Dude's New Weaton

"I," exclaimed the one and only Dude Lindsay, as he brandished a bat he had lately acquired for the express purpose of furthering his somewhat diminutive average at the plate, "am going-to show you'se guys how to hit in this man's ball game." Or at least words to that effect spilled from the nomewhat overwrought mountchank's mouth as he awang his club to and fro before the Walkerton massacre last Saturday. As he gazed lovingly at this piece of craftsmanship, his ego had obviously compelled him to bring-we wondered just how much he was contemplating bashing the agwte in this crucial point in the series, or at all.

And we are positive Matt this club looked like any other bat, was sturdly made and wrapped in adhealve in the proper points. Only one thing distinguished it from the restthe cuddling and habying it took from Clayton Lindsay. He fondled it like a five spot. A skiewise glance at his bat and he'd have had you up for explonage. Somehow, we're convinced that in-this-hunk of-bickory there turks something lethal. qualities dwell in this apparently ordinary but? All the triple A players are clamoring to find out but the Dude remains silent. He modestly admits it's the lad in the pants, not the but which does the trick. What do: you think?

What Happened? Several persons have inquired what happened to the Wulkerton outfit on Saturday. That we're not permitted to divulge because insofur as we can see nothing happened. It looked to us as if Acton finally stepped into the stride they are capable of and walloped nineteen safeties off the two slabsters who attempted to stave their efforts. It is certain that Zuber of the port side is an effective slanter. So was "Scottle" Patterson of the late Papertown club. But what a fate both of these hurlers received from the potent wielding of the local triple A club. These laddles can hit There should be no question of that Sixteen, seventeen and nineteen bingles in a single game probably sounds preposterous, which it is, yet this duet of moundamen were considered tops in their respective loops. LIFE'S Bigger DECISIONS

Somerimes a young lady decides to take matters into her own pretty hands rather than sit around and wait for what's coming next. For example she might decide to turn on full power in her business career; or to make something out of her special musical or dramatic talents. And when a lady makes up her mind to Do Something about those dreams stand by for action.

One step towards personal independence is to have a chat with a North American Life representative. Programs beginning as low as $5 a month can guarantee those dreamedof trips abroad, those winters in the sun.

You'll discover current decisions are more easily and more nesely made when your future independence is abuilding. And should Capid throw his beflowered monkey wrench into your personal plans, your North American Life investment will be very, very useful indeed.

Suggestion: write or call your North American Life man. His advice is backed by a 66-year-old mutual Company;

Telephone People Are Hard to Please

No matter how good the service is, telephone people are always keen to make it better . . . to best their own record. Our present programme - largest in our history - calls for more and more lines, switchboards and buildings.

But more than equipment is required - something money can't buy. That is the pride every person in the company takes in continuing to give the best telephone service at the lowest cost.

FLOUR AND BREAD PRICES TO BE INCREASED

Government Withdraws Subsidy to Consumer

CANADIAN housewives will soon be asked to pay higher prices for flour. The Milling Industry of Canada would like to tell why.

Nearly six years ago the price of flour was fixed at the low prices then ruling, based on wheat costing 77% c per bushel when milled for use in Canada.

Since then, the price of wheat has advanced step by step, but the Government has paid the difference in the form of a consumer subsidy in order that you might buy flour and bread at no increase.

Wheat has actually risen to $1.581/2 a bushel so that for some time past the Government has been paying more than half the full cost-

Now the Government has dropped the subsidy and the price Millers will pay for wheat through the Government Wheat Board will be more than double what it was originally. That is why the cost of flour will be increased.

Furthermore, the cost of bags, other supplies, labour and transportation has increased substantially during the control period.

Canadian Millers, however, knowing the importance of flour in the family diet pledge themselves to keep the price as low as they possibly can.

The prices of practically all ingredients in bread have also risen sharply and your Baker must take this into consideration when calculating his new prices. .
