NASSAGAWEYA

There was a large gathering of the neighbors and friends of Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay Ferguson in Bloomsbury School on Saturday evening to honor their son Donald Alexander Ferguson and his bride on their recent marriage. Progressive refreshments were served and the evening was followed by dancing for a while. There was a mock presentation which caused quite a lot of fun. Alex. Near as chairman called Mr. and Mrs. Donald Ferguson to chairs placed for them and Mr. Ross Gordon read an address, and at the proper time, Messrs. C. J. VanLoon, Alex. Near and Wallace Lasby made the presentation of two occasional chairs and a magazine stand. Mr. Donald Ferguson made a fitting reply thanking all for their beautiful gifts.

ROCKWOOD

The evangelistic services conducted by Rev. Thos. Guthrie of York Road Baptist Church, Guelph, came to a conclusion Friday evening with a good attendance. A number were present from Guelph. During the evening services last week good music and singing were enjoyed by those present. Sunday afternoon Mr. Thomas of Toronto, who has been assisting Rev. Thos. Guthrie, conducted a service in the Town Hall, and he was ably assisted by a nine piece orchestra who contributed some splendid music which added much to the service. Mr. Thom is going to continue Sunday afternoon services in the Town Hall for some time.

Despite unfavorable weather last Wednesday, the Rockwood Women's Institute held a successful 50th Anniversary Tea in the Presbyterian Church. The basement was nicely arranged for the occasion with the Institute ribbon colors and bouquets around the room. A two tiered cake graced the table, surrounded by candles. A brief program was held in the auditorium during the afternoon.

Besides the local members and nearby guests, who signed their names, the following names appeared on the register: Mrs. R. H. Sanderson, Simcoe; Mrs. L. Nichol, Simcoe; Mrs. Wm. Bridger, Simcoe; Mrs. A. Cantelon, Campbellville; Mrs. L. Crawford Mrs. G. Crossan, Mrs. S. Hume, Puslinch; Mrs. Robt. VanNorman, Acton; Mrs. R. P. McWilliams, Guelph; Mrs. D. Bayne, Guelph; Mrs. N. S. Anderson, Stoney Creek; Mrs. Wm. J. Peal, Guelph; Mrs. J. Alton, Everton.

Mr. L. Nichol, of Simcoe, remained in town for a brief visit following the Anniversary Tea.

Mrs. Arch. McNabb is spending some time with her mother, Mrs. George Young at Ashgrove. Mrs. Young is in her 96th year.

Miss Edith Royce, R. N., of Toronto, in company with her father, Mr. Stewart Royce, attended the graduation exercises of Guelph General Hospital nurses last week.

Following a brief illness, as a result of a stroke a week ago Sunday, Mrs. E. M. Kruger, of Rockwood, passed away in Guelph General Hospital last Thursday. The late Mrs. Kruger was in her 77th year and was predeceased by her husband, Wm. F. Kruger, of Chicago, some 15 years ago.

The funeral took place Monday with a brief service at her late home, Fairview Farm, where Rev. E. A. Pulker was in charge and was followed by service in St. John's Church Rev. F. Brillingier, a former pastor, assisted in the service. During the service Miss Leona Gibb sang "Pass me not O Gentle Saviour." Mrs. Kruger is survived by two brothers and six sisters. A brother Fred predeceased her two years ago. Surviving members of the Hamilton family are: Ernest, of Toronto; Charles, Rockwood; Mrs. S. H. Black, Mrs. G. W. Peal, Miss Ethel at home, Rockwood; Mrs. E. P. Westmann, San Francisco, Cal.; Miss Irene Hamilton, Chicago, Ill.; Mrs. W. W. Pett, Aldershot, Ont.

Interment took place in Eden Mills Cemetery, Rev. E. A. Pulker officiating at the committal. Pallbearers were Ernest and James Bonham, Keith Hamilton, Hamilton Peal, Robert and James Hamilton, all of Rockwood; Robert Hamilton, of Toronto; Henry Baugher, Brantford.

As a result of heavy rains Sunday and Monday, the river was nearly up to spring freshet level.

Mrs. Alex. Scott and children of Fort Erie are on a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Peal.

EVERTON

Mrs. Ted Justin visited on Friday with her sister, Mrs. M. Milne, Rockwood.

BALLINAFAD

Rev. Mr. Flindell preached Anniversary Services at Lowville on Sunday. Rev. Mr. Carter took the services here and gave a very interesting address taking as his text, Romans 1 and 16: "For I am not ashamed of the Gospel of Christ."

Mrs. Wm. McKay and Jessie and Miss Roberts of Toronto spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Alex. McKay.

A shower was held in Ballinafad Hall on Friday night when Brisbane and Ballinafad Communities united to honor Miss Blanche Delaney and Mr. Jimmy Miller on their approaching marriage. Mr. Jack Ferguson acted as chairman for a short program consisting of duets by Mr. and Mrs. E. McEnery; solos by Mr. Sid Spear and readings by Mrs. Gillespie. Blanche and Jim were then called to the front and Mrs. Gordon Price read an address and many beautiful gifts were presented them. The remainder of the evening was spent in dancing.

A PRETTY WEDDING IN EDEN MILLS PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Eden Mills Presbyterian Church, decorated with baskets of tulips and narcissus was the scene of a pretty wedding on Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock, when Jean Kilgour Robertson, Eden Mills, became the bride of Gordon Elmer Aitken, elder son of Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Aitken, Harriston. The Rev. Fred Williamson, minister of the church, performed the ceremony.

The bride who was given in marriage by her father wore a wedding gown of white brocade velour with train, and sweetheart neckline and long sleeves, coming to points at the wrists. She wore a sweetheart head-dress with fingertip veil, and carried a bouquet of red roses, baby's breath and fern, and she wore the gift of the groom a cameo pendant.

Mrs. W. J. McKnight was her sister's matron of honor, wearing a floor length dress of blue net over taffeta, with sweetheart neckline and puffed matching shoulder length veil and halo of yellow roses and blue gloves. She carried a bouquet of yellow roses, baby's breath and fern.

Miss Helen Aitken, sister of the groom was bridesmaid, wearing a floor length dress of pink net over taffeta, with sweetheart neckline and matching shoulder length veil and halo of blue carnations and pink gloves. She carried a bouquet of pink roses, baby's breath and fern.

Miss Joan Coulson, was flower girl, wearing a long dress of blue net over angel-skin trimmed with pink ribbons and wore a halo of pink carnations and she carried a nosegay of sweet peas and baby's breath. She wore the bride's gift of a gold locket.

Mr. Alvin James Struthers, acted as best man and the ushers were Mr. Wilfred Clark and Mr. Gordon Robertson, brother of the bride.

The wedding music was played by Mrs. Wm. Early and during the signing of the register, Mrs. Wm. McLean sang "Till Walk Beside You."

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the basement of the church. Mrs. Robertson received the guests in a dress of lime crepe with which she wore black accessories and in corsage of red roses. She was assisted by the groom's mother, Mrs. Aitken, wearing a dress of grey crepe with matching hat and black gloves and a corsage of red roses.

The bride's table was centered with a three tiered wedding cake and pink and white candles in silver holders, and the basement was beautifully decorated with pink and white streptococcus, tulips, narcissus and evergreens. During the reception a telegram of congratulations was read from the bride's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Quinn of Fort William.

The bride's gift to her attendants, organist and soloist was a brooch and matching earrings and a gold locket and the groom's gift to the best man and ushers were a Parker Pen.

For the wedding trip to Fort William the bride chose a grey gabardine suit with pink blouse and black accessories and she carried a black shorty coat and wore a corsage of red roses. On their return they will live in Guelph. Guests were present from Harriston, Eden, Everton, Bridgport, Fergus, Toronto, Guelph, Georgetown, Acton and Eden Mills.

JUNIOR FARMERS AND NEIGHBORS HONOR YOUNG COUPLE

On Thursday evening, May 22nd, fellow Junior Farmers and neighbors gathered at Lorne School to honor Jack Stewart and Bunny Anderson on their approaching marriage. After a short business session Mr. Bert Davidson was chairman for the following program. Piano solo by Eileen McLane; guitar and vocal selections by Sid Spears.

Then an hilarious mock wedding was performed to the tune of "The Devil's Dream" played on the violin and piano by Mansel Meigs and Ralph McGeown. The blushing bride, Harold McIntyre was robed in a painted, seersucker housecoat with matching veil and carried a bouquet of artificial flowers. The wedding room, Jenn Harris, was dragged in and chained by Fyfe Somerville and Kerwin McPhail. Ken Allan very ably performed the ceremony for a paltry fee of $2.98.

Jack and Bunny were called to the front and Ray Ewerdell read an address on behalf of the Junior Farmers and neighbors. After opening the beautiful gifts with which they were presented, the young couple both made fitting replies expressing their thanks. Several of those present made speeches. Lunch was served and dancing followed.
