The week's meeting of the Radio Farm Forum met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Davenport with an attendance of fourteen that stayed in one group for discussion on "Commodity Agreements and Cartels." Question 1: What are the important differences between commodity agreements and cartels, was answered after discussion that cartels were minimum prices set by producers for home markets and commodity agreements were made for export purposes. Question 2: The 1946 wheat agreement between Canada and Great Britain sacrifices the opportunity of selling at higher prices now for the assurance of stabilized prices the next four years. Is this a sound principle? The group answered Yes. The reasons were given. It was better to know your position for producing wheat than to have higher prices now and drastically lower prices when world production approached normalcy.

Today is one of those days when you can imagine a feather tick is being emptied from the sky in a softly blowing breeze. It is really snowing. We hope it covers the icy roads enough to avoid accidents.

MOFFAT

Our community was greatly shocked by the tragic happening at the home of Mr. Andrew Laing, when the roof of a barn caved in with the heavy weight of snow and ice, and trapped little Billie, crushing him into the snow.

The fallen timbers were so heavy that it was impossible to lift them from the unfortunate boy with the help that was available. The mother who witnessed the accident, along with the other son, Leonard, was unable to release Billie, was herself stricken with grief and shock and passed away within a few hours. A double funeral was held, at Eden Mills Presbyterian Church, where a large crowd gathered to express their sorrow and sympathy for the father and family, as mother and son were laid to rest.

Services in the Community Church have been discontinued for the present on account of the weather and the slippery condition of the roads.

CAMPBELLVILLE

Campbellville community was shocked this week by the sudden death of a very respected citizen, Rev. H. W. A. Brand, husband of the late Henrietta Blair, last Friday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Ross Carbert, of this village. He was in his 81st year and his wife predeceased him 18 months ago.

Rev. Mr. Brand was educated at St. John's Hall, Highbury, England, and on coming to Canada he spent six years at a Manitoba charge, coming east he had charges at Nanticoke, York, Elora, Campbellville and Erin. Since leaving Erin he has spent four years at his daughter's home here. Left to mourn are three daughters, Mrs. Ross Carbert of Campbellville, Mrs. Ronald Paige of Niagara Falls and Mrs. George Rolston of Grimsby; one son, Mr. Archie Brand of Hamilton, also one brother, Mr. Albert Brand of Pontiac, Michigan. Funeral services were held on Tuesday afternoon, private, with Rev. J. C. Jackson and Rev. Allan Hill of St. Catharines officiating, thence to St. George's Anglican Church, Lovellville, where Rural Dept. Headquarters of Burlington and the Rt. Rev. Broughall, Bishop of Niagara, assisted with the service. Rev. S. A. Kirk of Hamilton was also present. Pallbearers were Messrs. Ed. Mahon, Frank Bill, Harvey Blacklock, John Blacklock, Roy Ellenton and Cameron Winn. Interment was made in the adjoining cemetery.

A quiet wedding was solemnized at the rectory in Campbellville, at the home of Rev. Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Jackson, on Saturday afternoon at 3 p.m. when Rev. Mr. Eakins of Milton officiated in uniting in marriage Miss Muriel Pearl Small, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Small, R.R. 2, Campbellville, to Mr. Earl Stokes, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Stokes, R.R. 2, Campbellville. The bride wore a brown crepe dress with brown accessories and carried Tallman roses. Bridesmaid was the sister of the groom, Miss Mae Stokes in a brown suit and brown accessories and carried Tallman roses. Mr. Harold Dennis was best man. A reception for twenty guests was held at the home of the bride's parents, where they will reside.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Watson, who sold their farm to Mr. and Mrs. Cameron Watson recently, have purchased the home of Mrs. Robt. Shields in Kilbride, and will move early in the spring.

The Blair Young Women's Auxiliary had their January meeting at the home of Mrs. A. C. McPhee. Miss Black, the retiring president, took charge of the opening exercises with Miss Sheila Tehenny reading the Scripture lesson. The annual reports of the Secretary and Treasurer were given and showed activity with this small group. After the installation of the officers for 1947, Mrs. Wm. Mahon, the new president, took charge. A brief report of the Guelph Presbyterian meeting was given by Mrs. Menzies. The closing chapter "Looking to the Future" in the study book was given by Mrs. Mahon. The roll call was answered by the payment of the fees. The offering was dedicated by Miss Evelyn Elliot who also read a letter of appreciation from one of the members who had received a small gift while the Society expressed thanks to Miss Black for her loyalty and devotion to this work during her years as president. The hostess served dainty refreshments and a pleasant time was enjoyed by those who were present.

Four ladies from the W. M. S. attended the Presbyterian meeting held in St. Andrew's Church, Guelph. Mrs. A. R. McMurrich, of Toronto, was the guest speaker. Surviving are his wife, formerly Florence Bullivant, one daughter, Mrs. W. J. McDonald, (Ethel) of Georgetown and two sons, Gordon of Georgetown and Clarence of Acton. There are fourteen grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. -Herald.

BUCKO'S KEEN PROVISION FOR AN EMERGENCY

The editor of the Burks Falls Arrow prints the following story at the expense of Bucko McDonald, M. P. for Parry Sound. The story was told at a recent Lion's meeting at Gravenhurst.

Prime Minister Mackenzie King appeared at the party gates seeking admission. The attendant asked him how many lies he had told during his life. The Premier, surprisingly admitted one. He was told to row around a lake once, in atonement.

R. B. Bennet upon seeking admission, was asked the same question. He admitted generously, nine lies. Nine times around the lake was his penalty.

It then became Bucko's turn. He overheard the sentences and started away. Checked, and asked where he was going he promptly replied: "Just to get an outboard motor."

PICTURE OF MONTH COMING TO GREGORY THEATRE ON MONDAY

A. J. Cronin's "The Green Years" will be the feature on Monday night at the Gregory Theatre here, featuring Charles Coburn, Tom Drake, Beverly Tyler, Hume Cronyn, Gladys Cooper, Dean Stockwell and Richard Haydn.

In "The Green Years" you'll remember the character of young Robert Shannon—handsome, sensitive, fighting a hostile world. And then in a hushed and darkened theatre, Robert Shannon will stand before you the living image of what we had envisioned. And Allison, Robert's sweetheart, loveliest of all heroines. And Grandfather Gow, as rollicking a rogue as ever caroused across the screen. And with them a whole galaxy of fascinating characters.
