CARDS OF THANKS

Mrs. Alex. Crapps wishes to thank friends and neighbors for get-well cards, parcels, etc., received while in hospital.

Mr. A. Lees, Aberdeen, Scotland, wishes to return grateful thanks to Acton friends for letters received at the time of his recent and bereavement in the passing of a dear wife.

We wish to express our sincere appreciation to our neighbors and friends for their lovely floral tributes, cards and acts of kindness during their recent bereavement. Bernice McKinnon, Blanche and Byron

Mrs. A. Doby, Mrs. A. Tennant and Gordon Bliton wish to thank Acton friends and neighbors for their kind expressions of sympathy in the bereavement of their aunt, Miss Mary Ann Baird. These expressions have been deeply appreciated.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank friends and neighbors, Roy J. Anderson, the doctors and nurses and all others for their kindness during my illness in Guelph General Hospital. Words cannot adequately express my deep appreciation for the cards, letters, flowers, candy and other remembrances. The thoughtfulness has meant much to me. Mrs. J. Massey Sr.

Our sincere appreciation to the many friends who were so thoughtful to our Mother during her trying days in hospital, to the dear friends who have helped us in any way during that time and for the kind expression of sympathy of our esteemed neighbors and friends at the time of her passing we will ever be grateful. Melford Collier, Annie Anderson and their families.

We appreciate deeply the kindness and sympathy shown our dear sister by friends and neighbors during her long illness. Also the kindness of friends and neighbors to us at the time of her passing. Thanking Dr. Waller and Dr. Curritt also. The floral tributes, cards, letters and kindly help of everyone was appreciated indeed. The family of the Late Rena Stuckey

This and that

The days are beginning to lengthen but winter is not on the wane.

Looks as if January would keep up December's record for snowfall and the banks are getting pretty high.

Auto licenses and permits went on sale last week and Mr. J. K. Gardner reports a record demand for the first few days.

We do enjoy the friendly little notes we receive these days from subscribers sending in renewals and we're glad that most readers seem to like the home town paper so well.

A chimney fire at the residence of J.A. Higgins on Church Street on Wednesday morning gave the Fire Brigade a run. This is not the first call to a similar fire in the same building.

Donald Stewart, 17 year old Campbellville youth who was accidentally shot in the chest last December 23 is in greatly improved condition, officials at Guelph General Hospital state.

McLachlan, Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Rayburn, Joan, John and Sherlock Aitken, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Weeks Jr., Mrs. F. McKenzie and Norman and the HITCHCOCK family.

Surviving are her husband; only daughter, Blance (Mrs. Byron Bruce), Guelph; her mother, Mrs. Ellen McLachlan, Hillsburg; four sisters and four brothers, Marion (Mrs. J. Watson), Orton; Flora (Mrs. A. Thomson), Hillsburg; Maury (Mrs. E. Turner), Grand Valley; Pearl (Mrs. F. Osburn), Fergus; Hugh of Hillsburg; Jack of Wilton Grave; Archie of Toronto and Wilfred of Hillsburg.

Interment was in Coningsby Cemetery.

ELIZABETH FYFE COLLIER

A fall on the sidewalk proved fatal to one of our older citizens in the person of Mrs. Elizabeth Collier, when she passed away in Guelph General Hospital on Sunday, December 28th. Suffering a broken hip and arm in the fall, her days of pain and distress were too much for one her age.

Deceased was born on the seventh line, Esquering, one mile south of Ballinfad, eldest daughter of the late George and Annie Campbell, in the year 1872. In the year 1896 she was married to William R. Collier and soon after moved to Acton, where she has resided ever since. Two children are left to treasure the memory of a beloved mother, who has carried on alone. Her husband predeceased her in 1912 following several years of ill health.

The late Mrs. Collier was well known in this community and many homes have been touched in her life in the capacity of a practical nurse. She was a member since childhood of the Presbyterian Church and was a member of the Ladies Aid. In community work, her interest was with the Women's Institute, where she has been an ardent worker for more than thirty years.

She is survived by two children, Melford, (Major) M. B. Collier of Canadian Customs, Toronto and (Annie) Mrs. Fred Anderson at the home. Three grandchildren, W. M. Collier and Ronald of Toronto and Donna Anderson at home. Another grandson, Elwood Collier, paid the supreme sacrifice in the great war. There is also one great grandchild, Johnny Collier.

Funeral service was held from the Johnstone and Rumley Funeral Home on Wednesday, December 31 with her pastor, Rev. John Anderson, conducting the service.

Pallbearers were devoted friends, Messrs. Thos. Ware, Harding Price, Wm. Denny, Earl Lambert, Chas. Anderson and F. H. Taylor of Guelph. Flower bearers were relatives and friends, Messrs. Fred Campbell, Wm. Collier, Clarence Price, Jack Greer, George Thurtell, Henry Sheppard and Jack Davidson.

Deceased was a lover of flowers and her home was always brightened with their presence and so in death she was surrounded with many from the following friends: The Family; the Neighbors; Geo. T. Mann and family; Mrs. H. Campbell and family, Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Agnew, Toronto; Canadian Customs; Jessie and Bill Robertson and family, Toronto; John McEvedie and family, Welland; MacAulays of Port Dover; Howard Kentner's; Mrs. J. Collier and family; Mrs. Geo. Campbell and Luena; Mrs. J. Miller; Mrs. F. Cole; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kilty; Mrs. Cooke; Frank and Kay; Joyce; Paul and Addie Desserault; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Young and family; Abble McClure; John and Bernice Williamson; Kean, family, Georgetown; Mr. and Mrs. Robt. O'Hara and Mr. A. Patrick and family; Acton Women's Institute; Knox Ladies Aid; J. E. Gamble and family; Mr. Akitt and Mr. and Mrs. James Byden; Knox Y.W.A.

Relatives were present from Toronto, Hamilton, Port Dover, Guelph, Georgetown, Milton and the surrounding district.
