IN MEMORIAM

McCUTCHEON—In ever loving remembrance of a dear husband and father, who left us so suddenly on September 2nd, 1943.

Gone, dear father, gone forever, How we miss your smiling face, But you left us to remember None on earth can take your place. A happy home we once enjoyed, How sweet the memory still, But death has left a loneliness The world can never fill. Ever remembered by his loving wife and family and grandchildren.

SEPTEMBER MEETING OF BUSY BEES INSTITUTE AT MRS. BRITTON'S

The September meeting of the Busy Bees Institute held at the home of Mrs. W. E. Britton had splendid attendance. The president, Mrs. Allen, opened the meeting. A two minute silence was observed in memory of Mrs. Whitelock.

Roll call was answered by "my favorite flower." Mrs. Cox read correspondence received. Several ladies expressed their thanks for boxes of fruit received while ill.

It was decided to send for boxes of Christmas cards. A corn roast is to be held in No. 7 school by a chosen committee. Mrs. Cox offered her home for the October meeting. Mrs. Bud Fraser as guest speaker gave a splendid paper on juvenile and adult delinquency. Mrs. McLean gave a humorous reading and Mrs. Davonport one on "Life of Banting—National Hero in Human Terms". Mrs. Britton conducted a contest, "Queer Cats" which proved Mrs. Locker the winner.

NASSAGAWEYA S. S. No. 7

Mr. and Mrs. D. Henderson's house has a new paint job.

Tuesday evening was Film Board of the Federation of Agriculture night at No. 7 school. Meeting opened with a sing song, followed by showing of picture "The Industrial Revolution", showing industry's progress from beginning until the present time and its effect on the people of England, and then in foreign countries. Next, "Fashions by Canada" showed Canada holding her own in the world of fashion.

In the business portion of the meeting, Mr. C. E. Davonport, chairman, asked for election of new chairman for the new season. Mr. Wilfred Kennedy was elected with Mrs. J. J. Kennedy as secretary. Mr. Heatherington spoke on ways of entertaining and making the meetings more interesting which resulted in Mrs. McLean, Mrs. H. McLeod and George Service being chosen as a committee for this purpose. Another film "To-morrow's Timbers" was shown. Mr. Heatherington gave a financial statement on the Halton co-operative medical service. He also gave a few details concerning the buying and clearing of the 35 acres on 12 mile creek at Lowville for a park.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McPhail, Campbellville are guests of Mr. and Mrs. David Henderson this week.

Friends of Mrs. J. Cogswell will be sorry to hear she is in poor health. Mrs. Elmer Anderson is spending her summer vacation at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Britton.

The G.C.V.I. youngsters of No. 7 are deep in study again and motoring to and from Guelph. They are Tom Kennedy, Hazel Kennedy, Don McMillan, Ronald King.

Mrs. Greenstade, Guelph, spent last week in the home of her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Case.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Davonport and Jimmie spent Sunday with the former's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Zimmerman, Freeman.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Britton, Acton were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Davonport Sunday.

Messrs. C. E. Davonport, Locker, McLean and J. J. Kennedy attended the bee to clear the land on the new community centre at Lowville.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Robinson, Kitchener, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Nell Martin. Mrs. Mary Martin and Mr. D. Campbell, Pulinch, were also guests in this home.

Obituary

MRS. BENJAMIN PETCH

Injuries from a fall which she suffered in April proved fatal for Mrs. Benjamin Petch, who passed away in Hamilton on Tuesday, September 2nd. Formerly Marjorie Louise McKane she was born eighty years ago at Linwood in Waterloo County, a daughter of the late James McKane and Marjorie Hoops. Fifty-one years ago, she married her late husband, a well-known farmer and auctioneer in Chingdacosy who predeceased her in 1929. She had made her home in Georgetown for the past several years, sharing an apartment with her sister, Mrs. H. G. Clark, until her accident last spring.

Mrs. Petch attended Union Presbyterian church during her residence in that district and had attended Knox church since she moved to Georgetown. She is survived by an only son, Frank of Georgetown, who has followed his father's trade as auctioneer, and one grandson, Ross. Surviving are three sisters and one brother, Mrs. H. G. Clark, (Anne) of Paris, Mrs. R. C. Gibson (Emily) of Hamilton, Mrs. George S. Fraser (Ada) of Hamlet, Manitoba and James A. McKane of Union.

The funeral service on Friday from the McClure Funeral Home was conducted by Rev. C. C. Cochrane, assisted by Rev. T. C. Todd. Pallbearers were W. A. Wilson, Albert Dolan, Andrew McDonald, Thomas L. Louie, Fred C. Thompson and Thomas Lyons. Interment was in Glen Williams Cemetery.

JOHN CLAYTON BRADLEY

Succumbing to an illness contracted while he was serving with the army overseas, John Clayton Bradley passed away suddenly on Friday, September 5th, while being taken to Toronto by ambulance. The popular local merchant had been taking treatment at Christie Street Hospital for the past year for leukemia and had been home for two weeks until the latest attack which proved fatal.

Born in Georgetown 31 years ago, he was the youngest son of Mrs. Harvey Bradley and the late Mr. Bradley. He attended public and high school and played on the junior hockey team as a boy. Formerly employed at the Provincial Paper Mills, he was associated with his brother Roy in operating Bradley Brothers' Store. In June 1942, he enlisted for army service and after training at Brampton and Camp Borden went overseas with the RCASC. He landed in France soon after "D" Day and served through the campaign in France, Belgium, Holland and Germany.

In February, 1946, shortly after his return to Canada, he married Mary Young of Acton and this spring they moved to No. 4 Normandy Boulevard with their 6 month old daughter, Beverly Ann. Surviving besides his wife and daughter are his mother, who makes her home in Oshawa, two sisters and three brothers, Mrs. Ellen Henderson and Mrs. Edna Hoare (Hazel) of Oshawa, Clifford of Acton and Wilbert and Roy of Georgetown. Archdeacon W. G. O. Thompson conducted the funeral service in St. George's Church on Monday with the choir assisting. Friends thronged the church to pay their last respects, many from out-of-town points including Oshawa, Barrie, Toronto, Stratford, Burlington, Elora, Acton, Mount Forest, Oakville and Inglewood. Pallbearers were Reg Hoare, Walker Cleave, Ross Duncan, Ted Arnold, Walter Richardson and Saul Soberman of Toronto, the latter an army buddy overseas. Friends who acted as flower bearers included many of his Main Street business associates. Interment was made in Greenwood Cemetery, Georgetown.
