GIVE THE BOOT

Turn to the world a shining face, There are sail hearts overywhere; The smile that you give may help some one to live-May help somebody's burden

Lend, your weak brother a helping Though he stumble again and alide,

Let your patience be long as becometh the strong. And deep as the ocean-tide.

Give to the world the best you have. And the best will come back to 'Midat life's weary thiong lift your voice in song.

And its echoes will cleave the blue.

THE REPRESENTATION OF THE Anyone walking into Acton Park of an evening would have no trouble at all deciding what Acton's most popular game is in the summer time. The Intermediate Baseball Diamond, without a doubt, is the best in this part of the country, especially since a new back stop has been installed with the one side open, giving a runner coming in from third base a measure of safety by not getting tangled up in the screening. The softball diamond is a busy which is made up of five teams. A softball league of this type not only provides interest from the spectator angle but gives those taking part, an activity which provides them with their spare time recreation.

Down at the other end of the park. haseball diamond is being set up for boys who are very anxious to play, the game. These boys come under the age groups of Bantam and Pee-Wee. Since the size of the dlamond for these boys, must be smaller than the present Intermediate one, it was felt one should be provided for them. It also gives them the opportunity to play at all times.

Acton Tennis Club are away to a good senson of "swat" or courting that little white ball over the net. Their opening night was a success and the committee have made plans for a series of round robin tournaments and club matches. The first of Hay: 500 bus, Cartier-Oats. these matches will take place on Tuesday, June 17, when the home team will play host to the Preston Tennis Club. A number of improvements have been made in the appearance of the club and the grounds. so if you feel in the mood that night. come up to the tennis court and watch the home team try for their first win of the season.
