MUST STOP ASKING FAVORS
If we are going to make a successful stand against totalitarianism then we must make very sure that we are free from the curse ourselves.

This was the warning of William A. Irwin, economist for the American Bankers Association in an address before the Canadian Club of Toronto this week.

The Financial Post adds this: A big path has been worn to Ottawa and Washington by so called free citizens seeking special favours that in the end mean higher costs, less competition, higher taxes and more government control.

Unless we change our way that sort of thing can only lead to the same state domination which threatens so large a part of the world today. The Post warns approval until sanctioned by the Municipal Board.

The garbage collection again came up and Council passed the following resolution: "That this Municipality reiterates its position that contract for garbage collection with Jas. Morrison cannot be altered or amended; but this municipality does hereby approve a sub-letting of the contract by Jas. Morrison to George McLellan, it being understood that Morrison remains the contractor with whom this municipality is dealing." Carried. The contract covering this change was read.

Council also discussed the arrangement on the new Boardman subdivision at the east end of the Crescent.

ARENA IS READY FOR THE SUMMER DANCE SEASON

Big changes have taken place in the Acton Arena since the last hockey game. The expense of ice is no more; colorful decorations flutter above a gleaming dance floor and a newly decorated band shell stands ready for playing music. There has been heard for the past week "a sound of revelry (hammers) by night" as the Y's men put the finishing touches on the floor. There is a lot of work entailed each year in hauling the floor from the old drill hall, laying, smoothing and polishing it. Special thanks this year is due to Contractors Jones and Vancils who have donated many man hours of time and experience in assisting the Y's men toward the early completion of this work. Other groups such as McEachern Electric, McLeod & Frank to mention only two have also lent a hand. It is in this spirit of helpful co-operation which enables a community to do worthwhile things.

AC-TEEN TOPICS

The tennis courts have certainly been busy in the few nice days we have had in the last week. The surprising part about it is that the teen agers are exceedingly enthusiastic and there is certainly a good crop of beginners. If you're looking for some good fun and something to do on those lovely summer nights that aren't far off, the tennis court is the place. Major topic among the Ac-teens is of course the final exams that are coming up and they are certainly worth some consideration.

No matter where we start off in our ramblings it seems inevitable that we mention the Penguin Prom. A momentous decision was made last Friday evening by the council and since it is contradictory to one of our statements we feel it should be mentioned to you.

After reviewing the financial status of the club it was decided that although we will only take in half of our expenses at the Prom, we would have an orchestra. The council felt that since it was a two-enge club and had been so well supported this last season, they should refund some of the profit received by engaging an orchestra for the Prom. This will still leave a good bank balance for next year's club to start the season with.

A little situation has been drawn to our attention and that is the fact that girls like being escorted to a Prom. That's just a gentle hint boys and we want go any further.

The invitations will probably be mailed for the Prom by the time you read this and if there are any members or regular attenders who haven't received one speak to a member of the council.

Well, the juvenile hockey team received their due recognition at the Penguin Club. The Athletic Association had procured windbreakers for the team and they were presented by Dr. Sirs, assisted by other officials. The team received recognition from the Penguin Club by having their lunch served to them at a table, something quite out of the ordinary and actually the first time it has ever happened.

Remember the regular get-together this Friday will be the second last event of the season, with only the Prom to follow. Also the tennis courts are a good place to work off some of that excess energy.

DELEGATES REPORT AT MAY MEETING OF KNOX W.M.S.

The Knox Presbyterian W.M.S. held their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Geo. Ritchie on May 15th. The meeting was in charge of the Home Helpers of the W.M.S. and was opened by the president, Mrs. Blow. A pleasing report on the Synodical meeting of the Women's Missionary Society which took place at Collingwood, this month, was given by Mrs. Blow, who attended the meeting. Mrs. R. L. Davidson gave an interesting reading. A letter was read by Mrs. Hassard, from Miss M. McDougall, teacher, expressing her thanks for a gift sent to her by the W.M.S. Mrs. Hassard also gave a reading entitled "What Sayeth the Scriptures." Miss Bella Rozzell favored with a solo, which was much enjoyed.

Mrs. Ted Hansen gave her impressions on the Spring Presbyterian Rally of the W.M.S. which was held at Alma on Tuesday, May 11th, at which she was a delegate. Mrs. John Anderson offered the closing prayer. A dainty and bountiful lunch was served by the Home Helpers and a social time was spent.

Split vacations are growing in popularity. Travel officials in the United States report from casual observation that more people than ever before have divided up their annual off-duty periods this year, taking part of their vacation in the summer and part in the fall or some other season. To the holiday industry this means a trend toward a year-round operation.
