What and that

—Summer sports are in full swing, baseball, bowling, tennis etc.

—Rains came at the right time during the week to keep growth in good condition.

—Home gardens are coming along and will soon be helping reduce the cost of living.

—Schools will soon be closing for the long summer vacations. Good old school days.

—We can't have a swimming pool this year but it can be done next year. Save for it now.

—Dr. Paul Beer, Georgetown, paid $1100 to G. A. Hogz, Thamesford, for a bred heifer.

—Miss Betty Lawson was successful in passing the Preparatory Division of Trinity College of Music.

—Congratulations to Jack Mainprize and Gordon Beatty who were successful in passing their examinations in the engineering course of University of Toronto.

—There was a rather interesting report of Georgetown Council's discussion on the North Halton High School District published in the Herald last week. The editor did a service to his readers in publishing the item, but by now all will realize how far from fact the conversation drifted.

FRIENDS FROM HERE HONOR JOHN PELL ON SECURING DEGREE

A surprise picnic and presentation was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Pell, Fruitland, on Sunday, June the sixth, when about fifty friends and relatives from Acton, Hamilton, Erin, Norval, Milton, Orangeville, Long Branch and Brampton gathered to celebrate and congratulate Mr. John Pell on the occasion of his recent graduation as a Bachelor of Arts. After a visit to the school where John teaches a lovely picnic lunch was served on the lawn. After lunch Mr. Fred Kingsmill, Acton presented Mr. Pell with a lovely gift. John in a few fitting words thanked his friends and relatives for their hospitality and the kindness shown him on this occasion. Mr. Pell formerly taught at the Lorne School, Acton.

AC-TEEN TOPICS

The Penguin Club has closed its portals on organized teen-age entertainment for the season. It was a year of surprises, discouragements and joys both for the Council and for the members. The present club started quite a while ago and has had several graduations. At first it was a Wednesday get-together and then it developed into a Friday night dance, thence to Town Town and finally the Penguin Club evolved.

With the close of Penguin activities for the season we think it is not necessary to continue our column. Incidentally the column made its first appearance on May 15th, 1947. That doesn't seem so long ago but when one looks back on all the things we have recorded, it certainly appears in its full light. It has been our endeavour to boost organized entertainment for teen-agers in Acton by keeping various topics before them. The Penguin Club was a dream come true. It was organized and run by teen-agers and consequently we gave it all possible support. It is surprising how much co-operation and how much opposition can be met with in such a small town, but the former surprised the latter and the club had a very successful year.

Next year the club will have to be re-opened. But who is going to do it? Someone has to arrange the election, but who? Someone has to be a mayor and there has to be a council, but who wants to be on it?

No single person can be made responsible for all these tasks, but in this our last appearance, we would like to remind you that as an individual teen-ager, you are responsible for pulling your share of the load and in seeing that '49 season at the Penguin Club is an even greater success than this past year.

But now as all things, good or bad, must come to an end, we would like to sign off for this season. I have enjoyed presenting, each week, the Ac-Teen Topics, in what I hope has been an interesting manner. The topics have been varied and I hope have found favour with you. Next year I would be glad to pass the pen on to someone else interested in Ac-Teen Topics.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Bud Kilgour of New Hamburg, wore a floor-length turquoise gown, styled with a brocaded satin bodice and nylon net skirt and mittens and carried a nosegay of pink roses and sweet peas.

Miss Dorothy Bowman, Hamilton, and Mrs. Douglas Schwoob, Kitchener, were bridesmaids. Miss Bowman chose a yellow nylon gown designed with high round neckline, fitted yoke, puffed sleeves and bustle effect skirt, a matching
