of games and contests was enjoyed first after which Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Allen were invited to chairs placed for them and Mrs. Elias Lasterbrook read an address to them and at the proper time Mr. Harlan Wilson made the presentation of an electric floor lamp. Both Mr. and Mrs. Allen made very feeling replies, thanking all for the kind words and beautiful gift. Lunch was served by the ladies and a social time was spent.

The Blossom Farm Forum group met in No. 9 School on Monday evening with a good attendance. After the program on the radio, the No. 9 school teacher and pupils put on a short program, followed by progressive euchre and the ladies provided a delectable lunch and social time ended the meeting.

BRANCH 197 NEWS

Let's have a 100% attendance for the next general meeting at the Legion Hall December 2nd, when the new Executive will be elected.

And about visiting veterans in the hospital, it has been suggested that between now and Christmas, comrades who happen to be in the vicinity of a hospital, might look in on fellow Legionnaires and leave a few of the cigarettes purchased from some of the Poppy funds. It would be a help to prospective visitors, if names of hospital patients with address were submitted to the Executive.

Repairs are to be made to the basement of the Legion building with a view to building a larger recreation room and washroom facilities. Suggestions from all members will be appreciated as it is hoped there will be a full discussion of the building problem.

Incidentally, so as to be prepared against further power shortages, do any local legionnaires have the old Coleman or Alladin Lamp?

It is a lot disconcerting to be in the midst of a bingo or cribbage game and find darkness. A little emergency lighting would help the situation.

Another reminder about the proposed Christmas concert for veterans' children. Generous co-operation from every member will be required if the entertainment is to be as successful as planned. Contact Comrades Al Kirkness or Gordon Cook as to how you can help.

Special words of commendation to Comrades John Lecker, George Muselle, Fred Wright, Bill Middleton and all concerned for conducting a successful Poppy Campaign, and for arranging the Remembrance Day display.

WOULD BAN REPORTERS

SASKATOON (CP) Newspaper reporters should not attend hospital board meetings because they tend to over-emphasize controversial questions, Dr. Harvey Agnew, secretary of the Canadian Hospital Council, told the Saskatchewan Hospital Association convention. "I know the press is usually fair and will soft pedal when requested, but the public loves controversy and the press feels it must react accordingly," he added.

OAKVILLE

On the northern fringe of town, just south of the Queen Elizabeth Way on Dundas St., is Dominion Pottery Ltd., another of Oakville's young industries.

Mrs. C. I. Brown, provincial co-ordinator of the Second War Memorial Fund and guest speaker at the November meeting of the White Oak Chapter, gave a comprehensive picture of the War Memorial Fund and what it hopes to accomplish.

The Angela Bruce Chapter's new opportunity shop on Kendall Street near Bay St. opened its doors to the public on Thursday afternoon last.

This building was acquired by the chapter from the War Assets Corporation and moved to its present location through the generosity of the King Family Co. The site was made available by the estate of the late Walter Harland Smith. Record-87.
