Obituary

BORN

PREULER—Mr. and Mrs. H. Preuler are very happy to announce the arrival of a son, Bernard Wilshire at the Nursing Home, Guelph Street, Acton, on Wednesday, April 7th, 1948. Both doing nicely.

DIED

ROADKNIGHT—At his home in Acton, Ont., on Saturday, April 10th, 1948, Ebor Charles Roadknight, husband of Mrs. Matilda Roadknight, and father of Edwin Roadknight of Guelph.

IN MEMORIAM

MCCUTCHEON—In loving memory of my mother, Mrs. F. Sinclair, who passed away April 7th, 1946. We cannot close our eyes. Your face we cannot see. But let this little token tell that we still remember you. Ever remembered by Wife and Daughters

SINCLAIR—In loving memory of my mother, Mrs. John F. Sinclair, who passed away April 7th, 1946. Somewhere today on the Hilltop Of the City that has no pain. She will watch from the Beautiful Doorway To welcome us Home again. Always remembered by Bert

WORDS OF THANKS

Mrs. E. C. Roadknight and family wish to thank friends and neighbors for their kindness and assistance during their bereavement. This was indeed appreciated.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Stewart extend their sincere thanks to the kind friends who sent cards, fruit flowers and books to their son Ebor during his stay in Guelph General Hospital. They were very much appreciated.

The family of the late Mrs. James Dobbie wish to extend their heartfelt thanks to the neighbors, friends and relatives for the kind expressions of sympathy during her lengthy illness and at the time of her death. These expressions will be gratefully remembered.

This and that

Maple syrup is selling at $4.50 a gallon in this district this season.

The Daryell farm north of Acton has been purchased by Mr. Stanley Swackhamer.

The farm belonging to the estate of Miss Mae Hallett has been sold through Wm. Bracken to Stanley J. Sinclair.

Present plans call for the opening of the new Roxy Theatre in Acton on April 24th. Interior work is progressing very favorably.

A chimney fire last Friday at noon at the home of Mrs. Jocque on Agnes Street gave the Fire Brigade a run. It was not necessary to use the pumper on the blaze.

The Woman's Association of United Church held their April meeting on Tuesday at the home of Mrs. J. Moore, president. The devotional period was in charge of Mrs. W. Evans. Plans were made for places of meeting and lunch committees for the year.

Mrs. Evans and Miss Jean Harris assisted Mrs. Harris in serving lunch and appreciation was expressed for the home and to the lunch committee.
