Time. -639-621 B. C. Pince. Jerusalem.

King. To get the full scriptural setting, read all of chapter 22 to 23; 21. Manassch began to reign over the kingdom of Judah at an early age and reigned badly., Josiah began to reign lover the same kingdom at a still earller age and reigned well. "Woe 'o thee, O land, when thy king is .. s child," wrote the wise man (Eccl. 10: 16), and taken as a general principle this is true. But Josiah was an exception to the rule and to the application of the general principle. What the earlier influences were, which led Josiah-to-follow-a-totally-different line of conduct than that pursued by his wicked father and grandfather we are not told. But further on in life, it was the discovery of the long- Guernsey Helfer, with calf 3 months lost law of God that led to the larger old; 1 Part Guernsey Cow, due time reformation in the kingdom. The prophets Jere- stein Helfer. Calves, under 1 yr old; migh and Zephaniah flourished in 3 Geurnsey-Heifer Calves, under 1 Josiah's time (Jer. 1: 2; Zeph. 1: 1). Doubtless they, and especially Jereminh, had a large influence over the pigs 6 weeks old. king. 'Of few of Judah's kings is it recorded that "They did that which was right in the eyes of the Lord" (ch. 14: 2; 17: 3; 29; 2), but it is so written_of_losinh. II. Restoring the House of

At twenty years of age: Josiah took reformation. He began with his own etc. city and nation, but carried on his work into Manasseh, Ephraim, Simeon and Naphtali. Hezeklah carried his work, of reform into Ephraim and ployed at the carpenter trade, Manasseh (2 Chron. 30: 1, 10, 11; 31: 1), but Josiah carried-his reformation even further, and apparently more successfully (2 Kl. 23: 15-20), and did not return to Jefusalem until he had finished his work. At twenty-six years of age, Josiah undertook the restoration of the temple. It was a national undertaking. III. The Power of the Word, 22: 10,

But the great event in the life and reign of Josiah was the re-discovery of the Law of the Lord, -The manusoript was found by Hilldah in the temple, and, presumably, was the very one written by Moses (Deut. 31: 24-26). The supposition of the destructive critics that the so-called law of Moses was invented at this time, and that there was no discovery of a manuscript hitherto existing, is without foundation in fact. Why? There are fifteen places in the Old Testament that mention "the law of Moses" and the "book of Moses", but this is the only occasion of which it is written that the book of the law was by the hand of Moses Presumably, there were other copies of the law extant in the land, and probably Josiah had seen such copies, but had never read them with any fullness or care. How "the law of God" could become-a-forgotten-book will never be ensily understood, nevertheless the truth and fact remain that they had forgotten both Jehovah and His word But-Hilkinh found the book of the law mend it on to others and so began the work of a great reform. Shaphan played an important part in the reformation by reading God's word to Josiah. The first-effect-of-tho-reading of God's Word to the King was to awaken within him conviction of sin (v. 19). Having been convicted of sin by the Word Josiah seeks to know the will of Jehovah. In those days, the prophet of God was depended upon to discover and reveal the mind of the Lord (v. 22; Ex. 18:15; 1 Sam. 9:9; 1 Ki 22:5-7; Jer. 21:2, Ezek. 14:1; 20: 1-7). In this dispensation, it is our privilege to be directly taught by the Spirit through the Word (Jno. 14:26; 16:13, 14; 1 Jno. 2:20, 27, Jas. 1:5-7). IV The Great Revival in Jerusalem and Judah, 23:1-5, 21. Having leaarned the will of Jehovah and being convinced of the sincerity of His Word, King Josiah undertook the execution of that will, with all his heart. He began with the leaders of the people, but he left none out of the rank-and-file. "Both small and great" were to hear the Word. Josiah began his reformation by teaching the whole people "all the words of the book." What a sight! A king-rending all the words of the law of Jehoyah, to his assembled people! Having acquninted the people with God's law-as revealed in His own Word, he, first of all, made a covenant before the Lord, in the presence of all the people. He covenanted to do three things: (1) "To walk after the Lord." (2) "To keep His commandments and his teslimonies and His statutes;" no part of the Word was to be neglected, and, furthermore, he agreed to do all this "with all his heart and soul;" There was to be no half-way business here. (3) "To perform the words of the covenant which are written in this book." Haaving first got right with God himself, he caused the whole of his people to get right, also; and the inhabitants of Jerusalem did according to the covenant of God.

HE'LL NEED FORESTS TOO!

If you look to the bush country for recreation or business, you'll realize how much it will mean to the youngsters of today if you help to save the forests for tomorrow. Above all, protect the forests from fire.

Ontario has been abundantly blessed with natural resources, which, if not properly protected, can be quickly exhausted. Every year, for example, thousands of acres of trees are destroyed because someone is not careful with fire.

Forests mean much more than a pleasant place to holiday . : 1 an attraction for tourists . . . shelter for game animals and fishing haunts. They mean more than a source of lumber and paper products, and jobs for thousands of people, vital as these are to national welfare.

Climate is tempered—extremes prevented—by forest ateas. They store water too-help to keep rivers and streams from dangerous and costly flooding in spring time. They spread the flow of water more evenly through the year. That means they help to ensure a year-round supply of Hydro power for you.

Protect the forests. They serve you well.

SOME WAYS TO BE CAREFUL ABOUT FIRE

- · Break each match in two before you throw it away.
- · Be sure your discarded cigarette is really out.
- · Keep camp fires small, and always in a safe place. · Before you leave, put the fire DEAD OUT with water.
