CARDS OF THANKS

For the many kindnesses and help that was shown Mother and Dad during the illness of E. T. Thetford and the sympathy at the time of his death, I am indeed appreciative. I regret that distance made it impossible for me to get home and thank all personally, but I do want all to know of my appreciation.

Stephen Guest, Vancouver, B.C.

This and that

—Hard to realize that November is due on Saturday.

—Failure to have his child attend school cost Herbert Fryer $5 and costs in Acton Police Court this week.

—In the obituary published last week of Mr. E. T. Thetford, the floral tribute from the neighbors was inadvertently omitted.

—The site is being cleared on Mill Street for the erection of the new Roxy Theatre directly opposite the present theatre building.

—On Monday evening, Robert Neltis of Erin Township was found just east of Ovington on No. 24 Highway lying unconscious beside his bicycle. He was taken to Guelph General Hospital in a serious condition. No one saw the accident but it is believed he was struck by a car.

MRS. F. BLOW HOSTESS FOR MEETING KNOX LADIES' AID

There was a large attendance of members and friends at the monthly meeting of Knox Ladies' Aid on Tuesday at the home of Mrs. F. Blow with Mrs. McCutcheon presiding.

Mrs. W. McLeod read the scripture lesson. Mrs. Somerville read the report of the last meeting and also a detailed account of the fowl supper. The treasurer's report gave a gratifying cash balance from the anniversary concert-aid supper. General business included a donation of $50 to be given to the choir.

A new electric unit for the hall at the manse was to be financed by the Ladies Aid. A message of appreciation from Mrs. Pulker was passed to the ladies for the invitation and hospitality enjoyed at the fowl supper. The president thanked the ladies who had worked to make it such a success. A contest on the church was conducted by Mrs. Ritchie and won by Mrs. Hassard and Mrs. Lantz. Mrs. W. Hall favored with mouth organ selections. The hostess, assisted by Mrs. Ritchie, Mrs. Buchanan and Mrs. Wright, served a delicious lunch. Mrs. F. Anderson expressed the thanks to the hostess and the assistants for the delightful afternoon.

THE SPROULE-GRAHAM OCTOBER WEDDING IN GEORGETOWN CHURCH

Knox Church, Georgetown, was the scene of the wedding on Saturday, October 18th, of Anne Margaret Graham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hazen Graham and William Harold Sproule, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sproule of Brampton. Rev. C. C. Cochrane performed the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a wedding gown of ivory slipper satin with fitted bodice and full skirt. Her long veil was caught with a halo of seed pearls and she carried a shower bouquet of red roses and stephanotis. Her sister, Miss Eleanor Graham, as maid of honor wore blue brocade with matching hat trimmed with rose ostrich plumes and carried a bouquet of deep red roses. Bridesmaids were her cousin, Miss Hazel Graham of Weston and Miss Margaret Knight of Toronto, both wearing rose brocade with matching hats trimmed with blue ostrich plumes and carrying red roses.

Groomsman was the groom's brother Mr. John Sproule of Napanee. Mr. Kenneth R. Harrison played the wedding music and Mrs. A. Heatley of Brampton was soloist, singing "The Lord's Prayer" and "Thy Walk Beside Me." Ushers were the bride's cousin Mr. F. Thompson and Mr. James Bredin of Ottawa.

A reception followed in the Sunday School rooms where Mrs. Graham received dressed in Queen's blue with an orchid corsage. The groom's mother who assisted, chose a black ensemble with orchid corsage. For a honeymoon trip to the States, the bride changed to a Bovy's brown suit with matching accessories, a yellow rose corsage and mink fur, the gift of the groom. They will reside at 401 Indian Grove, Toronto.
