BURLINGTON

Miss Oxford, 32 Seneca Street, has an exceptionally fine display of daffodils in her garden. There is every kind of color and a beautiful sight to behold.

Dr. Austin Hager Speers, one of the town's most prominent and beloved citizens, passed away on Tuesday morning, September 30th, at his residence, Elizabeth Street, after a short illness. He was in his 80th year, and was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Speers.

The Burlington Branch of the Royal Bank of Canada, which has been operating from temporary premises for some months past, has moved into its new quarters at the corner of Water and Brant Streets. The new building, which occupies the site where the former branch stood, is one of the most modern branch banks in the country.

The trustees of the Public School Board are seeking a caretaker for East Burlington School, which is now without a caretaker. Sunday morning, September 29, saw a cavalcade of nine cars leave
