CAMPBELLVILLE

The Ladies Aid of St. David's Church held their September meeting in the Sunday School room where three quilts were quilted. At the noon hour there was a short business period with the president, Mrs. J. K. Mahon presiding. The meeting was opened by singing one verse of a hymn, followed by prayer by the President. Plans were made for more quilting, painting steps and the Bazaar to be held the third week in November.
Mrs. R. C. Menzies and Miss J. McPhail attended the Presbyterian Executive meeting held in St. Andrew's Church in Kitchener last Tuesday. The Guelph Presbyterian Society are fortunate in having Miss Isabel McConnell of Jobat Hospital as a guest speaker in November. She will be in Campbellville on the sixth of November.

About 25 friends and relatives surprised Mr. and Mrs. George Inglis on Thursday evening on the event of their tenth wedding anniversary. Progressive supper was enjoyed, after which the happy couple were presented with a picture card table and aluminum ware.

TRACK MEET TO BE HELD SATURDAY IN GEORGETOWN PARK

This Saturday an ambitious track and field meet will take place in Georgetown Park under joint sponsorship of the Georgetown Recreation Council and the Gladstone Athletic Club of Toronto. To any track fan, there will be plenty to keep him interested for the meet will include championship matches open to public and high schools throughout the county, open events and the famous 50 mile relay race for the International Silver Trophy at present held by the Gladstone A.C.

A special attraction on Saturday will be a rhythmic drill presented by Yritys, Toronto club of the Finnish Amateur Sports Federation. Under the direction of Mrs. Lempi Serra and accompanied by Elena Pezhukova, CBC radio artist, they will present something new for Georgetown audiences. The Brown twins, Olympic shot put and running broad jump champs are among the competitors in the open events.

DESCENDANTS' JOURNEY FROM FAR-POINTS FOR BIG STOREY REUNION

The annual reunion of the descendants of the late Thomas and Margaret Storey of Naasgoways was held on Monday, September 1, at Brookville Community Hall.

Relatives were present from Belfast, Ireland; Smith Basin, N.Y., Argyle, N.Y.; Toronto, Essex and the surrounding district. After the usual greetings supper was served.

A program of sports was held outdoors, including races for the younger ones, tug-of-war and horseshoe pitching for the older ones. When darkness came all adjourned indoors where festivities continued. At a convenient time all were seated and the gathering was called to order by the president, Mr. Neil Black.

A short business meeting was held. After singing God Save the King, silent prayer was offered in memory of those who had died during the year, namely: Mrs. Dickey of Buffalo who died in her 101st year; Mr. Alfred Storey, Brantford; Mr. Robert Storey, Cleveland, Ohio; Mrs. Annie Maanles, Saginaw, Mich.

Those coming from a distance were: Miss Nellie Storey, R.N., Belfast, Ireland; Mr. and Mrs. Horace Storey, Argyle, N.Y.; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Huggins, Smith Basin, N.Y.

The secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Archie McLean gave the financial report. The nominating committee was D. H. Storey and Max Storey.

Robt. Broowie brought in the following slate of officers for the year 1948:

Honorary President, Neil Black; President, Roy Marshall; Vice-President, Max Storey; Secretary-Treasurer, Mrs. A. McLean.

The president expressed thanks to all present for their cooperation during the past year. Robert Broowie of Toronto was chosen chairman for the program which followed; chairman's remarks, community singing with Mrs. Rourke at the piano, songs by comedian Tom Simpson of Moffat; solo by Miss Donna Frank; reading by Mrs. Roy Marshall; accordion selection by Bobby Royce; piano solo by Jimmy Thatcher; songs by Tom Simpson; instrumental by Andy Frank and Mrs. Rourke and a vocal duet by Mrs. Marion MacLean and Mrs. Mildred Royce.

An amusing, instructive account of his recent trip to England, Ireland and Scotland was given by Alex Black which brought this part of the program to a close.

The remainder of the evening was spent in dancing. Music was supplied by Andy Frank, violinist and Bobby Storey at the piano. Max Storey was master of ceremonies.

Special Meeting Called to Plan Swimming Pool
