IN MEMORIAM

PATRICK—In loving memory of our dear wife and mother, Sarah Patrick, who passed away September 1st, 1946.

Gone is the face we loved so dear. Silent is the voice we loved to hear. Too far away for sight or speech. But not too far for thoughts to reach. Sweet to remember, her who once was here. And who though absent, is just as dear.

Lovingly remembered by Husband and sons Emerson and Victor.

PATRICK—In loving memory of our dear mother and grandma, Sarah Patrick, who passed away September 1st, 1946.

She walks in God's beautiful garden Free from all suffering and pain. Some day when life's journey is over We will meet with our dear one again. In our hearts your memory lingers Sweetly, tender, fond and true. There is not a day, dear mother We do not think of you.

Lovingly remembered by Daughters, Sons-in-law and Grandchildren

CARDS OF THANKS

Mrs. John Bruce, Bower Avenue, Acton, wishes to express her sincere thanks to friends who sent cards, flowers and other gifts during her recent illness, also kind enquiries, all were very much appreciated.

The family of the late Mrs. John McCutcheon appreciates deeply the kindness, sympathy and helpfulness that was shown at the time of the passing of their mother. The floral tributes kindly written and spoken messages and neighborly helpfulness are all gratefully remembered.

The Ex is a popular place for many from this district just now.

Back to school again on Tuesday. The long summer vacation is nearly over.

Miss Frances Dills has been successful in the examination for High School Teacher's Certificate written this summer at the Ontario College of Education.

No. 25 Highway still has the detour at Speyside but since oiling this road surface on the detour it is in good condition and equal to that of the highway.

FORMER ACTON BOY NOW STUDIES SINGING ON SCHOLARSHIPS

Roy Wildgust, whose father, Roy Wildgust Sr., was for a number of years choir leader in the Acton Presbyterian Church, has returned to his home in London, Ont. for a six week rest from voice training and singing at the Academy of Vocal Art in Philadelphia. He is going back in September to take up the third successive scholarship granted him by the school.

The singer, who was born in Acton 28 years ago, came out of the navy with a desire to entertain. He interested a New York impresario in his lyric baritone voice and through him obtained a scholarship at the Philadelphia School, Department of Veterans' Affairs arranged to support him through use of rehabilitation credits.

Obituary

MRS. M. TAYLOR
Mrs. Mabel Taylor, youngest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Lockyer, formerly of Nassagaweya, died in Stratford General Hospital after an operation from which she failed to rally.

Survivors included one daughter, "Ollie," Mrs. James Stephenson, Richmond Hill; two brothers, Oscar of Esqueping and Melvin of Hamilton and three sisters, Mrs. J. D. Lowerie of Eden Mills, Mrs. Art Cheney of Stratford and Mrs. W. Early of Nassagaweya.

A son, Alvin, was killed in a plane crash in Alberta three years ago. She was born and raised in Nassagaweya.

MRS. JOHN McCUTCHEON
Funeral services for Mrs. John S. McCutcheon, the former Annie E. Lorie, were held on Wednesday at the Johnstone and Rumley Funeral Home, Acton and at Everton Disciple Church. Mrs. McCutcheon, who had been in failing health for some time, died in Guelph General Hospital on Monday, August 25th, at 78th year.

The Rev. Mr. Charlton of Erin conducted the services. Interment took place in Everton Cemetery.

The pallbearers were: George Jeslin, George Mack, Harold Mack, George Pearen, Charles Hamilton, Albert McCutcheon. Acting as flower bearers were grandchildren, Jack, Earl, Shirley and Kenneth McCutcheon.

Mrs. McCutcheon, mother of Reeve Fred J. McCutcheon of Acton, was the daughter of the late Washington and Ellen Lorie. Born in Erin Township, she lived in this district all her life. She was a member of the Women's Institute and was active in the work of her church.

Predeceased by her husband two and a half years ago, Mrs. McCutcheon is survived by three sons, Fred of Acton, Alvin of Guelph and Wilbert of Erasmus Twp.

Floral tributes were sent by the family, members of the Acton Public Utilities Commission, members of the Acton council, Disciple Church, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Coon, Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton and family and the Lotia Club of Acton.

ROBERT WILLIAM WILSON
The sudden death of Mr. Robert William Wilson from a heart attack on Wednesday, August 20th, at the home of his grandson, Mr. Benjamin Wilson, lot 26, concession 3, Nassagaweya, came as a great shock to his many friends and relatives in this district.

Funeral services were held on Saturday from the home of his son, William R. Wilson, lot 27, concession 2, Nassagaweya. Following private services at the home, his pastor, the Rev. F. Williamson conducted services in the Presbyterian Church and at the grave side in Eden Mills Cemetery where burial was made.

Predeceased by his wife and his only daughter, Mrs. William Webb (Carrie), several years ago, Mr. Wilson leaves to mourn his loss three sons, Stanley of Eden Mills, James of Acton and William of Campbellville, R. R. 1; two brothers, George T. Wilson, Arkell; Benjamin Wilson, Irricana, Alberta; and one sister, Mrs. Jean Henderson (Charlotte) of Eden Mills. There are also five grandchildren and six great grandchildren surviving him.

Those who acted as pall bearers were Messrs. J. Milne, Robert Borthwick, Crastor Scott, J. A. McAlpine, William Lowrie and Charles Kingsbury. Six great grandchildren were flower bearers.

Mr. Wilson was born in the township of Wawanosh on August 17, 1867 and came to Nassagaweya a short time later with his parents, the late Robert Wilson and Sarah Humphrey. In January 1891, he married the former Jane Anderson. He was a farmer for many years and an elder of Eden Mills Presbyterian Church.

Friends attended the funeral from Montreal, Toronto, St. Catharines, Galt, Guelph, Milton, Campbellville, Acton, Georgetown, Rockwood and surrounding district.

Engagements

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Armstrong, Campbellville, wish to announce the engagement of their only daughter, Muriel Edythe, Reg. N., to Douglas Britton Douglas, elder son of Mr. N. Douglas and the late Mrs. Ellis, Toronto, the wedding to take place quietly at Ebenezer United Church, Sept. 27.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Macdonald, Hillsburg Post Office, wish to announce the engagement of their younger daughter, Margaret Anne Ilow, to John Goldham Holmes, younger son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry F. Holmes of Acton, the marriage to take place in September.

CEDARVALE

(Intended for last week)
Mrs. Wagner of Minneapolis, Minn., Mr. and Mrs. Wilson and daughter-in-law of Omaha, Neb. and Mrs. T. Birney and son John of Coppell, Tex. spent a few days at the home of Mrs. Arthur Griffin.

Mrs. E. McDougall of Toronto and Mrs. Fuller of Grand Valley visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Fuller.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lloyd of Toronto spent the week-end with friends here.

(This week)
A number from here attended the wedding in Acton on Saturday of Miss Blanch McKinnon.

A few from here attended the shower in Ballinacod on Thursday evening for Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Ridler.

Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Griffin were Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Wheeler of Miami Beach, Florida; Mr. Lawrence Wheeler of Niagara Falls, N.Y.; Mrs. J. O. Martin and Theodore of Vineland; Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Huntman of Beamsville and Mr. and Mrs. A. H. McArthur of Stayner.

—Halton County Fair at Milton just four weeks from to-morrow and Saturday—Sept. 26 and 27.

NASSAGAWEYA

Mr. George Nightingale of Knatchbull held a successful sale of farm stock and implements on Saturday, August 23rd. There was a good crowd present and bidding was fairly brisk and good prices were realized.

The deepest sympathy of the community is extended to the family of Mr. Robert William Wilson who died at the home of his grandson, Mr. Benjamin Wilson on August 20th.

The continued wet weather last week has delayed the harvesting of the grain crops in this district.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Darby and family of Knatchbull visited relatives and friends in Hamilton last Sunday.
