OAKVILLE

Seventy veterans of the two world wars met in the Community Hall at Bronte on Friday evening, to organize a Branch of the Canadian Legion. The chair was occupied by Mr. Peter Cralk. Jim Hardiman, manager of the Gregory Theatre, is leaving for Midland to act as manager of the Capital Theatre there.

Before an audience that filled Victoria Hall to capacity, graduates and students of Oakville-Trafalgar High School were presented with diplomas for scholastic work, prizes won in the athletic field and awards for various endeavors at the school's annual commencement exercises on Friday evening.

What might easily have been a double tragedy was narrowly averted in the early hours of Saturday morning when a car was run down by an east bound freight train at the C.N.R. station, the 2 occupants climbing out just in time to escape being killed.

NASSAGAWEYA

Mrs. McLean has returned from visiting with Toronto friends. This section was shocked when they learned the news of the death of Mr. John Allison. Sympathy is extended to Mrs. Allison and daughters, Mrs. Mason and Mrs. Richardson in their bereavement.

February 23rd Farm Forum was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Kennedy. The Forum stayed in one group to discuss (1) Oomargarine entering the country. A well written article was read, giving facts that were enlightening as to the ingredients and price, that made the feeling of the group stronger than ever against having it. (2) Daylight saving time.

Each gave a written statement of their feelings for or against and were read out by the leader. Every one against, but varied ways of expressing it were given - humorous, definite and reason why it was no good. "You can have it, I don't want it. It's too fast for me." "You can change the clock, but chickens, children, cows, stay on nature's time." "It just means one more hour less sleep for the farmer" and "If city people want to let them get up their hour earlier, but leave the clock alone, were a sample of the writings.

Three discussions were on farm accounting. "Save the Children Fund" canvassing took a few minutes. Some lively games of euchre were played. Mrs. Kennedy served a nice lunch.

Mrs. Thos. J. Kennedy had the misfortune to have a bad fall last Tuesday noon. She is confined to her bed and since has developed a cold. We hope she has a speedy recovery. Mr. Kennedy also has the cold.

Mrs. John Peer has been very ill the past week but we are pleased to report she is some better.

Mr. Copeland reports upon his return from visiting Mrs. Copeland at Windsor that her health shows improvement. We hope she will soon be able to return home.

The Busy Bees' Women's Institute had a successful dance at Brookville Hall Friday night in aid of "Save the Children Fund". Mr. and Mrs. "Bud" James of Georgetown were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Frank.

Mrs. James Massey, Acton, spent Sunday and Monday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Kennedy.

Mr. Ben Beavis is having an auction sale on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Barlow and their son, Mr. Ralph Barlow are getting settled in their new home Concession 6 Lot 16.

The last days of February had nasty dispositions, but the first day of March although of a cold nature, came in smiling.

The president was in the chair and about 60 parents and guests were present.

Mrs. Gwyneth Brington of Toronto, formerly a newspaper woman and author of the book "Women without Money", addressed the local Women's Canadian Club on Friday afternoon, February 27th.

Approval of a by-law governing the installation of culverts and setting the date for nomination and election of a councillor to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Councillor George Hord were chief topics of business at the regular meeting of Milton Council, Tuesday night.

At a meeting of the executive committee of the Burlington and District Red Cross committee held in the council chamber on Wednesday evening last, it was announced that the local objective for the Dominion wide campaign which opened on Monday, March 1st, was $2300.

At the regular meeting of the Nelson Township Council held in the township hall on Monday, $45 was paid for fox bounties to the following: H. A. Walker, $6; Joe Rogers, $6; Gordon Thompson, $3; Wes Bowen, $3; Martin Heslop, $9 and J. B. Jarvis, $18.

The official opening of the apartment building on Brent Street for pensioners will take place on Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. H. B. Mansur of the Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation will be present to officially open this fine building. The public are cordially invited to the opening ceremonies. Previous to the opening a luncheon is being held at the Brent Inn at 12:30 to which a number of outside guests have been invited. This home, the first of its kind built in the Dominion and it is expected many more will be copied from its example.

WHERE WILL THE GOODS COME FROM? The question is not, "where will the money come from?" but, "where will the goods come from?" to provide pensioners, unemployed and other involuntarily or voluntarily idle people with food and other needs they cannot or do not earn.

There is no shortage of money, as the current inflation proves, but there are dire shortages of goods to meet the needs of Canadians, Britons and others. The money income of the people can be increased by the government but the real income, goods, can be increased only by the increased production of the people.

If producers become completely idle, as unemployed, or partially idle, by working less than an efficient, healthful work week, and those who continue to work cannot make good the lost production, there will be less goods to divide and the standard of living must fall. Hon. Humphrey Mitchell, minister of Labor, said recently: "Whether we like it or not, old age pensions, children's allowances, workmen's compensation, unemployment insurance, veterans' allowances and all these great social forces... by the very nature of things are a charge on the living standards of the people." They must be borne by sharing current production.

The parliamentary committee should not stop at an examination of the lesser causes of inflation but should go down to the root causes, which are the unproductive time of millions who work less than an efficient work week, and the excess of money they are paid in comparison with others for their inadequate production.

The S-T-O-P spells stop—but it may spell ACCIDENT to the motorist who disregards its meaning. The Ontario Highway Department warns that the unlawful practice of merely slowing up and driving on past is all too common. And any driver who is guilty of the practice is risking a STOP at the hospital.

BUILDING LAG

A world population increase of 200 million people, equal to the number of persons in all of North America, has been added since the first world war. This many more people to be housed makes the world-wide shortage of building materials even more acute. Heavy war damage and slow reconstruction also are listed among the chief reasons for the current world shortage of nearly every type of building material.
