GEORGETOWN

Harry Savings of Georgetown was installed as District Deputy Grand Master of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows; district No. 33. Last Thursday afternoon a delegation from the High School Board and Council, composed of chairman M. H. Moyer, secretary Walter T. Evans, Archdeacon W. G. O. Thompson and Mayor Joseph Gibbons went to Toronto for an interview with the Department of Education. The interview had been arranged by Stan Hill, M.P.P., who also attended the meeting. The local delegation were somewhat disappointed as they had hoped to have a hearing before the Minister and Deputy Minister of Education. Instead, they saw Mr. Duffen, who is in charge of allocating school grants. Inspector W. J. Stewart also sat in on the meeting which developed into another round table discussion on the controversial north Halton school district question.—Herald.

THE THOMPSON-GRIFFIN JUNE WEDDING AT HOME OF BRIDE

A beautiful lawn wedding took place on Wednesday, June 18th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Griffin, Erin, when their only daughter, Sarah Eleanor became the bride of William Henry, second son of Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Thompson of Acton. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. O. W. Foreman of Ponsby at three o'clock.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride entered under an arch of evergreen and flags, banked with spring flowers, pink and white streamers and a large white bell. She wore a floor length gown of white slipper satin and lace with sweetheart neckline and long, pointed sleeves. Her full length embroidered veil was held in place by a band of orange blossoms. She carried a white amyris book with a spray of white ribbon and pink roses and wore the groom's present, a gold wrist watch.

Mrs. Earl Fuller, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. She was attired in floor length dress of pink sheer with shoulder length veil and long white gloves, and carried a bouquet of pink and white snapdragons. The bridesmaids were Miss Margaret Thompson, sister of the groom, who wore pink nylon with white shoulder length veil and long pink gloves and carried a nosegay of red roses and fern, and Miss Adeline Cunningham who wore blue nylon with white shoulder length veil and white gloves and carried a nosegay of pink roses and fern.

Little Edith Thompson, sister of the groom, acted as flower girl wearing white silk with pink rosettes and carrying a nosegay of pink gladioli.

Mr. Frank Thompson, brother of the groom was groomsmen. Miss Thelma Hardy of Guelph played the wedding music and the bride's cousin Mr. Campbell McArthur of Guelph sang the "Lord's Prayer" and during the signing of the register "I Love You Truly."

The reception was held at the bride's home where the rooms were decorated with iris, bridal wreath, peonies, Star of Bethlehem and ferns, pink and white streamers and white bells. The bride's table was centred with a three-tiered wedding cake in pink and white and decorated with pink and white streamers and pink candles in silver holders. The bride's mother received, wearing a flowered jersey dress with white accessories and corsage of red roses. She was assisted by the groom's mother, wearing beige flowered jersey dress and beige accessories and corsage of white roses.

The bride's present to the groom was a gold wrist watch; to the maid of honor a gold compact; to the bridesmaids, a gold compact and a silver butter dish; to the flower girl a string of pearls; to the groomsmen a pen and pencil set; to the organist floral miniatures and the soloist received a gold tie set. Friends of the bride who assisted at the reception were Miss Betty Sim, Miss Mabel Hardy, Miss Mary Currie, Mrs. Bert Berry, Mrs. Robert Shekelton, Mrs. Lorne Keeler, Mrs. Harvey Penney, Mrs. Harold McLaren, Mr. Smith Griffin, Jr. and Mr. Neil Harding. Amid showers of confetti the young couple left on their wedding trip to London, Detroit, Indiana, Michigan and Sarina. The bride travelled in a pink jersey dress, white coat and white accessories with corsage of pink roses.

Friends were present from Indiana, Vineland, Toronto, Cooksville, Victoria, Terra Cotta, Hamilton, Guelph, Georgetown, Acton and Erin.

ROCKWOOD

The sympathy of the community is extended to Mrs. Telford McDowell in the sudden death of her father, Mr. Ernest E. Ingles, last week in a car and truck crash near Barrie. Due to fine weather last Wednesday evening the street dance was largely attended. Proceeds were in aid of the Bowling Green and Junior Band. Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. G. Benham (nee Vera Kelly) on the occasion of their marriage, Saturday morning, at Sacred Heart Church with Rev. Father A. S. Callaghan officiating.

Services at St. John's Church Sunday morning were well attended on the special occasion of interest in the departure of Miss Joyce Walker, who is leaving for Rupert's Land for the near future, where she will assist in Caravan work in Sunday School activities of the Church of England.

Schools closed last week for the long summer holidays. Entrance examinations were also held in the local school for candidates from the surrounding district.

A few week-end and holiday visitors: Mr. Charles Pollock and friend of Toronto. Miss Reta McNabb, nurse-in-training at Hamilton Hospital.

Miss Muriel McNabb and friend of Hamilton. Mr. Johnstone Hewat of Simcoe.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Day of Hamilton are up for the summer holidays. Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Thomas and have recently enjoyed a brief holiday at Kingston with Mr. and Mrs. Alan Gordon.

Following an operation in Guelph General Hospital last week, Mrs. William B. Gordon is getting along as well as possible and expects to return home in a week or so.
