OSPRINGE

Mrs. George Cook was hostess to the Women's Institute on the evening of May 5th. There were seven members present and the roll call was answered by paying the fees.

Garden Club and the Housing competition by Mrs. Jackson and Mrs. Kalthoff. Regarding the recommendations from the Provincial Board that the branch institute fee be raised to 50c the vote was in favor. Mrs. W. J. Jackson was elected president, Mrs. E. Barber, retiring from office. First and second choice in the Co-operative program were "Canning Ontario's Foods" and "Hooked rugs". The financial statement was given by the secretary, Miss Doris Fines and the auditors report by Mrs. D. G. Robertson. The standing committees were elected and the report of the district directors meeting given by Mrs. Kalthoff. Arrangements were made for the contests at the District Annual and Mrs. Elgin Brown appointed delegate. The following program was a pleasant relaxation after the business: reading by Mrs. Ward Bruce; instrumental by Mrs. G. Aiken; paper on publicity by Mrs. G. Sunter; and a contest by Mrs. Byron Bruce which was won by Mrs. D. G. Robertson.

The meeting closed with the National Anthem and a bountiful lunch was served by the hostess and assistants. The District Annual being held on our regular day the next meeting will be a week later.

A large crowd was present at Cedarvale school on Monday night when Ovarvale and Ospringe sections gathered to honor Mr. and Mrs. Pat Struthers (nee Beth Harding, recent newly-weds. Mr. H. Reid acted as chairman for a short program. Miss Doris Fines read an address and they were presented with a mantel clock and an envelope of money. Both Pat and Beth made fitting replies. Lunch was served and a short dance followed.

Mr. Alvin Fisher bought the house from Mr. Wm. Marshall, which he recently purchased from Miss E. Baldie. Mother's Day service was fittingly observed at the local Presbyterian Church on Sunday. Mr. Vair of Hamilton was in charge. Mrs. Harris' class of girls sang, "The Stranger of Galilee". Diplomas were presented to the following Sunday School scholars for Church attendance and memory work. Robert, Shirley and Audrey Grundy, Shirley Joyce and Marjorie Chester.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Ferguson were sorry to learn their young daughter, Linda, was confined to the hospital for four days with a sinus infection, but are pleased she is now home and improved.

Mr. R. J. Matthews spent a day last week with her mother, Mrs. Almas, Guelph who is ill. Mr. and Mrs. A. McKinney and Mr. and Mrs. George Robertson attended the opening ball game in Toronto last week.

GERMAN TEACHERS ARE STUDYING LIFE IN BRITAIN

A party of one hundred German men and women from the British Zone of Germany are now attending courses designed to give them a general picture of life in Britain today. Lectures on various aspects of Britain's educational technique and social services are included. There will also be visits to places of historic interest and scenic beauty in the vicinity. The visitors are representative of teachers at primary schools in Germany and junior university lecturers.
