IN MEMORIAM

WEBSTER—In loving memory of our dear wife and mother, Enid Sylvia Webster, who passed away October 9th, 1944.

When evening shades are falling,
And we sit in quiet alone,
To our hearts there comes a longing
If she could only come home.
Friends may think we have forgotten,
When at times they see us smile,
But they little know the heartache,
Our smiles hide all the while.
We who loved you sadly miss you,
As it dawns another year,
In our lonely hours of thinking,
Thoughts of you are ever near.
Ever lovingly remembered by husband and family.

Oh, and that

- Thanksgiving Day on Monday.
- The roads about town were much improved by the grading done the past week.
- The fine October days of the past week have indeed been appreciated after the cooler weather.
- Wartime Housing site just now looks like a big upheaval but buildings are progressing well.
- The World Series baseball may be over but Acton is still in the baseball picture with a home game on Saturday.

THE VALLEY-CHALMERS WEDDING AT KNOX CHURCH MANSE HERE

A pretty September wedding took place at the Knox Church Manse on September 27th when Rev. J. Anderson officiating, when Margaret Ruth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Chalmers, Acton, became the bride of John Valley, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Valley, Wingham.

The bride, given in marriage by her father was charming in a street length dress of powder blue, with matching hat, and a corsage of pink roses. She wore the groom's gift, a necklace of pearls.

Mrs. George Graham as attendant wore a gray street length dress, with black accessories, and her corsage was red roses. Elmer Grischow was best man.

At a reception held at the bride's home, Mrs. J. B. Chalmers received, wearing a violet dress with black accessories, and a corsage of pink roses. She was assisted by the bride's sister, Mary in grey with black accessories.

OCTOBER MEETING OSPRINGE-W.I. AT MRS. THOMAS FINES

The October meeting of Osprige W.I. was held at the home of Mrs. Thomas Fines. Thirteen members and two visitors were present answering the roll call to "something new about vegetables." The correspondence was read and included letters of thanks for favors received.

It was decided to apply for the legislative grant. The community picnic was dropped as it was so late in the season and the weather unfavorable. The losing side in last year's roll call contest is holding a euchre for institute members and families, all members bring lunch and users provide the prizes. Mrs. Gordon Aitken's side was the winner.

Community singing was enjoyed by all, then Mrs. Elgin Brown gave a paper on the "care of the hair." The mystic prize was won by Mrs. Brown, her weight being the nearest to 120 pounds. The meeting closed by singing the National anthem and lunch was served.

Obituary

CLARENCE JAMES BUCK
Proprietor of a meat and grocery store in Georgetown for the past twenty-five years, Clarence James Buck passed away in Toronto General Hospital on Saturday morning, September 27th, after an illness of some several weeks' duration. Born in Georgetown, he was a son of the late James H. Buck. He attended public and high school here and was a second year student at the School of Practical Science, University of Toronto, at the time of his father's death in 1923, when he returned to take over the business.

Mr. Buck was one of the most popular of Georgetown merchants and enjoyed a good patronage at his attractive store on Mill Street. He was a member of the United Church and an executive member of the Board of Trade.

Surviving are his wife, formerly Elizabeth Caldwell and two children, Joan and Jim. He also leaves his mother, two brothers and three sisters.

Rev. R. C. Todd conducted the funeral service from the McClure Funeral Home on Monday. Interment was in Greenwood Cemetery, Georgetown. Herald.

WESLEY J. BURROWS
Mr. Wesley J. Burrows passed away at the Guelph General Hospital after a lingering illness. Mr. Burrows spent all of his life in the vicinity of Eden Mills. Owing to poor health Mr. and Mrs. Burrows moved to the home of their son, Wallace in Puslinch last spring and late in June he had the misfortune to fall injuring his hip. He never recovered from the injury.

Mr. Burrows was the son of the late Wm. Burrows and Mary Ann Bardwell and was in his 85th year. He leaves to mourn his loss, his wife the former Mary Young, four sons, Wallace, Puslinch; Jeffrey, Eden Mills; Ronald and Lorne, both in Guelph Township; two daughters, Mrs. M. Allan (Mary) of Guelph, Ont.; and Mrs. R. Elliot (Annie) of Dayton, Ohio; also one sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Rennie of Guelph and three brothers, Meshach of Lynn Haven Florida; Albert of Eden Mills and William of Fergus.

The funeral was held from McLaughlan and Ross Funeral Home, Guelph to Eden Mills Cemetery. Rev. R. W. Pickersgill of Eden Mills United Church was the minister. Pallbearers were four sons, Wallace, Jeffrey, Ronald and Lorne Burrows, R. Elliot (son-in-law) and Charles Young (brother-in-law). The floral tributes were numerous and beautiful and were carried by the grandsons.

ANDREW NICOL WAS ONE OF FINISHERS IN 19-MILE RUN

One of the contestants in the 19-mile "Around the Bay Marathon" was Andrew Nicol of Acton. The race was sponsored by the Army, Navy and Air Force Veterans of Hamilton and the route circumscribed Hamilton Bay.

Of the 42 that started only 22 finished, one of whom was Scotty. He was the youngest contestant and completed the race in two hours and forty-nine minutes or an average of one one-hundredths of a mile a minute.

Steiner of New York won the marathon but as Andy said, "He was an old man" and had never run before.

Earlier this year Scotty finished the 26 mile marathon in Guelph and was again the youngest entry. Although all the winners of these races are older men, Andrew is "holding his own" among the stiff competition encountered in these marathons.
