THE IRWIN-PROCUINER OCTOBER WEDDING AT RICHMOND

White and yellow chrysanthemums with a background of palms formed a pretty setting for the wedding of Mrs. Cordelia, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Procuiner of Stratfordville and Albert John, son of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Irwin, Acton. The ceremony was conducted by Rev. C. C. Strachan of Richmond.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of delicate blue tulle with a sweetheart neckline, tight bodice and a full gathered skirt. Her shoulder length embroidered veil was caught to a silver coronet. She carried blush pink roses and white baby chrysanthemums. Miss Hilda Procuiner attended her sister wearing a gown of pale rose taffeta with matching gloves and headpiece. Her nosegay was of Johanna Hill roses and white baby chrysanthemums. Miss Irene Stewart played the wedding music and the soloist was Miss Irene Cott of St. Thomas.

The groom was attended by his cousin, Mr. George Hollinger and the ushers were Mr. Wm. and Ted Procuiner.

Following a reception at the bride's home the happy couple left for a honeymoon in eastern Canada. They will make their home in Acton.

HEALTHY VOICES

Even the human voice plays its part in creating health, says an authority in the Department of National Health and Welfare, Ottawa. It works this way—voices influence others; if a person has a pleasing voice, that improves the personality and acceptability; to be socially acceptable brings happiness, and happiness, in turn, brings health. Monotonous, shrill and high pitched voices as well as slurred and mumbled words, lessen chances for happiness.

THE DENNY-LESLIE WEDDING AT THE MIMOSA UNITED CHURCH

Mimosa United Church, decorated with ferns, yellow and bronze chrysanthemums, and pink and white streamers and bows, was the scene of a pretty wedding recently when Vera Joyce, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Leslie, Bruma, became the bride of Clarence S. Denny, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Everet Denny, Acton. Rev. Dr. Duncan performed the double ring ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was charming in a floor length gown of ivory slipper satin with short train, sweetheart neckline, long sleeves ending in points over the hands and fitted basque bodice with bustle effect at the waistline. The bridal veil of white net fell from an ivory satin crown, headpiece embroidered in lace and beads, to form a train over her dress. She wore a three-strand rope of pearls, the gift of the groom and carried a cascade bouquet of red sweetheart roses and white asters.

Miss Jean Leslie as her sister's maid of honor was gowned in medium blue moire taffeta with sweetheart neckline and bustle back and head-dress of blue flowers and net with long lace mitts to match. Miss Elsie Leslie as bridesmaid was gowned in pink taffeta, sweetheart neckline, bustle back and headpiece of pink flowers and net and long lace mitts to match. Each carried a bouquet of pink sweetheart roses and pink ribbon and wore the bride's gifts, gold pendants. Mr. Elmer Denny, Acton, was his brother's best man. Mr. Ralph Denny, Acton, brother of the groom and Mr. Earle Leslie, brother of the bride, were ushers. Miss Lois Hunter, Hamilton, cousin of the bride played the wedding music. Master Andrew Hunter, Hamilton, sang "Oh Perfect Love" during the signing of the register.

The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, White chrysanthemums and ferns graced the table. The bride's mother, receiving, wore a gown of royal blue crepe, trimmed with gold buttons, black hat and black accessories. The groom's mother was gowned in black crepe and satin with black hat and black accessories. Their corsages were of gold chrysanthemums. The three-tiered wedding cake, decorated with white and pink roses, pink tapers, white mums and ferns, graced the bride's table.

Mr. and Mrs. Denny left later for an extended motor trip through New York State, the bride travelling in a black trimmed wool suit with blue topcoat trimmed with gray fur, gray and blue hat and black accessories.
