TEEN TOWN TALK

Teen-agers are starting to chatter about the coming opening of Teen Town. Big things are planned for this year and of course officers have to be appointed. This seems to be the conversational subject since plans are being made to elect one of the many candidates as well as the other necessary officers to govern our Teen Town. The big opening is to get under way at 7.30 on October 10. It will take the form of a parade of the candidates for mayor. The supporters of the individual candidates are allowed to prepare and carry out a campaign for their representative. The parade will end at the Y.M.C.A. where the candidates are given a soap-box and a chance to state their platform (might be a bit jittery too). This completed the teen-agers will proceed inside where the balloting will take place. Of course bribery and corrupt practices are illegal. To all appearances, Teen Town is going to have a big year and we're getting off to a good start. Perhaps this year more attention should be paid to things besides just the dancing at the regular get together. Of course Saddle Hawkins Day is coming and a dance founded on the principles of the well-known day would be in order. The Farmer's ball last year was a big success and could stand a repeat performance. Then too, a novel idea might be a Gay Nineties Night with barber shop quartettes, song and dance routines and cabaret service for a couple of hours.

Ideas are countless but they all demand preparation and those elected in the coming elections should be representative of all the teen-agers and well qualified to carry out the positions for which they are elected. Johnny Gray, organizer of Teen Town visited the school in an effort to gather ideas for the coming campaign of the mayors. It was decided that about six candidates, three boys and three girls would be enough to make the elections interesting. Six names were mentioned but since they have not been approached personally, we will not bring them to you until next week. The details of the campaigning and election of the remainder of the officials have not as yet been decided, but next week we'll try and bring a complete account. —Until next week, then—So Long.

SALVATION ARMY APPEAL CONTINUES IN ACTON THIS WEEK

The consecrated men and women of The Salvation Army do not seek praise. They want merely the tools with which to carry out the work we continue to impose upon them. These words were written by the late Franklin Delano Roosevelt. The work of The Salvation Army is constantly expanding and your help is needed to carry out its major objectives—taking the gospel of hope to distressed in body and in soul; prison and police court work; caring for the unmarried mother and her child; housing the orphan; the aged, the unemployed, and many other soul-saving and body-building enterprises. Remember, The Salvation Army is the Heart of the World. Give and give generously to the Salvation Army's Red Shield Appeal.

The flower gardens have suffered from their first touch of cooler weather.
