BORN

CARRETT—To Dr. and Mrs. D. A. Garrett, Acton, Ont., twin boys on Wednesday, March 10, 1948, at Guelph General Hospital.

LOWRIE—At the Nursing Home, Guelph Street, Acton, to Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Lowrie, on Tuesday, March 16th, 1948, a daughter. A sister for Robert.

IN MEMORIAM

SMITH—In loving memory of a dear wife, Mrs. L. J. Smith, who passed away March 17th, 1947. Her loving face I hope to see again, though the days have passed away. Sleep on, dear wife, and take your rest. They miss you most who loved you best. Remembered by Husband.

CARDS OF THANKS

Mrs. Dan Lawson wishes to thank her many friends for cards, fruit and letters, also the friends who visited her while she was in the General Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Price and family wish to thank all their friends for the many kindnesses shown to Beverly during her illness. All these are greatly appreciated.

Mr. J. Bruce and family wish to thank friends and neighbors for their kindness, the floral tributes and expressions of sympathy extended to them at the time of their recent bereavement.

Mr. George Robertson and family wish to thank Dr. W. G. C. Kenney, Mrs. A. Burrows, and all the kind friends who sent floral tributes, messages of sympathy, loaned cars and in any way assisted them in their recent sad bereavement.

—Good Friday a week from tomorrow—
—People who spend themselves freely are seldom hard up.
—Looks as if the spring break-up came on Monday of this week.
—Marbles are out but we haven't noticed any skipping ropes in evidence yet.
—Yesterday was the day of the year for all sons and daughters of old Ireland and the little shamrock was much in evidence.

MARCH MEETING OF THE BUSY BEES W.I. HAD VARIED PROGRAM

The March meeting of the Busy Bees W.I. was held at the home of Mrs. Wm. Allison, when twelve members, three guests and four children attended. Roll call was answered by handing in articles for sale in the future. Good Cheer report told of a spray of flowers being sent to a bereaved family. Financial report showed $28.00 was cleared at a dance sponsored for "Save the Children Fund." Roll call next week will be answered by a handkerchiefs suitable for crocheted edging and for sale later. The hostess of each meeting is to take care of articles left from roll call that day. A local talent program and Box Social is to be held in Brookville Hall in several weeks. Proceeds for Sick Children's Hospital and Crippled Children. Mrs. Allen and Mrs. McLean are program convenors.

MRS. GEORGE H. GRIFFIN

A much-beloved citizen of Erin W.I. the greatest power for good in the historic period in which we live. The following ladies took part in her program: Mrs. Arthur Davenport gave a poem "Progress"; Mrs. C. E. Davenport a reading: "One of those Days"; Mrs. David Henderson, "The New Member"; by Mrs. Lloyd Crawford, honorary District President; Mrs. Peter McLean, a poem, "A Preference"; and Mrs. Stan Robinson, "An Executive." A few minutes of a singing were enjoyed before closing with all joining hands in "Auld Lang Syne." The hostess conducted a musical contest. Mrs. Peter McLean was pianist of the day. Mrs. Allison served a lovely lunch that all enjoyed.

Obituary

MRS. GEORGE ROBERTSON

The funeral of the late Mrs. George Robertson was held on Saturday, March 6th in the family home at Eden Mills with a private service followed by a service in the Presbyterian Church. Mrs. Robertson was born in Kirkcaldy, Scotland and came to Canada with her husband in 1924, and had lived in Eden Mills for the last 23 years. She took an active part in the Women's Institute, church activities, the Red Cross and was a devoted member of the Presbyterian Church. She leaves to mourn her loss her husband, Mr. George Robertson; three daughters, Joan (Mrs. W. J. McKnight), Acton; Georgina (Mrs. S. W. Quinn), Fort William; Jean (Mrs. G. E. Aitken), Guelph; and two sons, Douglas and Gordon of Guelph. The pallbearers were Messrs. Stanley Wilson, James Wilson, Herbert Gilbertson, Harry McIntosh, Duncan MacDougall and Donald Clark. Interment was in Eden Mills Cemetery.

MRS. JOHN BRUCE

Following a lengthy period of ill health, Mrs. John Bruce passed away on Sunday, March 7th at the Guelph General Hospital. She was fifty-nine years old. Born at Edinburgh, Scotland, Isabella Mochrie was a daughter of James and Isabella Mochrie. Thirty-five years ago Mr. and Mrs. Bruce came to Canada. For two years they resided in Toronto and for thirty-three years they have been esteemed residents of Acton. Besides her husband she leaves to mourn the loss of a loving wife and devoted mother, two daughters and two sons, Isabel (Mrs. E. C. Russell) of British Columbia; May (Mrs. D. F. Wilder) and Jack and Bob of Acton. Of ten brothers, Robert, Hope, James, John, William and Edward live in Scotland and Archie, George, Alex and Tom reside in Canada. Sympathy of many friends in this community where she had resided so long goes to the bereaved at this time. Mrs. Bruce attended Knox Presbyterian Church and the funeral service on Wednesday afternoon at the Johnston and Rumley Funeral Home was in charge of her minister, Rev. John Anderson. Here many friends gathered in tribute and sympathy. Interment was in Fairview Cemetery, Acton. The pallbearers were Messrs. Al Kirkness, Joe Kensler, Charles Harard, Lloyd Masales, Ivan Harris and John Robson.

MRS. JOHN V. SAVAGE

Resident of Acton for the past thirty-four years and native of England, Mrs. John V. Savage passed away on Friday, March 5, in her seventy-ninth year. She had been about as usual all day and passed away suddenly in the early evening. Mrs. Savage was before marriage Kate Stroud, a daughter of the late John Stroud and Charlotte Ridgers of Walton-on-Thames, England. In 1914, Mr. and Mrs. Savage came to Canada and Acton and have resided here ever since. The couple would have marked their diamond wedding anniversary if Mrs. Savage had been spared until September. Besides her husband, John V. Savage, she leaves to mourn the loss of a devoted wife and mother, two sons and one daughter, John M. of Toronto; Thomas R. of Winnipeg, Man.; and Mrs. J. Campbell Currie of Acton. A sister, Mrs. Mary Gregory of Addleton, England and a brother, Athol Stroud of London, England and five grandsons and one great grandson survive her. To all the bereaved, sympathy of many friends goes at this time. Mrs. Savage was a member of the Anglican Church and the funeral service on Tuesday afternoon at the Johnston and Rumley Funeral Home was in charge of Rev. W. G. Luxton, rector of St. Alban's Church. Interment was in Fairview Cemetery, Acton. The pallbearers were Messrs. Robert Lowrie, W. J. Oakes, A. T. Brown, Hilliard Lashby, John Lambert and Rudolph Spitzvogel. Many friends attended the funeral in tribute and beautiful floral tributes also bore testimony of esteem and sympathy.

MRS. GEORGE H. GRIFFIN

Mrs. George Griffin (nee Ellen Burt) passed away at her home on March 2nd. She was in her 86th year. Mrs. Griffin was married on March 7th, 1883 and had she been spared until the following Sunday she and her husband would have celebrated the 65th anniversary of their marriage. On the day following the funeral they received a cablegram from the King and Queen congratulating them on this anniversary, the royal couple not being aware of the death of the wife. Mrs. Griffin was the second daughter of James Burt and Barbara Ann Smith, parents highly esteemed by all who knew them and it is worthy of note that all of their nine children inherited the traits of their parents. After their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Griffin lived at their home lot 11, concession 7, Erin, until December 1915, when they moved to the village of Erin, where they have since resided. Mrs. Griffin is survived by her husband, two sons, Arthur J. of Erin township and Carman of South Bend Indiana. Two younger boys, Kelley and George died when young, also four grand children. She is survived by two sisters, Nancy (Mrs. Dedies) and Elizabeth (Mrs. McKinnon) of Erin, and eight brothers, Jacob, of Erin, and Robert living in Collingwood. A private funeral service was held at the home and a public service at the United Church, Rev. S. W. Pattison officiated. Interment was at Coningsby Cemetery. Many relatives attended from outside points, including: Carman, wife, three sons, George, Lloyd and Russell from South Bend, Indiana; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Burt, Collingwood; Mrs. Woodward and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Johnson, Hamilton; Mr. Shirley Watson and Mrs. Lloyd McEwen, of Arisa; Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Root and daughter of Rockwood. Also friends from Acton and the country filled the church. The beautiful floral tributes also bespoke the high esteem in which the deceased was held. The pallbearers were James Binnie, Frederick Bingham, Thomas Cook, William Bush, W. J. McLean and John Anthony. The flower bearers were: George, Lloyd, Russell Griffin, Smith Griffin and William Thompson.

Motorists should remember that their right of way at intersections does not give them the Ontario to take chances. The Ontario Department of Highways suggest that every intersection should be approached at such a speed that a safe stop can be made if necessary.
