

SPRING RETURNS

Swinging through the void of space, Earth has turned her northern face...

Beauty is stirring in her bed. She was pretending to be dead; Cressida and Hippolyta...

Overhead the "carrion" crows. Seams the shimmering waste of snow. Mocking winter in retreat...

All the feather'd tribes are coming. And the bees will soon be humming. In and out among the flowers...

ERIN

On Friday evening of last week Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Justice entertained a few friends and relatives...

Hundreds of Orangeville hockey fans, as well as the local team, spent a cold, uncomfortable Saturday night...

Two bus loads of fans and players and 20 cars loaded with hockey enthusiasts were stalled on their way back from Waterloo, where Orangeville won the Junior C group championship...

MILTON

Train service on the C.P.R. main line was suspended late Sunday afternoon for about three hours...

Mayor Cowland reported that Councilor's Korrington and himself had visited the Unemployment Insurance office in Weston...

Spring Improvements Already Under Way

Low-Cost Loans Aid Forward-Looking Farmers

For many a progressive farmer, Spring is the time for putting into effect plans to make his farm more productive and more profitable.

Hundreds of Canadian farmers looking for ready money to finance such improvements, have found the answer in a Farm Improvement Loan from the Bank of Montreal.

Do you want to repair or extend your farm buildings, buy a new separator or refrigeration pump, install a better drainage system...

Mr. Clayton, manager of the local branch, will be glad to discuss your plans with you. You will find he understands a farmer's problems...

Holstein Club and Milk Producers Have Great Program

The fame of the program put on jointly each year by the Holstein Breeders' Club and the Holstein Milk Producers' Association has become well-known.

The program this year will further enhance that respect for quality. There wasn't a dull moment in the show and the variety had something for every entertainment taste.

For instrumental numbers, Bonnie Silverton and a fine accordion player introduced as Margaret are a team that are hard to equal.

In the oratorical department, Rev. K. Holland of Olivet Baptist Church was a charming speaker.

"A Romance of Scotland" was one which he gave with a familiarity and a dexterity that won the Irish and English of the audience over the head of his brother with a fine appreciation.

An added attraction was a lucky number drawing with the No. 261 held by Mrs. Peter Prentation of the prize was made by Mr. Cooper.

Appreciation was expressed to Mr. Nelson for making the theatre available and to Bert Jones and Son for the flowers for the theatre stage.

NAVIGATION

An anxious old lady on a river steamer approached the captain. "Would you tell me if this boat is going up or down?" "Well madam, she's pulled by life, the boiler is bad so we may go up. On the other hand she's a leaky old tub so we might easily go down."
