NASSAGAWEYA

At the General Hospital, Guelp, on Thursday, October 23rd, Mrs. David Wilson, a pioneer and highly respected resident of Nassagaweya passed away in her 91st year. The funeral was held from the home of her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. Easterbrook of Darbyville with a short service held at the home and at Ebenezer United Church on Sunday October 28th. There was a large gathering of relatives and neighbors and friends at the Church to pay their last respects to the deceased.

The service at the home, church and cemetery was conducted by her pastor, Rev. R. W. Pickersgill. Interment was made in Ebenezer Cemetery.

She leaves to mourn her loss, one daughter, Mrs. James Easterbrook, (Laura) and four sons, Messrs, Elwood, Alfred, Marvin and Harlan Wilson all of Nassagaweya. The pallbearers were six grandchildren, Ross Hall, Young Wilson, Kenneth Wilson, George Easterbrook, Elma Easterbrook and Lloyd Easterbrook. The sympathy of the community goes out to the bereaved in their sorrow.

Following an operation in the Hamilton General Hospital, a short time ago, from which he was unable to recover, Mr. Enoch Walker of Nassagaweya passed away on Friday, October 24th in his 75th year. The funeral was on Monday, October 27th from his late residence, Lot 18, Con. 4, Nassagaweya, to Ebenezer Cemetery for interment. The service at the home and graveside was conducted by his pastor, Rev. R. W. Pickersgill. His wife predeceased him a few years ago. He leaves to mourn his loss an adopted daughter, Miss Ruby Walker at home, to whom the deepest sympathy of the community is extended in her sorrow. The pallbearers were Messrs. Clare Pickett, Orm Sherwood, George Thomas, Andrew Frank, William Simpson and James Simpson. Mr. Walker was a faithful member of Ebenezer United Church and for a number of years choir leader and also an assistant teacher of the Bible class in the Sunday School.
